Footlights Across America, Towards a National Theater Kenneth Macgowan, 1929      Fight the Power Eric Leif Davin, 2008-11-12

Eric Leif Davin was raised as a Southern Baptist and Mormon convert, although he was always a non-believer. However, like everyone else in his blue collar surroundings, he believed in America: the military, anti-Communism, and although too young to vote, Senator Barry Goldwater when he ran for president in 1964. Then, in the Sixties, he went to college and became swept up in the movements of the times. He came to realize that everything he'd believed about his war, the Vietnamese War, was wrong. He came to believe that we were more than just on the wrong side. We were the wrong side. Eventually, he was drafted. However, he refused induction into the military, preferring to face five years in prison, the maximum sentence, rather than fight in an immoral war. This memoir describes his journey through the Sixties from a working class, Goldwater Republican supporter of the Vietnamese War to a radicalized anti-war activist who was eventually drafted to fight in that war but refused to go.

American Invasions: Canada to Afghanistan, 1775 to 2010 Rocky M. Mirza Ph.D, 2010-09-02

American Invasions: Canada to Afghanistan 1775 to 2010 is a thought-provoking analysis of the reasons for American invasions and warmongering over the last two centuries. Contrary to the views expressed by the Western media and Western historians, the American Empire is not a force for the promotion of free thinking and democracy but instead a force for imperial conquests and imposed dictatorships through the use of a military industrial complex fed by the American Empire outspending the rest of the world combined on weapons of mass destruction. The American Empire has used and will continue to use the most sophisticated weapons from nuclear bombs to bunker-busting bombs to land mines to chemical and biological weapons on defenseless men, women, and children to feed its insatiable appetite for warmongering and imperial expansion. It combines military bases around the world with military prisons used for torture and extraction of information. Its navy patrols every corner of the globe and its planes can rain down bombs from the heavens on every civilian on the planet.
