Public Record Office, 1864 Michigan Poultry Breeder, 1904 The Chicken Trail Kathleen C. Schwartzman, 2013-01-15 In The Chicken Trail Kathleen C Schwartzman examines the impact of globalization and of NAFTA in particular on the North American poultry industry focusing on the displacement of African American workers in the southeast United States and workers in Mexico Schwartzman documents how the transformation of U S poultry production in the 1980s increased its export capacity and changed the nature and consequences of labor conflict She documents how globalization and NAFTA in particular forced Mexico to open its commodity and capital markets and eliminate state support of corporations and rural smallholders As a consequence many Mexicans were forced to abandon their no longer sustainable small farms with some seeking work in industrialized poultry factories north of the border By following this chicken trail Schwartzman breaks through the deadlocked immigration debate highlighting the broader economic and political contexts of immigration flows The narrative that undocumented worker take jobs that Americans don t

want to do is too simplistic Schwartzman argues instead that illegal immigration is better understood as a labor story in which the hiring of undocumented workers is part of a management response to the crises of profit making and labor management conflict By placing the poultry industry at the center of a constellation of competing individual corporate and national interests and such factors as national debt free trade economic development industrial restructuring and African American unemployment The Chicken Trail makes a significant contribution to our understanding of the implications of globalization for labor and how the externalities of free trade and neoliberalism become the social problems of nations and the tragedies of individuals The Poultry Chum ,1886 Poultry Success ,1921 American Poultry Journal ,1914
