Subject Encyclopedias Allan Mirwis,1999 This useful two volume set will provide buyers of subject encyclopedias with a substantial amount of valuable information they can use in making their purchasing decisions It will also provide all types of librarians and their patrons with a quick one stop method for locating the appropriate subject encyclopedias for their needs and for locating articles in the 100 encyclopedias Librarians who specialize in bibliographic instruction will also find it to be a useful tool for teaching students how to locate needed information Homer's ODC Michael Yates,2015-07-16 It s the start of the 21st century And a single bullet will change two lives Raymond is a shy young man He wishes he d gone to Uni But his father wants him in the family business And his father is a gangster and a killer Barry wants to be a poet But he s also in his own words a user of the mental health services And his two best friends are the late John Lennon and the even later Erwin Rommel Hitler s one time military boss In a Yorkshire bus station a shot rings out It s the shot that brings Raymond and Barry together and sets off a sequence of violent events that ends in terrible murder and even more terrible poetry By the Way 9781490784151,2017-10-02 BY THE WAY will appeal to book lovers who enjoy titbits of history economics politics and religion among other bookish morsels In discussing global issues old and new and as varied as colonialism economic development militarism and Christianity Dereck C Sale explores vistas that expand on his Testament of the Third Man of ten years ago With wandering eye he takes us on a personal stroll down memory lane footprints entrusted to the future The Literary Underground: Writers and the Totalitarian Experience, 1900-1950 John Hoyles,1991-06-15 This wide ranging interdisciplinary study explores the concept of totalitarianism in western thought from Rousseau to George Orwell taking its examples from twentieth century European literature The Unconscious as Space Anca Carrington,2024-06-03 The Unconscious as Space explores the experience of being and the practice of psychoanalysis by thinking of the unconscious in mathematical terms Anca Carrington introduces mathematical models of space from dimension theory to algebraic topology and knot theory and considers their immediate psychoanalytic relevance The hypothesis that the unconscious is structured like a space marked by impossibility is then examined Carrington considers the clinical implications with particular focus on the interplay between language and the unconscious as related topological spaces in which movement takes place along knot like pathways The Unconscious as Space will be of appeal to psychotherapists psychoanalysts and mental health professionals in practice and in training Reference Sources for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries Jack O'Gorman,2014-02-25 Focusing on new reference sources published since 2008 and reference titles that have retained their relevance this new edition brings O Gorman s complete and authoritative guide to the best reference sources for small and medium sized academic and public libraries fully up to date The Secular Outlook Paul Cliteur,2010-09-29 The Secular Outlook In Defense of Moral and Political Secularism shows how people can live together and overcome the challenge of religious terrorism by adopting a secular outlook on life and politics Shows how secularism can answer the problem of religious terrorism Provides new perspectives on how religious minorities can be integrated into liberal democracies Reveals how secularism has gained a new political and moral significance Also examines such topics as atheism religious criticism and free speech James Merrill, Postmodern Magus Evans Lansing

Smith,2008-09 One of the unique voices in our century James Merrill was known for his mastery of prosody his ability to write books that were not just collected poems but unified works in which each individual poem contributed to the whole and his astonishing evolution from the formalist lyric tradition that influenced his early work to the spiritual epics of his later career Merrill s accomplishments were recognized with a Pulitzer Prize in 1977 for Divine Comedies and a National Book Critics Circle Award in 1983 for The Changing Light at Sandover In this meticulously researched carefully argued work Evans Lansing Smith argues that the nekya the circular Homeric narrative describing the descent into the underworld and reemergence in the same or similar place confers shape and significance upon the entirety of James Merrill s poetry Smith illustrates how pervasive this myth is in Merrill s work not just in The Changing Light at Sandover where it naturally serves as the central premise of the entire trilogy but in all of the poet s books before and after that central text By focusing on the details of versification and prosody Smith demonstrates the ingenious fusion of form and content that distinguishes Merrill as a poet Moving beyond purely literary interpretations of the poetry Smith illuminates the numerous allusions to music art theology philosophy religion and mythology found throughout Merrill s work Perspectives On Western Art Linnea

Wren,2018-02-22 This anthology of readings related to Western art history explains specific works of art illustrated in Janson s History of Art and De la Croix and Tansey s Gardner s Art Through the Ages in terms of the ideas beliefs and concerns of the people and cultures who created the art It brings a new understanding of art because it shows the social and cultural basis of major works of art through history The ten sections are Ancient Near East Egyptian Aegean Greek Etruscan Roman early Christian Byzantine and Islamic early Medieval Romanesque and Gothic The readings have been drawn from many areas of intellectual and social history including religion philosophy literature science economics and law Each selection is preceded by an introductory note which discusses the readings in terms of its subject and theme its source and usage and its relevance to the study of the work of art How to Arrive at a Considered Opinion Kenneth J. Zanca,1997-05-29 This book is written for the non philosophy major taking Contemporary Moral Issues or Intro to Ethics courses It provides a method to research any complex moral issue in hundreds of print periodical and Internet research sources and gives a model of the method applied to the question of capital punishment It helps students to learn how to analyze a moral issue and teaches them valuable skills of evaluating evidence and discerning between right and wrong in cases where rights are in conflict Contents Preface Introduction Basic Concepts and Terms First Step Define the Moral Issue Second Step Study the Issue s History Third Step Ask What Do the Moral Philosophies Say Fourth Step Ask D Urbino June Osborne,2003-10-01
