The Englishman's Chair John Gloag,2022-10-24 Originally published in 1964 The Englishman's Chair is a history of English chairs written as a continuous story from the 15th to the 20th Century and because of the revealing powers inherent in chair making and design it is also an unconventional footnote to English social history The changes in taste and fashion the increase of skill the introduction of new materials and the long battle between dignity and comfort are discussed as is the impact that modern industrial designers have had on chair design

The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800 Sheila S. Blair,Jonathan M. Bloom,1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles

The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art Kristie C. Wolferman,2020-01-28 When Kansas City's Nelson Atkins Museum of Art opened to the public in 1933 it was viewed as a miracle an oasis of culture in a Midwestern town whose image was still largely one of cowboys and steaks In an engaging style Kristie Wolferman tells the history of the Nelson Atkins from its founding to the present day a fascinating combination of people events and circumstances that culminated in an art museum that now holds its own among the finest in the world Wolferman begins by relaying how the trustees of the estates of the reclusive widow Mary Atkins and the family of Kansas City Star newspaper editor William Rockhill Nelson joined forces to establish a museum from scratch then goes on to consider all of the highly talented people who directed and staffed the Nelson Atkins along the way their efforts resulting in many bold innovations among them new collections grounds and educational programs and offerings With 100 color and black and white photographs this book will be treasured by all who love and admire this remarkable institution one that attracts half a million visitors from across the city state nation and world each year This is a co publication of the University of Missouri Press and the Nelson Atkins Museum of Art

Burston dec'd, Cyril Green, E Nicholas, A Dickinson, D Thompson, 2021-12-24 First published in 1972 Handbook for History Teachers is intended to be a general and comprehensive work of reference for teachers of history in primary and secondary schools of all kinds The book covers all aspects of teaching history among them are the use of sources world history art and history principles of constructing a syllabus and the psychological aspects of history teaching The bibliographical sections are arranged on three parts school textbooks a section on audio visual aids and finally books for the teacher and possibly for the sixth form It thoroughly investigates and critiques the various methods employed in teaching history within classrooms and suggests alternatives wherever applicable Diligently curated by the Standing Sub Committee in History University of London Institute of Education the book still holds immense value in the understanding of pedagogy      Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion      Dimensions of Originality Katharine P Burnett, 2013-03-13 This book investigates the issue of conceptual originality in art criticism of the seventeenth century a period in which China dynamically reinvented itself In art criticism the term which was called upon to indicate conceptual originality more than any other was qi literally different but secondarily odd like a number and by extension the novel and extraordinary This work finds that originality expressed through visual difference was a paradigmatic concern of both artists and critics Burnett speculates on why many have dismissed originality as a possible traditional Chinese value and the ramifications this has had on art historical understanding She further demonstrates that a study of individual key terms can reveal social and cultural values and provides a linear history of the increase in critical use of qi as originality from the fifth through the seventeenth centuries exploring what originality looks like in artworks by members of the gentry elite and commoner classes and explains how the value lost its luster at the end of the seventeenth century      Power of Bonding and Non-Western Emerging Great

Powers Engagement Md. Nazmul Islam, 2023-10-30 In international politics states often strive to maintain their position through either cooperation or force Soft power theory has emerged as a non violent approach for states to achieve national interest by utilizing intangible resources China and India have both successfully employed soft power strategies to expand their influence and Pakistan is a relevant case study for examining the soft power of China and India as it neighbors of both countries The withdrawal of the United States from Afghanistan has raised questions about how India and China will engage and cooperate in dealing with Pakistan as well as how they will fill the regional gap left by the US Nazmul Islam considers Joseph S Nye s Soft Power theory and develops a new idea of Power of Bonding based on non Western perspectives to examine India and China s soft power strategy on Pakistan Additionally it evaluates their areas of influence and soft power strategy in three thematic areas political and diplomatic engagement cultural attributions and attraction for power bonding and economic partnerships To accomplish these objectives the study relies on various research methods including content analysis of articles published in Pakistan s Dawn newspaper and one on one interviews with participants from Pakistan India and China

Elegant Debts Craig Clunas, 2004-06-30 This book takes an innovative approach to one of the great figures of Chinese culture the writer and painter Wen Zhengming 1470 1559 Renowned as one of the great scholar painters of the Ming dynasty Wen was enmeshed in a complex web of social obligations his elegant debts as he called them which led to many of his most celebrated works Using an unprecedented quantity of primary sources for his life and work Elegant Debts looks at the ways in which social obligation and gift exchange were central to personal and individual identity in the Ming period The book also examines Wen s family relationships his friends mentors and pupils his sense of a distinct local identity and the interplay of national and regional politics with the achievements of his long life It uses the insights of a range of scholarship art history social and literary history and anthropology to show how self was constructed in Ming China In doing so it makes a major contribution toward a more diverse art history that is less dependent on European conceptions of artists and their work Craig Clunas has published extensively in the field and is widely recognized as one of the world s leading scholars of Ming culture Featuring many images of the work of one of China s major painters this book is accessible to all who are interested in China s culture and history as well as to students and scholars of art history and the history of culture
