Charles Siegel,2019-07-04 The J E and P Texts in Parallel Columns For over a century many scholars have said that the first four books of the Bible are made up of a number of earlier texts that were edited together The J text was written by a member of the Judean court the E text by a priest who believed he was descended from Moses and the P text by a priest who believed he was descended from Aaron one of the priests in charge of the Temple in Jerusalem Now for the first time this book arranges these texts in parallel columns You can read down a column to read one text from beginning to end You can read across columns to compare the same story in different texts It also includes an introduction explaining the texts and showing that they are based on the authors backgrounds and the events of their times In cases where scholars disagree this edition assigns passages in ways that make the texts as consistent and continuous as possible allowing new insights into the texts This edition shows that There is a strong contrast between the J text which has an anthropomorphic God and an amoral religion and the E text which has a much more advanced view of God and a religion that is moral as well as ritualistic The core of the P text is a coherent whole unified by a timeline that extends from creation to the arrival in Egypt and focusing on four key events the creation the covenant of Noah the covenant of Abraham and the covenant of Moses Both scholars and other readers will appreciate this book s new insights into the texts including these major points and many more detailed points Readers who are new to this theory of how the Bible was written will appreciate this books clear introduction to it and they will be fascinated to see difficult hard to read and self contradictory portions of the Bible separated into source texts that are clear and consistent Siegel has made an important contribution to Biblical scholarship and to the public s understanding of the Bible

The History Behind the Bible Charles Siegel,2024-04-09 Combining recent archeological findings with what scholars have learned about the motives of the authors of the Bible this book reconstructs the history behind the Bible from the patriarchs to the Babylonian exile What it finds will surprise you The stories of the patriarchs are based on one core legend of four different tribes about their patriarch and this core legend shows along with other evidence that Ephraim and Manasseh are the tribes that went to Egypt Moses was probably a follower of the monotheism of the Pharaoh Akhenaten who had to flee from Egypt when the followers of Akhenaten were persecuted and who developed a deeper form of monotheism The Bible distorts the history of Israel to show that leaders who are dedicated to God will have military success For example Joshua did not conquer Canaan the Israelites settled unoccupied land there The kingdoms of

David and Solomon were much smaller than the Bible says One of the texts of the Bible was written in the royal court of Judah and combined Israelite and pagan religion This syncretistic text helped to shape the text of the Bible The authors of the history texts wanted desperately to save Judah from being exiled as the northern kingdom of Israel had already been exiled and so they carried out a harsh and cruel religious reform Their cruelty helped to shape the text of the Bible But despite all the later distortions we can still see that the religion of Moses passed down by the Levites who believed they were descended from Moses and by the prophets was a form of ethical monotheism that has inspired world religion for thousands of years
