The Architecture Of War:

The Architecture of War Keith Mallory, 1973      The Destruction of Memory Robert Bevan, 2016-02-15 Crumbled shells of mosques in Iraq the fall of the World Trade Center towers on September 11 when architectural totems such as these are destroyed by conflicts and the ravages of war more than mere buildings are at stake The Destruction of Memory now available in this accessible pocket edition reveals the extent to which a nation weds itself to its landscape Robert Bevan argues that such destruction not only shatters a nation's culture and morale but is also a deliberate act of eradicating a culture's memory and ultimately its existence Bevan combs through world history to highlight a range of wars and conflicts in which the destruction of architecture was pivotal From Cortez's razing of Aztec cities to the carpet bombings of Dresden and Tokyo in World War II to the war in the former Yugoslavia The Destruction of Memory exposes the cultural war that rages behind architectural annihilation revealing that in this subliminal assault lies the complex aim of exterminating a people He provocatively argues for the fatally intertwined experience of genocide and cultural genocide ultimately proposing the elevation of cultural genocide from collateral damage to a crime punishable by international law      Pamphlet

Architecture 15: War and Architecture Lebbeus Woods, 1993 War and Architecture is a timely and moving response by architect Lebbeus Woods to the bombing of Sarajevo With text in both English and Croatian accompanied by the author's exquisitely drawn hauntingly beautiful proposals the book is both dedicated and addressed to the citizens of this ravaged city Lebbeus Woods has long been fascinated by the intimate ties between architecture and violence He identifies the two predominant patterns for rebuilding cities following catastrophic destruction restoring the city exactly to its previous historical state or erasing the remains of the city to construct a new utopia These he argues are twin forms of denial Woods draws an analogy to the process of biological and emotional healing presenting architectural forms that act as injections scabs scars and new tissue within the complex organism of a city Only by facing the insanity of willful destruction he argues can reason begin to believe again in itself      The Architecture of War Reem Al-Rawi, Carleton University. The Architecture of Confinement Anoma Pieris, Lynne Horiuchi, 2022-02-24 In this global and comparative study of Pacific War incarceration environments we explore the arc of the Pacific Basin as an archipelagic network of militarized penal sites Grounded in spatial physical and material analyses focused on experiences of civilian internees minority citizens and enemy prisoners of war the book offers an architectural and urban understanding of the unfolding history and aftermath of World War II in the Pacific Examples are drawn from Australia New Zealand Singapore Japan and North America The Architecture of Confinement highlights the contrasting physical facilities urban formations and material character of various camps and the ways in which these uncover different interpretations of wartime sovereignty The exclusion and material deprivation of selective populations within these camp environments extends the practices by which land labor and capital are expropriated in settler colonial societies practices critical to identity formation and endemic to their legacies of liberal democracy

The Architecture of Oppression Paul B. Jaskot, 2002-01-04 This book re evaluates the architectural history of Nazi Germany and looks at the development of the forced labour concentration camp system Through an analysis of such major Nazi building projects as the Nuremberg Party Rally Grounds and the rebuilding of Berlin Jaskot ties together the development of the German building economy state architectural goals and the rise of the SS as a political and economic force As a result The Architecture of Oppression contributes to our understanding of the conjunction of culture and politics in the Nazi period as well as the agency of architects and SS administrators in enabling this process

War Memory and Popular Culture Michael Keren, Holger H. Herwig, 2014-01-10 This collection of essays investigates such diverse vehicles for war commemoration as poems battlefield tours souvenirs books films architectural structures comics websites and video games Drawing on essayists from Australia Canada Great Britain Israel and the United States this work explores the evolution from traditional to contemporary forms of war commemoration while addressing the fundamental question of whether these new forms of memorial are meant to encourage the remembering or the forgetting of the experience of war as well as what implications the process of commemoration may have for the continuation of the modern nation state

In the Wake of War Jeffry M. Diefendorf, 1993-06-24 In 1945 Germany's cities lay in ruins destroyed by Allied bombers that left major architectural monuments badly damaged and much of the housing stock reduced to rubble At the war's end observers thought that it would take forty years to rebuild but by the late 1950s West Germany's cities had risen anew The housing crisis had been overcome and virtually all important monuments reconstructed and the cities had reclaimed their characteristic identities Everywhere there was a mixture of old and new historic churches and town halls stood alongside new housing and department stores ancient street layouts were crossed or encircled by wide arteries old city centers were balanced by garden suburbs laid out according to modern planning principles In this book Diefendorf examines the questions raised by this remarkable feat of urban reconstruction He explains who was primarily responsible what accounted for the speed of rebuilding and how priorities were set and decisions acted upon He argues that in such crucial areas as architectural style urban planning historic preservation and housing policy the Germans drew upon personnel ideas institutions and practical experiences from the Nazi and pre Nazi periods Diefendorf shows how the rebuilding of West Germany's cities after 1945 can only be understood in terms of long term continuities in urban development      Civic Buildings after the Spanish-American War Maria Eugenia Achurra G.,2023-11-27 Following the 1898 Spanish American War the United States constructed federal buildings in its newly acquired territories including Cuba Puerto Rico and the Philippines Over a century later many of these grand Beaux Arts style edifices are still in use In Civic Buildings after the Spanish American War Maria Eugenia Achurra G examines this architecture and urban design as a backdrop for US exceptionalism and expansionism The book defines exceptionalism and its role in US Beaux Arts federal architecture Subsequent chapters compare specific examples of Beaux Arts civic architecture in the continental US and Latin America The book also studies architectural and urban design from other US possessions of the Progressive Era such as the former Panama Canal Zone and occupied territories like the Dominican Republic Reviewing the work of relevant designers and architects Achurra G argues that architectural examples epitomize the rich expansionist intentions of twentieth century Progressive America These lingering buildings function as intriguing material evidence of the United States geopolitical historical and commercial meddling in the internal affairs of the Americas and elsewhere      The Wizard War Book Perry Ritthaler,2018-12-27 Mission Statement Advanced warfare teaches people in general population homeland defense tactics Advanced warfare teaches you how to win at cyber bully warfare Counter intelligence soft knowledge may help defer an attack or create a soft hit rather than a massive blow to your corporate or personal financial life style or physical health
