Chicopee Michele Plourde-Barker,1998-09 Introduced in celebration of the 150th anniversary of the town s incorporation Chicopee traces the history of this Western Massachusetts community from its first settlement in the 1660s to the growth spurt of the post World War II era Much of the community s early built environment changed during Chicopee s transformation from town to city and this fascinating new book reveals the lost elements of the landscape From covered bridges over the Chicopee and Connecticut Rivers to early farms readers will see much that has disappeared from Chicopee over time The 200 vintage images displayed in this volume depict lost schools and churches local businesses shops and
