

Australian Olivia Newton-John has struck a good balance between country style and MOR (Middle of the Road). She has often appeared in cabaret with Cliff Richard, another star who has always avoided extremes market commercially but to send to record companies, and anyone else who might help to promote them, as an example of what they can do. Ten or fifteen years ago most available studios only had four-track facilities, which set a limit on what singers and musicians could do. Today 'demo' studios have eight- or even sixteen-track recording equipment, giving
