The Penguin Of South African Wine:

Wines of the New South Africa Tim James, 2013-07-18 Sought after by European aristocrats and a favorite of Napoleon Bonaparte the sweet wines of Constantia in the Cape Colony were considered to be among the world's best during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries During the first democratic elections in 1994 South Africa began to re-emerge onto the international wine scene Tim James an expert on South African wines takes the reader on an information-packed tour of the region showing us how and why the unique combination of terroir and climate together with dramatic improvements in winemaking techniques result in wines that are once again winning accolades James describes important grape varieties and wine styles from delicate sparkling to rich fortified and everything in between including the varietal blends that produce some of the finest Cape wines Anchoring his narrative in a rich historical context James discusses all the major wine regions from Cederberg to Walker Bay complete with profiles of more than 150 of the country's finest producers The Penguin

Reference Books Reuben Musiker, Naomi Musiker, 1997 Only a small proportion of the more than 1 100 entries have been retained from the earlier editions and supplements 1955 to 1983 more publications reflecting social and economic changes in South Africa have been included and the annotations are more extensive The main focus is on references such as dictionaries yearbooks and encyclopedias but handbooks manuals and histories are cited if no conventional references exist on the subject The selection is not limited to books published in South Africa The arrangement is by broad subject headings following the Dewey Decimal system The annotations are primarily descriptive but evaluations creep in now and again
