The Arab World Irwin Isenberg, 1976      No Exit Yoav Di-Capua, 2018-03-30 It is a curious and relatively little known fact that for two decades from the end of World War II until the late 1960s existentialism's most fertile ground outside of Europe was in the Middle East and Jean Paul Sartre was the Arab intelligentsia's uncontested champion In the Arab world neither before nor since has another Western intellectual been so widely translated debated and celebrated By closely following the remarkable career of Arab existentialism Yoav Di Capua reconstructs the cosmopolitan milieu of the generation that tried to articulate a political and philosophical vision for an egalitarian postcolonial world He tells this story by touring a fascinating selection of Arabic and Hebrew archives including unpublished diaries and interviews Tragically the warm and hopeful relationships forged between Arab intellectuals Sartre Simone de Beauvoir and others ended when on the eve of the 1967 war Sartre failed to embrace the Palestinian cause Today when the prospect of global ethical engagement seems to be slipping ever farther out of reach No Exit provides a timely humanistic account of the intellectual hopes struggles and victories that shaped the Arab experience of decolonization and a delightfully wide ranging excavation of existentialism's non Western history      Middle East, the Strategic Hub, and North Africa Army Library (U.S.), 1973      Middle East:

in the Arab World Mona A. Nsouli, Lokman I. Meho, 2006-10-05 This is the first bibliography exclusively devoted to censorship in the Arab world It includes items in such areas as academic freedom book banning book trade copyright and intellectual property freedom of information communication and expression freedom of the press and politics intellectual freedom the Internet journalistic ethics laws and legislation libraries library acquisitions literature privacy radio and television and theater and film More than 650 items are included in this bibliography ranging from books scholarly journal articles and chapters in books to doctoral dissertations conference papers and articles in scholarly dictionaries and encyclopedias in Arabic English French and several other languages published between 1960 and 2004 Extensive cross references are provided at the end of each chapter and an author and title index are also included This is an indispensable guide for students educators researchers journalists policy makers and the general public interested in uncovering the realities of censorship in the Arab world      The Middle and Late Jurassic Intrashelf Basin of the Eastern Arabian

Peninsula A.O. Wilson, 2020-12-04 This memoir provides a thorough review of the geology of the rimmed Arabian Intrashelf Basin reconciling differing interpretations of lithostratigraphy sequence stratigraphy and biostratigraphy Variation of energy levels and facies due to its setting in the SE palaeotrade wind belt are described The roles subtle tectonism played in developing the basin and in the Late Jurassic creating restriction by uplift and exposure of the Tethys shelf are evaluated The intrashelf basin formed during rising sea level as a single rimmed carbonate intrashelf basin A possible global cooling phase resulted in a lowstand which restricted the basin resulting in petrographically unique carbonate source rock facies dominated by cyanobacterial deposition Two subsequent 3rd order carbonate sequences largely filled the basin Eustatic change concomitant with uplift of the Tethys shelf resulted in alternation of carbonates and evaporites gypsum anhydrite across the region The end result was a sealed intrashelf basin which preserved early formed porosity and confined generated hydrocarbons within the intrashelf basin facies The Middle East ,1989 Multiculturalism and Democracy in North Africa Moha Ennaji,2014-04-16 Investigating the connections between multiculturalism minorities citizenship and democracy in North Africa this book argues that multiculturalism in this region and in the Arab world at large has reached a significant level in terms of scale and importance In the rest of the world there has been a trend albeit a contested one toward a greater recognition of minority rights The Arab world however particularly North Africa seems to be an exception to this trend as Arab states continue to promote highly unitary and homogenizing ideas of nationhood and state unity whilst discouraging or even forbidding minority political mobilization The central theoretical premise of this book is that North Africa is a multicultural region where culture is inherently linked to politics religion gender and society and a place where democracy is gradually taking root despite many political and economic hurdles Addressing the lacuna in literature on this issue this book opens new avenues of thought and research on diversity linking policy based on cultural difference to democratic culture and to social justice Multiculturalism and Democracy in North Africa will be of use to students and researchers with an interest in Sociology Cultural Studies and Political Science more broadly Telling Findings Gianna

Fusco,2016-04-19T15:55:00+02:00 This study is located at the fruitful intersection of Corpus Linguistics and Translation Studies and brings the theoretical contribution of both fields to the investigation of a corpus of highly specialized texts in the field of Islamic Archaeology The tools and methodologies elaborated by Corpus Linguistics are applied to the analysis of a complex bilingual corpus AriIEL Archaeology of Islam Italian English Lexicon comprising academic texts in Italian and English The investigation of this corpus highlights some crucial aspects of translation praxes such as the identification of multi word units of meaning and allows the emergence of significant asymmetries at the level of the specialized lexicon between the two languages These insights are based on the analytic examination of the two sub corpora constituting AriIEL namely a parallel corpus of texts originally written in Italian and their translation into English ParAriIEL and a comparable corpus of academic texts in English from the same field CompAriIEL This data driven approach has theoretical outcomes for the study of translation but also yields results that can lead to very practical applications such as the gradual building of bilingual tools for professional translators and scholars alike As an example of this a corpus based monodirectional Italian English glossary of Islamic Archaeology is presented at the end of this volume The Publishers Weekly ,1926 Shifting Perspectives of Postcolonialism in Twenty-First-Century Anglophone-Arab Fiction Majed Alenezi,2022-09-09 Shifting Perspectives of Postcolonialism in Twenty First Century Anglophone Arab Fiction explores the flourishing Anglophone Arab fiction after 9 11 Central to this expansion are the socio political changes in the aftermath of the 9 11 attacks not only on the international scene but also at the local level within the Arab Muslim world Paralleling this expansion is a shift from traditional postcolonial discourse toward Arab nation s internal issues Rather than echoing the outmoded writing back paradigm the Anglophone Arab writers have taken up specific social and political concerns through their writings and offer a trenchant commentary on issues of indigenous and international significance Moving away from postcolonial political awareness Anglophone Arab writers provide a critical perspective on some important contemporary issues facing the Arab nations like misuse of religious discourse sectarianism terrorism feminism class struggle political rights and democracy and the fragmentation of the Arab society

Language Teaching Through the Ages Garon Wheeler,2013 Konrad Koerner a leading historian of linguistics has long said that an academic field cannot be considered to have matured until it has history as one of its subfields The history of linguistics is a growing area having come into its own in the 1960s especially after Noam Chomsky looked for historical roots for his work In contrast the history of language teaching has been neglected reflecting the insecurity and youth of the field Most works on the subject have been written by linguists for other linguists and typically focus on a specific period or aspect of history This volume concentrates on the basic issues events and threads of the history of the field from Mesopotamia to the present showing how a knowledge of this history can inform the practice of language teaching in the present
