The Painter And The Father Painter Series:

My Father's House Thomas Dumm, 2014-09-29 In My Father's House the political philosopher Thomas Dumm explores a series of stark and melancholy paintings by the American artist Will Barnet Responding to the physical and mental decline of his sister Eva who lived alone in the family home in Beverly Massachusetts Barnet began work in 1990 on what became a series of nine paintings depicting Eva and other family members as they once were and as they figured in the artist's memory Rendered in Barnet's signature quiet abstract style the paintings each featured in full color present the ordinary and extraordinary aspects of a twentieth century American family Dumm first became acquainted with Barnet and his paintings in 2008 Given his scholarly focus on the lives of ordinary people he was immediately attracted to the artist's work When they met Dumm and Barnet began a friendship and dialogue that lasted until the painter's death in 2012 at the age of 101 This book reflects the many discussions the two had concerning the series of paintings Barnet's family his early life in Beverly and his eighty year career as a prominent New York artist Reading the almost gothic paintings in conversation with the writers and thinkers key to both his and Barnet's thinking Emerson Spinoza Dickinson Benjamin Cavell Nietzsche Melville Dumm's haunting meditations evoke broader reflections on family mortality the uncanny and the loss that comes with remembrance

The Painter's Daughters Emily Howes, 2024-02-27 The daughters of one of England's most famous portrait artists of the 1700s Peggy and Molly Gainsborough are inseparable due to Molly's bouts of mental confusion and as Peggy goes to great lengths to protect her sister's secret she falls in love with a charming composer which sparks the bitterest of betrayals

The City Rehearsed , "French Paintings of Childhood and Adolescence, 1848-1886" Anna Green, 2017-07-05 The premise of Anna Green's timely and original book is that nineteenth century representations of childhood and adolescence in paintings but also in other forms of visual culture and in diverse written discourses of the period are critical for understanding modernity Whilst such well worn signifiers for modernity as the city the dandy and the prostitute have been well mined childhood and adolescence have not Paintings of the young produced in France from 1848 to 1886 Green contends inform not only our understanding of modern life but also our perception of modernist or avant garde painting Figuring largely are Manet and the Impressionists as well as a gamut of more traditional painters of children who are crucial in providing context for the avant garde Because modernity is an essentially urban phenomenon Green's focus is primarily on the city usually Parisian child The painted youth of her study are organized initially by class and gender Then the chapters are structured according to themes parent child relations modes of discipline work education and play the spectacle sexuality that straddle the congruences among the book's triple trajectory the young their modernist representations and the experience of modernity Green's interdisciplinary approach ensures that this book will be of interest not only to art historians but to all those concerned with the cultural and social history of childhood The Changing Mysteries of Parkdale Court Mike Robertson, 2021-11-22 In 1949 an architect and amateur magician named George Fenwick was to leap from an apartment building that he had designed and first occupied when it opened in 1936 Twenty six years later John and Patricia Delaney rented the same apartment that George Fenwick had occupied For reasons that neither of them were ever able to determine the mystery of Mr Fenwick s suicide appeared to have something to do with certain photographs found in their apartment photographs an obsession shared by George Fenwick and his father Richard Their pursuit of this puzzle would lead John and Patricia Delaney through all manner of investigation from peculiar neighbours newspaper reporters policemen a private detective magicians libraries bookstore owners and even each other

Seven Painters Who Changed the Course of Art History Brian Thom McQuade Ma., 2012 This is the biography of 7 painters who from the 14th to the 19th century changed the history of art forever The book is not just about their painting but also tells about their lives their triumphs and their disasters EXAMINING THE PAST TO UNDERSTAND THE PRESENT JORGE E. PONCE, 2023-07-21 This book is about his journey as a political refugee from Cuba to the United States It s about the challenges disappointments and victories that destiny threw in his path To bring in American poet Robert Frost Jorge had two paths to choose to follow one leading to an honorable life and the other taking him to a disreputable future Looking back on the strong Judeo Christian values that his family had given him and with no support system to fall back on he chose the path that led him to the man that he is today a proud American who is eternally thankful for the opportunities that our country gave him a proud husband with a forty five year marriage a proud father of a wonderful son and an ardent patriot who wants to keep the best that America has to offer for future generations He saw how communism destroyed a once prosperous Cuba He recognizes Communist China as the greatest threat to the survival of the United States He was a Democrat for the majority of his life as he considered himself to be a fiscal conservative with a social conscience But he switched his political affiliation to the Republican Party after former President Obama extended an olive branch to the Government in Communist Cuba without demanding any concessions for human and civil rights When some political gurus ask themselves the reasons for the recent exodus of Hispanics to the Republican Party this book will provide a few answers The book is divided into five parts his life experiences in Cuba BC before Castro his life in Cuba AC after Castro took control of the Cuban Government life growing up in the United States retirement and an appendix of his articles on a myriad of topics that have touched his soul The painting of the Renaissance Alfred Woltmann, Karl Woermann, 1901 Radical Innovators Anton Blok, 2016-12-27 In this book leading cultural anthropologist Anton Blok sheds new light on the lives and achievements of pioneers who revolutionized science and art over the past five centuries demonstrating that adversity rather than talent alone was crucial to their success Through a collective biography of some ninety radical innovators including Erasmus Spinoza Newton Bach Sade Darwin Melville Mendel C zanne Curie Br ncusi Einstein Wittgenstein Keynes and Goodall Blok shows how a significant proportion in fact benefited from social exclusion Beethoven s increasing deafness isolated him from his friends creating more time for composing and experimenting while Darwin s chronic illness gave him an excuse to avoid social gatherings and get on with his work Adversity took various forms including illegitimate birth early parental loss conflict with parents bankruptcy chronic illness physical deficiencies neurological and genetic disorders minority status peripheral origins poverty exile and detention Blok argues however that all these misfortunes had the same effect alienation from mainstream society As outsiders innovators could question conventional beliefs and practices With little to lose they could take chances and exploit opportunities With governments universities and industry all emphasizing the importance of investing in innovation typically understood to mean planned and focussed research teams this book runs counter to conventional wisdom For far more often radical innovation in science and art is entirely unscripted resulting from trial and error by individuals ready to take risks fail and start again The Painter's Chair Hugh Howard, 2009-07-01 I am so hackneyed to the touches of the painters pencil that I am now altogether at their beck no dray moves more readily to the Thill than I do to the Painters Chair George Washington 16 1785 When George Washington was born the New World had virtually no artists Over the course of his life a cultural transformation would occur Virtually everyone regarded Washington as America s indispensable man and the early painters and sculptors were no exception Hugh Howard surveys the founding fathers of American painting through their portraits of Washington Charles Willson Peale was the comrade in arms John Trumbull the aristocrat Benjamin West the mentor and Gilbert Stuart the brilliant wastrel Their images of Washington fed an immense popular appetite that has never faded Stuart s image endures today on the 1 bill The Painter s Chair is an eloquent narrative of how America s first painters toiled to create an art worthy of the new republic and the hero whom they turned into an icon Painters and the American West Joan Carpenter Troccoli, Marlene Chambers, Jane Comstock, Anschutz collection (Denver, Colo.), Sarah Anschutz Hunt, Denver Art Museum, Anschutz collection (Denver, Colo.), 2000-01-01 This book offers a tour of a collection of paintings of the American West still in private hands The Anschutz Collection covers all the ground expected in a wide ranging major survey yet still has plenty of room for surprises Every phase in the history of American art since the 1820s is included There are pictures of impressive quality by lesser known artists and examples from all the major painters who have depicted the West You ll discover works by artists such as Marsden Hartley Childe Hassam

Jan Matulka and John Henry Twachtman who painted western subjects only rarely and pictures by those whose subjects were predominantly western The collection is particularly rich in paintings made in Taos and Santa Fe during the first half of the twentieth century when major American artists often found inspiration and stylistic renewal in the Southwest Among the American masters represented here are George Bellows Albert Bierstadt George Caleb Bingham Ernest Blumenschein George Catlin Stuart Davis Asher B Durand George Inness John Marin Alfred Jacob Miller Thomas Moran Georgia O Keeffe Frederic Remington Charles Marion Russell and Walter Ufer BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
