Gregory, 2010-01-11 This revised and expanded edition of the widely praised A History of Byzantium covers the time of Constantine the Great in AD 306 to the fall of Constantinople in 1453 Expands treatment of the middle and later Byzantine periods incorporating new archaeological evidence Includes additional maps and photographs and a newly annotated updated bibliography Incorporates a new section on web resources for Byzantium studies Demonstrates that Byzantium was important in its own right but also served as a bridge between East and West and ancient and modern society Situates Byzantium in its broader historical context with a new comparative timeline and textboxes An Eyewitness to History Saint Nicephorus (Patriarch of Constantinople.), Norman Tobias, 1994-06-01 An Eyewitness to History Saint Nicephorus (Patriarch of Constantinople.), Tobias & Santoro, 1989 Istoria syntomos apo tēs Maurikiu basileias Nikephoros, 2025-06-03 Nikephoros Patriarch of Constantinople is an English translation of Short History of Nikephoros one of two Greek historical texts that relate the fortunes of the Byzantine Empire and its neighbors between 602-769 With succinct commentary this book outlines the basic problems posed by the Short History for the reader The Churches of the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem: Volume 3, The City of Jerusalem Denys Pringle, 1993 This is the third in a series of four volumes that are intended to present a complete Corpus of all the church buildings of both the Western and the Oriental rites built rebuilt or simply in use in the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem between the capture of Jerusalem by the First Crusade in 1099 and the loss of Acre in 1291 This volume deals exclusively with Jerusalem the capital of the Kingdom from 1099 to 1187 leaving the churches of Acre and Tyre to be covered in the fourth and final volume The Corpus will be an indispensable work of reference to all those concerned with the medieval topography and archaeology of the Holy Land with the history of the church in the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem with medieval pilgrimage to the Holy Places and with the art and architecture of the Latin East An Eyewitness to History Saint Nicephorous (Patriarch of Constantinople.), Norman Tobias, Anthony R. Santoro, 1989-01-01 Power and Representation in Byzantium Neil Churchill, 2023-12-29 Throughout the history of Byzantium 65 emperors were dethroned and only 39 reigns ended peacefully How might a usurper get away with murdering his predecessor And how could a bloody act of regicide lead to one of the most glorious of all eras in Byzantium These were questions that puzzled Michael Psellos as he looked back at Basil I's assassination of Michael III and the origin of the Macedonian dynasty Might the imperial art of Basil his sons and grandson help to explain how the dynasty overcame its violent beginnings and secured the loyalty of its subjects It has long been recognised that the early Macedonian emperors were active propagandists but royal art has usually been viewed thematically over the span of centuries Official iconography has been understood to project imperial power in ways which were impersonal and unchanging This book instead adopts a chronological approach and considers how Basil justified his seizure of power and how his successors went on to articulate their own ideas about authority It concludes that imperial art did at times reflect the personality of the emperor and the political demands of the moment such as the need for an heir the nature of court politics or the choice of successor This innovative account of the forging of the Macedonian dynasty will appeal to those interested in how early medieval kings and emperors used art to create their own image to differentiate themselves from rivals and to extend the boundaries of their personal power

The Geometry of Christian Contemplation David Albertson, 2025-05-16 The writings of ancient and medieval Christian mystics were rediscovered in the twentieth century and today they are read more widely than ever before But do modern assumptions about religious experience influence how we hear those premodern voices Do we do them justice by thinking of mysticism as interior and ineffable Or can mystical experience intersect with the natural environment and indeed the cosmos which science calculates with precise quantities David Albertson's The Geometry of Christian Contemplation Measure without Measure suggests a fresh approach to the history of mystical theology that is oriented toward exteriority more than interiority and toward the measurable world outside more than the invisible world within The ancient Greek philosopher Plotinus had taught contemplatives to close their eyes and withdraw into the soul Most Christians followed his directions but others dissented In three critical episodes an alternative model of Christian contemplation began to emerge from Dionysius the Areopagite to the Byzantine monks John of Damascus and Theodore the Studite to eccentric humanists in medieval Paris Together these episodes add up to a very different theological aesthetics one that can enliven the modern study of mysticism and correct some of its imbalances For in the centuries before the scientific revolution and the secularization of nature Christians still saw God in the exterior world not only the interior soul God was not an ineffable and formless Absolute immeasurable as the soul but an infinite Measure who leaves behind geometrical traces in the figures of the world The God who became a human body in the Incarnation not only entered time and matter but also spatial extension and with it the conditions of measure points lines curves shapes planes dimensions and magnitudes Today the wisdom of this counter tradition can strengthen the study of mysticism not only by supplementing our contemporary fascination with negative theology by redefining what it means to name God positively but by suggesting a new connection between Christian mysticism and the hyper measured hyper technologized world that surrounds us Hippolytus and Callistus: or, the Church of Rome in the first half of the third century. With special reference to the writings of Bunsen, Wordsworth, Baur, and Gieseler ... Translated, with introduction, notes, and appendices, by A. Plummer Johann Joseph Ignaz von DOELLINGER, 1876
