The American South Comes Of Age:

Coming of Age in Sue Monk Kidd's The Secret Life of Bees Dedria Bryfonski, 2013-04-09 This volume explores the life and work of Sue Monk Kidd focusing particularly on the coming of age theme in her novel The Secret Life of Bees The book presents readers with a collection of essays that address topics such as community as a place for transformation Lily's development at the expense of black individualism and the role of social consciousness and spirituality Modern perspectives on adolescence are also presented allowing readers to make important connections between the text and the concerns of today's world

American Airpower Comes of Age General Henry H. Arnold, 2004-10 This volume has richly enhanced General Henry H. Hap Arnold's reputation as the father of today's United States Air Force Major General John W. Huston himself an Army Air Forces combat veteran of the war has edited each of Arnold's World War II diaries and placed them in their historical context while explaining the problems Hap faced and evaluating the results of his travels General Huston a professional historian has taught at both the US Air Force Academy and the US Naval Academy A former Chief of the Office of Air Force History and an experienced researcher both here and abroad in the personal and official papers of the war's leaders he has been careful to let Hap speak for himself The result is an account of the four year odyssey that took Arnold to every continent but one as he took part in deliberations that involved Allied leaders in major diplomacy strategy meetings with Franklin D. Roosevelt Harry S. Truman Winston Churchill Josef Stalin Charles de Gaulle and Chiang Kai-shek At those meetings Hap recorded the comments of the various participants His 12 diaries contain his own thoughts which range from being lost over the Himalayas to comforting the wounded as they were airlifted from the Normandy beaches He experienced an air raid in London and viewed the carnage in recently liberated Manila Arnold recorded his honest impressions from private meetings with King George VI in Buckingham Palace to eating from mess kits with his combat crews in the North African desert all while perceptively commenting on the many issues involved and assessing the people the culture and the surroundings This volume offers the best assessment we have of Hap as he survived four wartime heart attacks and continued to work tirelessly for proper recognition of airpower It will also continue my emphasis while Chief of Staff of the US Air Force on encouraging professional reading through making historical accounts available to personnel of the finest air force in the world a success achieved in large part because of Hap Arnold Ronald R. Fogleman General United States Air Force Retired

Coming of Age in Contemporary American Fiction Kenneth Millard, 2007-04-18 This book explores the ways in which a range of recent American novelists have handled the genre of the coming of age novel or the Bildungsroman Novels of this genre characteristically dramatise the vicissitudes of growing up and the trials and tribulations of young adulthood often presented through depictions of immediate family relationships and other social structures This book considers a variety of different American cultures in terms of race class and gender and a range of contemporary coming of age novels so that aesthetic judgements about the fiction might be made in the context of the social history that fiction represents A series of questions are asked Does the coming of age moment in these novels coincide with an interpretation of the fall of America What kind of national commentary does it therefore facilitate Is the Bildungsroman a quintessentially American genre What can it usefully tell us about contemporary American culture Although the focus is on the conte

Coming of Age In Kenya Wendy Smith, 2025-08-25 A fifteen year old girl s family is uprooted from their established lives in England and moved to a rural farm on the outskirts of Nakuru in Kenya Here the main character Wendy is introduced to a new way of living unlike anything she ever imagined In a home without the trappings of modern homes the family has to learn to live without electricity plumbing running water and basic cooking appliances Employing a native helper reduces some of the load but introduces interesting problems with communication and understanding of social customs and expectations This sometimes gives rise to hilarious situations that become part of the personal growth of Wendy and the family A nearby army post brings dozens of homesick young men into the lives of Wendy and her older sister just as they are becoming interested in the opposite sex The house soon becomes a home away from home for the young soldiers and since they are among the few Caucasian girls in the area romances soon bloom and feelings develop Boredom drives the girls to look for work in Nakuru which is a short hitch hike away from their house Their daily commute brings them into contact with some of the interesting characters regularly traveling into town One person especially creates a mystery relating to a future American President A life that first seemed impossible to Wendy and her sister soon settles into an acceptable and interesting way of living Friendships and habits are established but it isn't long before the inevitability of returning home to England begins to loom Farewells must be made and thoughts turn to plans for the future The whole African experience creates in Wendy a desire for travel which becomes the next chapter in her life

Coming of Age in Utopia Paul M. Gaston, 2010-01-01 In this exquisitely wrought memoir of a committed life historian and civil rights activist Paul Gaston reveals his deep roots in Fairhope the unique Utopian community founded in 1894 by his grandfather on the shores of Mobile Bay Alabama Fairhope grew into a unique political economic and educational experiment and a center of radical economic and educational ideals As time passed however Fairhope's radical nature went into decline By the early 1950s the author began to look outward for ways to take part in the coming struggle the civil rights movement Gaston's career at the University of Virginia where he taught from 1957-97 forms the core of Coming of Age in Utopia

Coming of Age in America Mary C. Waters, Patrick Joseph Carr, Maria Kefalas, Jennifer Ann Holdaway, 2011-09-20 What is it like to become an adult in twenty first century America This book takes us to four very different places New York City San Diego rural Iowa and Saint Paul Minnesota to explore the dramatic shifts in coming of age experiences across the country Drawing from in depth interviews with people in their twenties and early thirties it probes experiences and decisions surrounding education work marriage parenthood and housing The first study to systematically explore this phenomenon from a qualitative perspective Coming of Age in America offers a clear view of how traditional patterns and expectations are changing of the range of forces that are shaping these changes and of how young people themselves view their lives

Curriculum, Accreditation and Coming of Age of Higher Education Roger L. Geiger, 2018-02-06 This latest volume in Roger Geiger's distinguished series on the history of higher education begins with a rare glimpse into the minds of mid nineteenth century collegians Timothy J Williams mines the diaries of students at the University of North Carolina to unearth a not unexpected preoccupation with sex but also a complex psychological context for those feelings Marc A VanOverbeke continues the topic in an essay shedding new light on a fundamental change ushering in the university era the transition from high schools to college The secularization of the curriculum is a fundamental feature of the emergence of the modern university Katherine V Sedgwick explores a distinctive manifestation by questioning why the curriculum of Bryn Mawr College did not reflect the religious intentions of its Quaker founder and trustees Secularization is examined more broadly by W Bruce Leslie who shows how denominational faith ceded its ascendancy to Pan Protestantism Where does the record of contemporary events end and the study of history begin A new collection of documents from World War II to the present invites Roger Geiger's reflection on this question as well as consideration of the most significant trends of the postwar era Educators chafing under current attacks on higher education may take solace or dismay from the essay Shaping a Century of Criticism in which Katherine Reynolds Chaddock and James M Wallace explore H L Mencken's writings which address enduring issues and debates on the meaning and means of American higher education Coming of Age: Ethics and Biological Anthropology in the 21st Century Vanessa

Campanacho, Francisca Alves Cardoso, 2024-09-19 A collection of papers from AnthroEthics 2021 consider ethical issues related to biological anthropology It combines views from people working in various countries and continents allowing for a worldview on ethical discussions within biological anthropology Coming of Age Tony Tuckwell, 2013-06 A population explosion in Thames side Essex earned the County its own Diocese in 1914 The wealthy worshippers of St Mary's Chelmsford lost a bitter battle to retain private pews but won another against six rivals to become the cathedral Forty years of war and austerity saw plans for a new building shelved New churches in East London came first Worshippers wanted to keep the Diocese at arm's length No one knew what a cathedral was for Even looking and sounding good proved difficult Eventually visionary leadership gave Chelmsford Cathedral an identity as servant and not just ornament of the Diocese The American South Comes of Age Bass, Jack, University of South Carolina, South Carolina Educational Television Network, 1981

Buncombe Bob Julian M. Pleasants, 2003-07-11 Robert Rice Reynolds 1884 1963 U S senator from North Carolina from 1933 to 1945 was one of the most eccentric politicians in American history His travels his five marriages his public faux pas and his flamboyant campaigns provided years of amusement for his constituents This political biography rescues Reynolds from his cartoon character reputation however by explaining his political appeal and highlighting his genuine contributions without overlooking his flaws Julian Pleasants argues that Reynolds must be understood in the context of Depression era North Carolina He capitalized on the discontent of the poverty stricken lower class by campaigning in tattered clothes while driving a ramshackle Model T a sharp contrast to his wealthy chauffeur driven opponent incumbent senator Cam Morrison In office Reynolds supported Roosevelt's New Deal Although he was not pro Nazi his isolationist stance and his association with virulent right wingers enraged his constituents and ultimately led to his withdrawal from politics Pleasants reveals Reynolds to be a showman of the first order a skilled practitioner of class politics and a unique southern politician the only one who favored the New Deal while advocating isolationist views American Science Come of Age, Atlantic Environments and the American South Thomas Blake Earle, D. Andrew Johnson, 2020-03-01 There is clear overlap in interests and influences for the fields of Atlantic environmental and southern history but scholarship in them has often advanced on parallel tracks This anthology places itself at the intersection pushing for a new confluence Editors Thomas Blake Earle and D Andrew Johnson provide a lucid introduction to this collection of essays that brings these disciplines together With this volume historians explore crucial insights into a self consciously Atlantic environmental history of the American South touching on such topics as ideas about slavery gender climate colonial ecological revolution manipulation of the landscape infrastructure resources and exploitation By centering this project on a region the American South defined as the southeastern reaches of North America and the Caribbean the authors interrogate how European colonizers Native Americans and Africans interacted in and with the sub tropics a place foreign to Europeans Challenging the concepts of Atlantic and southern and their intersection with environments is a discipline defining strategy at the leading edge of emerging scholarship Taken collectively this book should encourage more readers to reimagine this region its time periods climate s and ecocultural networks
