The Pale Fox:

The Pale Fox Marcel Griaule, Germaine Dieterlen, 1986 The Father-Daughter Plot Rebecca L. Copeland, Esperanza Ramirez-Christensen, 2001-07-31 This provocative collection of essays is a comprehensive study of the father daughter dynamic in Japanese female literary experience Its contributors examine the ways in which women have been placed politically ideologically and symbolically as daughters in a culture that venerates the father They weigh the impact that this daughterly position has had on both the performance and production of women s writing from the classical period to the present Conjoining the classical and the modern with a unified theme reveals an important continuum in female authorship a historical approach often ignored by scholars The essays devoted to the literature of the classical period discuss canonical texts in a new light offering important feminist readings that challenge existing scholarship while those dedicated to modern writers introduce readers to little known texts with translations and readings that are engaging and original Contributors Tomoko Aoyama Sonja Arntzen Janice Brown Rebecca L Copeland Midori McKeon Eileen Mikals Adachi Joshua S Mostow Sharalyn Orbaugh Esperanza Ramirez Christensen Edith Sarra Atsuko Sasaki Ann Sherif African Divination Systems Philip M. Peek, 1991 This volume of finely crafted case studies is also the vehicle for an important general theory of divination this is a book overflowing with ideas that will powerfully stimulate further research Journal of Ritual Studies The essays in this collection provide a very useful overview of both the diversity of African divination systems and of recent approaches to their study Choice This unique collection of essays by an exceptional international group of Africanists demonstrates the central role that divination continues to play throughout Africa in maintaining cultural systems and in guiding human action African Divination Systems offers insights for current discussions in comparative epistemology cross cultural psychology cognition studies semiotics ethnoscience religious studies and anthropology YHWH in the Wind(s) Violet Chiswa Gandiya, 2025-01-31 From interdisciplinary intertextual and comparative analytical perspectives this book engages with the epistemologies of the Global South and Global North to reveal a fresh insight into the image of YHWH in the guise of the phenomenal wind s and the purpose of this image in the biblical Hebrew tradition Therefore this book showcases YHWH appearing with the potent wind s to create and transform chaos into cosmic order at primal creation Likewise this discourse presents YHWH breaking into the historical and social realm in his various sociopolitical roles to destroy all forms of chaotic force by his bluster of wind s and to establish maintain or restore world social order founded on his rule of justice and righteousness This accounts for the view that all creation and order originate from YHWH and are maintained by YHWH s innate rules of ethical governance This fresh insight into the sights and sounds of YHWH asserting his rule in the dramaturgical wind s not only renders new meaning to biblical texts within their contexts but also offers a persuasive message and alluring theological reflections that can shape new discourses to engage and address contemporary theological and social issues of equity justice and harmony within YHWH s intended design of world and social order Camille

The Science of the Dogon Laird Scranton, 2006-09-22 A look at the close resemblance between the creation and structure of matter in both Dogon mythology and modern science Reveals striking similarities between Dogon symbols and those used in both the Egyptian and Hebrew religions Demonstrates the parallels between Dogon mythical narratives and scientific concepts from atomic theory to quantum theory and string theory The Dogon people of Mali West Africa are famous for their unique art and advanced cosmology The Dogon's creation story describes how the one true god Amma created all the matter of the universe Interestingly the myths that depict his creative efforts bear a striking resemblance to the modern scientific definitions of matter beginning with the atom and continuing all the way to the vibrating threads of string theory Furthermore many of the Dogon words symbols and rituals used to describe the structure of matter are quite similar to those found in the myths of ancient Egypt and in the daily rituals of Judaism For example the modern scientific depiction of the informed universe as a black hole is identical to Amma's Egg of the Dogon and the Egyptian Benben Stone The Science of the Dogon offers a case by case comparison of Dogon descriptions and drawings to corresponding scientific definitions and diagrams from authors like Stephen Hawking and Brian Greene then extends this analysis to the counterparts of these symbols in both the ancient Egyptian and Hebrew religions What is ultimately revealed is the scientific basis for the language of the Egyptian hieroglyphs which was deliberately encoded to prevent the knowledge of these concepts from falling into the hands of all but the highest members of the Egyptian priesthood The Science of the Dogon also offers compelling new interpretations for many of the most familiar Egyptian symbols such as the pyramid and the scarab and presents new explanations for the origins of religiously charged words such as Jehovah and Satan The Pale Fox Katie Metcalfe, 2018

THE PALE FOX David Leonard, 2020-12-29 First and foremost I must pay homage to Marimba Ani who I gained insight from concerning the title of her book titled Yorugu which means Pale Fox One must do their own investigation into the Dogon African religion to understand The Pale Fox Many Black men are going to see themselves in many chapters within this novel and some will be in denial and this is the same for Whites The two main characters are 100% fictional however all mind states that the main character Dru transforms into are all 100% non fiction The mind states are my own life experiences and testimonies and observations that I received from other Black men There are many Blacks that will probably be enraged that I took such serious matters that happen daily within the African American population and turned these matters into a mythological story urban and I am not surprised nor am I concerned No one is ever challenging urban novelists that write deadly literature that does nothing but keep Black men into a circular dimension This novel is geared to cause a thought disturbance in certain Black males particularly Black young men born in 2000 or later to take a clear look at themselves and the world around them Harmsworth Natural History ,1910 The Mountain is Moving Patricia Morley,1999 In Imperial times in Japan women were subservient inferiors in theory they were liberated by the democratic constitution imposed by the US after World War II but in real life Japan change is glacially slow Here that slow changing reality is juxtaposed with the fast moving aspirations of Japanese women The author achieves this through wide ranging interviews with Japanese women and by using a range of contemporary Japanese literature Rise to Infamy A.D. Arndt,2020-10-25 Kye has no desire to die in glorious battle So when the crew of the navy riverboat she s assigned to is given orders for a suicide attack Kye leads a mutiny and tosses the captain overboard Now deserters the group embarks on a scheme to become as wealthy as kings if they can escape an invading empire pull off a supply heist cross a treacherous sea convince an arrogant chancellor to fund their expedition and keep their wizard Raven sober enough to be useful When their quest to become very rich goes very awry the deserters accidentally find themselves thwarting the plans of a powerful order of evil wizards and rescuing a horde of mind controlled slaves while still managing to build a villainous reputation Histories of Religious Thought and Practice in Africa PROFESSOR LOUIS. BRENNER,2024-12-17 This book is a richly detailed comparative analysis of endogenous Muslim and Christian religious thought and practice in sub Saharan Africa Organized thematically the book presents a conceptual and analytical framework for the study of religious traditions as complex and constantly evolving social phenomena The most salient theme in the book is how different religious traditions defined and provided for the personal and communal wellbeing of their adherents Other major themes explore how religious traditions have influenced one another how religious practitioners conceptualized and interacted with spiritual entities how religious knowledge and expertise were acquired and transmitted how rituals were organized and structured in order to achieve their aims and how rituals affected those who performed them Additional topics analysed include the personalization of relationships with spiritual entities the gendering of religious thought and practice how personal transformative rituals were conceptualized and enacted with reference to stages of the life cycle such as birth marriage and death and how suffering was seen as integral to the process of personal transformation Overall the book engages with issues that continue to animate the study of religious thought and practice in Africa and African studies more generally Principles of Visual Anthropology Paul Hockings,2012-05-18 This edition contains 27 articles written by scholars and film makers who are generally acknowledged as the international authorities in the field The book covers ethnographic filming and its relations to the cinema and television applications of filming to anthropological research the uses of still photography archives and videotape subdisciplinary applications in ethnography archeology bio anthropology museology and ethnohistory and overcoming the funding problems of film production Implicit Meanings Professor Mary Douglas, Mary Douglas, 2002-01-04 Implicit Meanings was first published to great acclaim in 1975 It includes writings on the key themes which are associated with Mary Douglas work and which have had a major influence on anthropological thought such as food pollution risk animals and myth The papers in this text demonstrate the importance of seeking to understand beliefs and practices that are implicit and a priori within what might seem to be alien cultures Ciné Ethnography Jean Rouch, One of the most influential figures in documentary and ethnographic filmmaking Jean Rouch has made more than one hundred films in West Africa and France In such acclaimed works as Jaguar The Lion Hunters and Cocorico Monsieur Poulet Rouch has explored racism colonialism African modernity religious ritual and music He pioneered numerous film techniques and technologies and in the process inspired generations of filmmakers from New Wave directors who emulated his cinema verite style to today's documentarians Cine Ethnography is a long overdue English language resource that collects Rouch's key writings interviews and other materials that distill his thinking on filmmaking ethnography and his own career Editor Steven Feld opens with a concise overview of Rouch's career highlighting the themes found throughout his work In the four essays that follow Rouch discusses the ethnographic film as a genre the history of African cinema his experiences of filmmaking among the Songhay and the intertwined histories of French colonialism anthropology and cinema And in four interviews Rouch thoughtfully reflects on each of his films as well as his artistic intellectual and political concerns Cine Ethnography also contains an annotated transcript of Chronicle of a Summer one of Rouch's most important works along with commentary by the filmmakers and concludes with a complete annotated filmography and a bibliography The most thorough resource on Rouch available in any language Cine Ethnography makes clear this remarkable and still vital filmmaker's major role in the history of documentary cinema Edward Burnett Tylor, Religion and Culture Paul-François Tremlett, Graham Harvey, Liam T. Sutherland, 2017-09-21 Through revisiting and challenging what we think we know about the work of Edward Burnett Tylor a founding figure of anthropology this volume explores new connections and insights that link Tylor and his work to present concerns in new and important ways At the publication of Primitive Culture in 1871 Tylor was at the centre of anthropological research on religion and culture but today Tylor's position in the anthropological canon is rarely acknowledged Edward Burnett Tylor Religion and Culture does not claim to present a definitive new Tylor The old Tylor the founder of British anthropology the definer of religion the intellectualist the evolutionist the liberal the utilitarian the avatar of white Protestant rationalism the Tylor of the canon remains Part I explore debates and contexts of Tylor's lifetime while the chapters in Part II explore a series of new Tylors including Tylor the ethnographer and Tylor the Spiritualist re writing the legacy of the founder of anthropology in the process Edward Burnett Tylor Religion and Culture is essential reading for anyone interested in the study of religion and the anthropology of religion Media Primitivism Delinda Collier,2020-09-18 Delinda Collier finds alternative concepts of mediation in African art by closely engaging with electricity based works since 1944 Architecture and Ritual Peter Blundell Jones,2016-08-25 Architecture and Ritual explores how the varied rituals of everyday life are framed and defined in space by the buildings which we inhabit It penetrates beyond traditional assumptions about architectural style aesthetics and utility to deal with something more implicit how buildings shape and reflect our experience in ways of which we remain unconscious Whether designed to house a grand ceremony or provide shelter for a daily meal all buildings coordinate and consolidate social relations by giving orientation and focus to the spatial practices of those who use them Peter Blundell Jones investigates these connections between the social and the spatial providing critical insights into the capacity for architecture to structure human ritual from the grand and formal to the mundane This is achieved through deep readings of individual pieces of architecture each with a detailed description of its particular social setting and use The case studies are drawn from throughout architectural history and from around the globe each enabling a distinct theoretical theme to emerge and showing how social conventions vary with time and place as well as what they have in common Case studies range from the Nuremberg Rally to the Centre Pompidou and from the Palace of Westminster to Dogon dwellings in Africa and a Modernist hospital In considering how all architecture has to mesh with the habits beliefs rituals and expectations of the society that created it the book presents deep implications for our understanding of architectural history and theory It also highlights the importance for architects of understanding how buildings frame social space before they prescribe new architectural designs of their own The book ends with a recent example of user participation showing how contemporary user interest and commitment to a building can be as strong as ever How to Find Your Spirit Animal David Carson,2014-10-16 Early humans recognized a profound and spiritual kinship with other species Hunters gave thanks and even apologies to their prey And when shamans made their inner journeys between human and spirit realms to bring back healing wisdom they applied on behalf of the tribe animals often served as their guides and their companions In more recent times the idea of the animal daemon has been popularized by Philip Pullman in his internationally bestselling trilogy of novels His Dark Materials This illuminating book explains how to connect with and channel the unique powers of 50 different spirit animals a menagerie of creatures from the wise owl and crafty fox to the tranquil turtle and bold lion Each entry provides a detailed description of the animal s personality mythology and innate powers Helpful text provides readers with clues and meditations for discovering their own spirit animal as well as information on how other animals can be called on to help with specific aims from overcoming fear to finding your true destiny This book is the perfect primer for those seeking access to the wisdom of the animal kingdom African Myths of Origin Stephen Belcher,2005-12-01 Gathering a wide range of traditional African myths this compelling new collection offers tales of heroes battling mighty serpents and
