Graham Sutherland Graham Vivian Sutherland, 1959      Graham Sutherland Graham Vivian Sutherland, Gordon Cooke, 1993 Graham Sutherland 1903 1980 was the greatest English landscape artist of the 20th century Inspired by the etchings of Samuel Palmer he went on to transform landscape art in this country Sutherland s earliest works done while he was a student at Goldsmiths College in the early 1920s were images of pastoral calm However his early success was ended by the 1929 slump which destroyed the market for contemporary prints Sutherland s work went through a transformation around this time and his landscapes became threatening sinister and tragic He achieved maturity and made his first significant contribution to English landscape art with Pastoral 1930 and The Garden 1931 He was not content to be merely an English artist and in later years he strove for greatness on the international stage not only as a landscape painter but in portraiture and religious subjects His studies of Somerset Maugham and Churchill brought fame and controversy as did his tapestry for Coventry Cathedral Sutherland first commanded attention in etching and this was his principal medium until 1930 Printmaking remained a vital part of his art and a source of new ideas throughout his career This book was first published to accompany an exhibition of Sutherland s early etchings mounted by private dealer Gordon Cooke at The Fine Art Society 148 New Bond Street London It reveals the remarkable progression Sutherland made from talented student to mature artist creating images which changed the face of English landscape BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by
