Visual Arts in Cameroon Annette Schemmel, 2016-02-27 Annette Schemmel provides a highly illuminating case study of the major actors discourses and paradigm that shaped the history of visual arts in Cameroon during the second part of the 20th century Her book meticulously reconstructs the multiple ways of artistic knowledge acquisition from the consolidation of the Systme de Grands Frres in the 1970s to the emergence of more discursively oriented small artists initiatives which responded to the growing NGO market of social practice art opportunities in the 2000s Based on archival research participant observation and in depth interviews with art practitioners in Douala and Yaound this study is a must read for everyone who wants to better understand the vibrant artistic scenes in countries like Cameroon which until today lack a proper state funded infrastructure in the arts     A Guide to Cameroon Art Paul Gebauer, Portland Art Museum (Or.), 1968

The Art of the Bambui Kingdom (Western Grassfields, Cameroon) Mathias Fubah Alubafi, 2014-03-26 Written as part of the Bambui Museum and Ecotourism Project BMEP this stunningly illustrated book introduces readers to the history of the Bambui fondom in the western Grassfields of Cameroon and presents an exhaustive interpretation of the artistic and cultural heritage of the fondom Initially conceived as part of an initiative launched in 2001 by Centro Orientamento Educativo an Italian NGO aimed at creating museums in some palaces of the Cameroon Grassfields the book serves as a pilot endeavour towards addressing problems associated with antiques and other cultural assets such as theft and the illegal traffic of objects the exploitation of poor fondoms by African art dealers and researchers from the West and the lack of education about the different ways and means the fondoms could employ to transform these resources to the benefit of all For anyone aspiring to learn about the rich and diverse art of Bambui in particular and the western Grassfields as a whole this book will prove useful especially since it is written by someone who has lived and is still living the Bambui experience Royal Art of Cameroon

Art of the Cameroon Sharon Yvette Pruitt, 1990 Afo-a-Kom Fred Ferretti, 1974-08-01 Royal Art from the Grasslands of Cameroon David Reed, 2019-09-07 Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness, 2003-01-01

This lavishly produced volume is the first reference work to focus on the symbols meaning and significance of art in native or indigenous cultures The Art of Status Jelena Subotić, 2025-06-26 An illuminating exploration of the relationship between the restitution of looted art global status and the international construction of national cultural heritage Why is art restitution a matter of politics How does the artwork displayed in national museums reflect the international status of the state that owns it Why do some states agree to return looted art and others resist National art collections have long been a way for states to compete with each other for status prestige and cultural worth in international society In many former imperial nations however these collections include art looted during imperial expansions and colonial occupations While this was once a sign of high international standing the markers of such status particularly in the context of art have since significantly changed A new international legal and normative architecture governing art provenance developed after World War II and became institutionalized in the 1990s and 2000s Since then there have been national and global social movements demanding the return of looted art This shift has established not only that looting is wrong but more importantly that restitution is morally right As a result of this reframing of what it means to own art an artifact's historical provenance has become a core element of its value and the search for provenance and demands for restitution a direct threat to state status The same objects that granted states high international status now threaten to provoke status decline In The Art of Status Jelena Subotić examines this relationship between the restitution of looted art and international status with a focus on the Parthenon Elgin Marbles the Benin Bronzes and a collection of paintings looted during the Holocaust that are now housed at the Serbian National Museum Subotić tells the story of these artworks how they were looted how they ended up on display in national museums and how the art restitution disputes have unfolded While these cases are different in terms of their historical context of looting and ownership claims the movements for their restitution and resistance to it illustrate the larger questions of how national cultural heritage is internationally constructed and how it serves states desire for international status and prestige An in depth and nuanced account of art restitution disputes The Art of Status illuminates the shifting political significance of art on the international stage from ownership to restitution
