Why South Vietnam Fell Anthony James Joes, 2014-10-16 Between 1954 and 1963 President Ngo Dinh Diem against great odds but with U.S. assistance built a functioning South Vietnamese state But gravely misled by American journalists in Saigon the U.S. embassy in league with second-tier members of the State Department urged certain South Vietnamese generals to stage a coup against Diem resulting in his brutal murder Despite the instability after Diem's murder the South Vietnamese Army performed well during the 1968 Tet Offensive and the 1972 Easter Offensive In proportion to population South Vietnamese Army losses were much greater than American losses Nevertheless the American media ignored South Vietnamese sacrifices and completely misrepresented the consequences of the Tet Offensive The disastrous peace agreement the U S forced on the South Vietnamese in 1973 made continuing American support vital But Congress began to slash aid to South Vietnam so that its soldiers had to fight on with dwindling supplies of fuel ammunition and medicine Under these circumstances the South Vietnamese attempted to regroup their army into the provinces around Saigon an effort that ended in disaster The final chapter reflects on the meaning of the conflict and the tragedy that abandonment by Washington and conquest by Hanoi brought upon the South Vietnamese people An Appendix presents a strategy for preserving a South Vietnamese state with the commitment of a relatively small number of U S forces

Why Vietnam Matters Rufus C Phillips, 2008-10-01 Rufus Phillips offers an extraordinary inside history of the most critical years of American involvement in Vietnam from 1954 to 1968 and explains why it still matters Describing what went right and then wrong he contends that our failure to understand the Communists our South Vietnamese allies or even ourselves took us down the wrong road of a conventional war until it was too late we missed the war s essential political character Documenting the story from his own personal files now available at the Texas Tech Vietnam Archive as well as from the historical record the former government official paints striking portraits of such key figures as John F Kennedy Maxwell Taylor Robert McNamara Henry Cabot Lodge Hubert Humphrey and Ngo Dinh Diem among others with whom he dealt
