Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding in Laos Stephanie Phetsamay Stobbe, 2015-06-19 Using the case study of Laos a small landlocked country in Southeast Asia that has seen some of the world s most brutal forms of poverty and violence this book examines the power of traditional and indigenous conflict resolution systems as a tool for social justice It explores how the conflict resolution mechanisms build infrastructures that support social harmony and address larger scale conflicts within communities nations and international arenas The book discusses how over centuries foreign powers have polarised and used the ethnic groups of Laos to support their own agendas and how in spite of this the Lao people have consistently managed to recreate the peace and harmony that support their social relationships whether that is within groups or between many distinct groups Through the development and use of appropriate grassroots conflict resolution structures that do not require a formal court system and exists outside the political arena they have been successful in resolving conflicts within and across cultural groups The book shows that the conflict resolution systems of Laos are embedded in the fabric of ordinary everyday life and operate independently of the hierarchical structures that dominate governing institutions

Mon-Khmer: Peoples of the Mekong Region Ronald D. Renard, Kr. Anchalee Singhanetra Renard,2015-03-01 The Mon Khmer project took a long journey before it was turned into a final product the first comprehensive collection of articles on Mon Khmer peoples of the Mekong Region The project was started in 2001 by the first editor of the book Dr Ronald D Renard who unfortunately did not see the final product of his valuable work During 1995-1996 Dr Ron Renard as the manager of the UNDP Highland People project and I travelled to Northeast Cambodia Vietnam and Laos to explain to representatives of ethnic communities the aim of the project and how the ethnic minorities many of whom are Mon Khmer could be involved and benefit from it It may well be that this encounter with these ethnic groups made him expand his intellectual interest to study them in addition to the Karen in Thailand whose history of integration into the Siamese state he had studied for his dissertation completed in 1980 According to my last conversation with Ron it was during the time when he worked for the Journal of Siam Society in the late 1990s that he decided to embark upon the Mon Khmer project which preoccupied the last part of his academic life
