both in this existence and in the next Living, Dreaming, Dying Rob Nairn, 2004-08-03 The Tibetan Book of the Dead is one of the best known Tibetan Buddhist texts. It is also one of the most difficult texts for Westerners to understand. In Living Dreaming Dying Rob Nairn presents the first interpretation of this classic text using a modern Western perspective, avoiding arcane religious terminology, keeping his explanations grounded in everyday language. Nairn explores the concepts used in this highly revered work and brings out their meaning and significance for our daily life. He shows readers how the Tibetan Book of the Dead can help us understand life and self as well as the dying process. Living Dreaming Dying helps readers to live deliberately and confront death deliberately. One thing that prevents us from doing that, according to Nairn, is our tendency to react fearfully whenever change occurs. But if we confront our fear of change and the unknown, we can learn to flow gracefully with the unfolding circumstances of life rather than be at their mercy. Of course, change occurs throughout our life, but a period of transition also occurs as we pass from the waking state into sleep and likewise as we pass into death. Therefore, the author's teachings apply equally to living as well as to dreaming and dying. Through meditation instructions and practical exercises, the author explains how to explore the mind through the cultivation of deep meditation states and expanded consciousness. Develop awareness of negative tendencies. Use deep sleep states and lucid dreaming to increase self-understanding as well as to train oneself in how to die so that one is prepared for when the time comes. Confront and liberate oneself from fear of death and the unknown.

Meditations on Living, Dying, and Loss Graham Coleman, Thupten Jinpa, 2009-11-25 A distillation of the acclaimed English translation of a revered Tibetan classic, The Tibetan Book of the Dead is the most significant of all Tibetan Buddhist writings in the West and one of the most inspirational and compelling texts in world literature. In Meditations on Living, Dying, and Loss, Graham Coleman, the editor of Viking's acclaimed unabridged translation of The Tibetan Book of the Dead, collects the most beautifully written passages, ones that draw out the central perspectives most relevant to modern experience. What is death? How can we help those who are dying? And how can we come to terms with bereavement? New to this edition are Coleman's introduction and his brilliant and incisive essays which preface each chapter and provide the seeker entrance to these ancient insights. With introductory commentary by His Holiness the Dalai Lama and a highly praised translation by Gyurme Dorje, this succinct but authoritative volume will convey the profundity of the original to those hungry for a better understanding of this life and the next.

The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying Sogyal Rinpoche, 2009-10-13 A magnificent achievement in its power to touch the heart to awaken consciousness, The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying is an inestimable gift. San Francisco Chronicle: A newly revised and updated edition of the internationally bestselling spiritual classic The Tibetan Book of Living and Dying, written by Sogyal Rinpoche, is the ultimate introduction to Tibetan Buddhist wisdom. An enlightening, inspiring, and comforting manual for life and death that the New York Times calls "the Tibetan equivalent of Dante's The Divine Comedy," this is the essential work that moved Huston Smith, author of The World's Religions, to proclaim, "I have encountered no book on the interplay of life and death that is more comprehensive practical and wise Death and Dying Glenn H. Mullin,1986 The Tibetan Book of the Dead John Baldock,2009-06-18 In many ways this book is both a guide for living as well as a how to consciously move on after death The book has been extremely popular in Central Asia among Buddhists The Tibetan Book of the Dead contains especially written guidance and practices related to transforming our experience of daily life on how to address the process of dying in the after death states and on how to help those who are dying Some of these teachings include methods for investigating and cultivating our experience of the ultimate nature of mind in our daily practice guidance on the recognition of the science of impending death and a detailed description of the mental and physical processes of dying rituals for the avoidance of premature death the now famous great liberation by hearing that is read to the dying and the dead special prayers are read at the time of death and allegorical masque play that lightheartedly dramatizes the journey through the intermediate state and a translation of the sacred mantras that are attached to the body after death and are said to bring liberation by wearing
