The Archaeology Of Rank New Studies In Archaeology:

The Archaeology of Rank Paul K. Wason, 1994-08-25 Describes a range of methods used by archaeologists to infer ranking from archaeological data

The Dying Child Kristine Henriksen Garroway, 2025 The death of a child is perhaps the most painful heartbreaking and seemingly unnatural experience we have the displeasure of living with Yet it is difficult to say with certainty whether or not this sentiment was shared by the inhabitants of ancient Israel Many studies have explored death in ancient societies by examining types of burial burial rites biblical notions of death and the afterlife care for the dead even cults of the dead yet no single study has been devoted to children and death in ancient Israel The study of childhood death is tightly entwined with the concerns of a field that is relatively new to the scholarship of ancient Israel personhood An exploration of the concept of personhood is needed in the context of childhood death In The Dying Child Kristine Henriksen Garroway argues for a stronger position of the child in current archeological trends Many archaeologists hesitate to ascribe various domestic objects to children despite their obvious presence in the ancient home This functionally ignores an entire class of people in the study of death In acknowledging the personhood of children in burials and other deathly rituals Garroway considers emotional and personal aspects of ancient Israeli life filling a critical gap in our understanding of this culture

Chieftains of the Highland Clans Robert D. Miller, 2012-05-02 In the seven years since it was published Miller's yeoman narrative RYAN BYRNE BASOR has become an important part of academic discourse on early Israel An illuminating social history of ancient Israel Chieftains of the Highland Clans offers an unusually thorough and original reconstruction of Israelite society prior to the rise of the monarchy around 1000 BC Using the latest archaeological research and anthropological theories Robert Miller presents an intriguing picture of what life was like in early Israel This reprint edition contains a new preface by the author that surveys developments in the past decade impacting issues addressed in Chieftains of the Highland Clans

Social Change in Aegean Prehistory Corien Wiersma, Sofia Voutsaki, 2016-11-30 This volume brings together papers that discuss social change The main focus is on the Early Helladic III to Late Helladic I period in southern Greece but also touches upon the surrounding islands This specific timeframe enables us to consider how mainland societies recovered from a crisis and how they eventually developed into the differentiated culturally receptive and competitive social formations of the early Mycenaean period Material changes are highlighted in the various papers ranging from pottery and burials to domestic architecture and settlement structures followed by discussions of how these changes relate to social change A variety of factors is thereby considered including demographic changes reciprocal relations and sumptuary behavior household organization and kin structure age and gender divisions internal tensions connectivity and mobility As such this volume is of interest to both Aegean prehistorians as to scholars interested in social and material change The volume consists of eight papers preceded by an introduction and concluded by a response The introduction gives an overview of the development of the debate on the explanation of social change in Aegean prehistory The response places the volume in a broader context of the EH III LH I period and the broader discussion on social change The Funeral Kit Jill L Baker, 2016-06-03 Studies of mortuary archaeology tend to focus on difference how the researcher can identify age gender status and ethnicity from the contents of a burial Jill L Baker's innovative approach begins from the opposite point how can you recognize the commonalities of a culture from the funeral kit that occurs in all burials irrespective of status differences And what do those commonalities have to say about the world view and religious beliefs of that culture Baker begins with the Middle and Late Bronze Age tombs in the southern Levant then expands her scope in ever widening circles to create a general model of the funeral kit of use to archaeologists in a wide variety of cultures and settings The volume will be of equal value to specialists in Near Eastern archaeology and those who study mortuary remains in ancient cultures worldwide

Yuthu Allison R. Davis, 2011-01-01 The crown jewel of the Inka Empire was their capital Cusco So celebrated was the Cusco of Inka times that we sometimes forget how little we know of earlier times in the region This book presents Allison Davis pioneering excavations at the high altitude Formative site of Yuthu Davis presents all her data on early households and evidence for the villagers subsistence strategies craft production and mortuary practices From her excavations we learn a great deal about daily life and public rituals each conducted in a different sector of Yuthu An unexpected bonus of Davis excavations was the discovery that some well known Inka practices actually had their origin in the early villages of the Cusco region Before her work at Yuthu so few early houses and ceremonial structures had been published in detail for the Cusco area that we had much less evidence for understanding sacred versus secular space Davis excavations contribute to our understanding of one of the most important transitions in Andean history the shift from autonomous egalitarian villages to multicomunity polities with hereditary inequality She is able to link archaeological houses sites and multisite clusters to socially meaningful units such as families villages and communities Davis is also able to combine her excavations with settlement pattern data to develop a regional picture of the Formative period in Cusco This volume is not only the first excavation report on a Formative village in the Cusco area but is also a study that contributes new data on many traditional Andean themes including zonal complementarity sacred landscapes community composition mummies and ancestor veneration ritual canals and religious rites and intra village subdivisions Social Theory and the Study of Israelite

Religion Saul M. Olyan, 2012-06-22 This volume assesses past theoretically engaged work on Israelite religion and presents new approaches to particular problems and larger interpretive and methodological questions It gathers previously unpublished research by senior and mid career scholars well known for their contributions in the area of social theory and the study of Israelite religion and by junior scholars whose writing is just beginning to have a serious impact on the field The volume begins with a critical introduction by the editor Topics of interest to the contributors include gender violence social change the festivals the dynamics of shame and honor and the relationship of text to ritual The contributors engage theory from social and cultural anthropology sociology postcolonial studies and ritual studies Theoretical models are evaluated in light of the primary data and some authors modify or adapt theory to increase its utility for biblical studies The contributors are Susan Ackerman Stephen L Cook Ronald Hendel T M Lemos Nathaniel B Levtow Carol Meyers Saul M Olyan R diger Schmitt Robert R Wilson and David P Wright      Gournes, Pediada Calliope E. Galanaki,2021-12-31 An Early Bronze Age cemetery with 37 tombs shows strong relations with the Cyclades during the time of the Kampos Cultural Group as exemplified by distinctive pottery obsidian and metal items A dense social network included the Cycladic islands and contacts with distant areas of Crete      Handbook of Archaeological Theories R. Alexander Bentley,Herbert D. G. Maschner,Christopher Chippindale,2009-09-16 This handbook a companion to the authoritative Handbook of Archaeological Methods gathers original authoritative articles from leading archaeologists on all aspects of the latest thinking about archaeological theory It is the definitive resource for understanding how to think about archaeology      The Swineherd and the Bow William G. Thalmann,1998 Thalmann concentrates on the representation of slaves and on the dynamics of competition and family structure in the contest of the bow to interpret the Odyssey and implicitly epic poetry generally as an intervention in the conflicts that surrounded the birth of the polis      The Archaeology of Death Robert Chapman,Ian Kinnes,Klavs Randsborg,1981-10-22 This volume brings together studies on the disposal of the dead and the archaeological research potential of found remains      Proceedings of the ... Annual UCLA Indo-European Conference ,2002

Handbook of Zooarchaeology Umberto Albarella, Mauro Rizzetto, Hannah Russ, Kim Vickers, Sarah Viner-Daniels, 2017 Animals have played a fundamental role in shaping human history and the study of their remains from archaeological sites zooarchaeology has gradually been emerging as a powerful discipline and crucible for forging an understanding of our past This Handbook offers a cutting edge global compendium of zooarchaeology that seeks to provide a holistic view of the role played by animals in past human cultures Case studies from across five continents explore a huge range of human animal interactions from an array of geographical historical and cultural contexts and also illuminate the many approaches and methods adopted by different schools and traditions in studying these relationships

Peer Polity Interaction and Socio-political Change Colin Renfrew, John F. Cherry, 1986-05-29 Thirteen leading archaeologists have contributed to this innovative study of the socio political processes notably imitation competition warfare and the exchange of material goods and information that can be observed within early complex societies particularly those just emerging into statehood The common aim is to explain the remarkable formal similarities that exist between institutions ideologies and material remains in a variety of cultures characterised by independent political centres yet to be brought under the control of a single unified jurisdiction A major statement of the conceptual approach is followed by ten case studies from a wide variety of times and places including Minoan Crete early historic Greece and Japan the classic Maya the American Mid west in the Hopewellian period Europe in the Early Bronze Age and Early Iron Age and the British Isles in the late Neolithic

Towards a Social Bioarchaeology of the Mycenaean Period Ioanna Moutafi, 2021-06-09 This book investigates the complex relationship between funerary treatment and wider social dynamics through a contextual analysis of human skeletal remains and associated mortuary data from Voudeni an important Mycenaean 1450 1050 BC chamber tomb cemetery in Achaea Greece Voudeni is one of the most significant sites of Achaea thoroughly investigated under the direction of the Honorary General Director of Antiquities Dr Lazaros Kolonas Over 60 chamber tombs spanning the entire Late Helladic III period have been excavated yielding an unprecedented wealth of biocultural information This study explores the post mortem treatment of the body in the Voudeni cemetery through a novel interpretive approach that transcends unproductive cross disciplinary divisions This biosocial approach integrates traditional archaeology current reflections in mortuary archaeological theory and cutting edge bioarchaeological methods primarily focused on funerary taphonomy and archaeoethnology of commingled skeletal assemblages The author proposes that the most effective route to explore the social dimensions of mortuary data is through an emic understanding of historically situated actions and experiences both of the living actors the mourners and of the dead themselves Human skeletal remains are used as the primary strand of evidence both as the object of the acts of the living and the subject of their own lived experiences Most importantly this study aspires to show how reconciliation between abstract theoretical advances and empirical biocultural data may be possible providing the most insightful path to a better understanding of the archaeological mortuary record The book provides a thorough background on Mycenaean mortuary research and explores the topic in successive stages a theoretical and methodological framework b detailed taphonomic analysis and osteological results of 20 tombs c multivariate analysis of bio cultural data across socio temporal parameters with special emphasis on the distinction between the palatial LHIIIA B and the transitional post palatial LHIIIC period and d final synthesis addressing questions pertaining to changing social conditions in Achaea and key issues of current Mycenaean mortuary research These include tomb re use form diversity sequence and frequency of mortuary activities mortality profiles differential inclusion visibility and funerary treatment of different groups identities changes in treatment of the dead body reflecting shifts in notions of the self and social relationships The results shed new light on social developments in Mycenaean Achaea showing that the complex interaction between changing social conditions and mortuary practice is often reflected in subtle yet meaningful shifts of emphasis in the post mortem treatment of bodies and bones rather than in blatant radical changes
