The Angels Weep:

Angels Weep Wilbur Smith, 2018-01-01 The third book in the epic Ballantyne series The lion rose lightly into the air and settled like a huge yellow bird on the horse's back crushing Jan Cheroot beneath his massive blood streaked body At that instant horse and rider and lion seemed to disappear into the very earth and there was only a swirling column of dust to mark where they had been A new generation An age old struggle Ralph Ballantyne is following in his father Zouga's footsteps as a hunter gold prospector and promoter of British colonialism in Africa But the tribes that they and men like them have previously exploited or butchered in the name of civilisation are rising up and will no longer submit quietly to the greed and mindless destruction of the trespassers Over a hundred years later Ralph's descendants are still in Africa in the newly named Zimbabwe and the battles have not yet ended In fact for Craig Mellow the last Ballantyne there is still a terrible price to pay for the actions of his ancestors The Angels Weep Wilbur A.
