The Arab Mind:

The Arab Mind Raphael Patai,1973 Drawing from his travels and observations the author explores the personality and values of the Arab people and pays tribute to their way of life Understanding the Arab Mind Abdel-Qader Yassine,1997

Orientalism and the Myth of the Arab Mind Nissim Rejwan,2016 In Orientalism and the Myth of the Arab Mind Nissim Rejwan deftly surveys analyses criticizes and dismisses the primarily Western Orientalists insistence on dwelling on the so called Arab mind In an attempt to amplify this idea he cites a number of points made by scholars and observers who wrote on both sides of the subject Raphael Patai John Laffin Edward Said Bernard Lewis and Akbar Ahmed among others Nissim Rejwan is the author of a dozen books on Arab and Middle Eastern culture and history and manages skillfully to give a summary of the great number of points made by all those who took part in the controversial subject of the Arab mind Apart from this particular subject Orientalism and the Myth of the Arab Mind offers a good deal on other Middle Eastern and Arab topics From publisher s website The Arab Mind Considered John Laffin,1975 The Arab Mind John Laffin,1975

The Arab Mind Alexander Abdennur,2008 The "Ugly American" in the Arab Mind Mohamed El-Bendary,2011-08 The roots of America s image problem in the Middle East The Arab Mind Bound Ṭāriq Aḥmad Ḥajjī,2011 The Arab Mind Bound proposes that Arab culture has been stifled by two major problems The first is that of religion misinterpreted Islam has come to be seen and propagated as a religion of violence while in reality this violence is merely the result of a single interpretation of Islam In fact there are other interpretations that call for moderation and progress The second problem is education The backward education system engenders misconceptions which in turn provoke political social and economic problems These trigger a vicious circle which fortifies the existing Arab mindset The Arab societies are thus trapped in this cycle to which the only solution is science and modern management The Arab Mind Bound looks at the factors which led to the rapid spread and influence of violent Islam and its effect on Arab societies Written by Tarek Heggy this insightful and topical book is a companion volume to Heggy s The Arab Cocoon Progress and Modernity in Arab Societies

Understanding the Arab Mind Fayez Abdullah Sayegh,1953 Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World Edward L. Smither,2012-07-20 From a mission field to a missions sender These words capture the story of the Brazilian evangelical church which has gone from receiving missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to becoming a movement that presently sends out more global laborers than the churches of England or Canada do After narrating Brazil s missional shift in this volume Smither addresses one fascinating element of the story Brazilian evangelical efforts in the Arab world How have Brazilians adapted culturally among Arabs how have they approached ministry and how have they cultivated a theology of mission in the process Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World gives the reader insights from one emerging missions movement with an eye toward a more comprehensive view of the global church Intellectual Origins of Islamic Resurgence in the Modern Arab World Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi?,1996-01-01 A systematic treatment of the religious intellectual cultural and social foundations of the Islamic resurgence in the modern Arab world that is grounded in the larger context of Arab and Islamic intellectual history

The Racist Fantasy Todd McGowan, 2022-10-06 What stands out about racism is its ability to withstand efforts to legislate or educate it away In The Racist Fantasy Todd McGowan argues that its persistence is due to a massive unconscious investment in a fundamental racist fantasy As long as this fantasy continues to underlie contemporary society McGowan claims racism will remain with us no matter how strenuously we struggle to eliminate it The racist fantasy a fantasy in which the racial other is a figure who blocks the enjoyment of the racist is a shared social structure No one individual invented it and no one individual is responsible for its perpetuation While no one is guilty for the emergence of the racist fantasy people are nonetheless responsible for keeping it alive and thus responsible for fighting against it The Racist Fantasy examines how this fantasy provides the psychic basis for the racism that appears so conspicuously throughout modern history The racist fantasy informs everything from lynching and police shootings to Hollywood blockbusters and musical tastes This fantasy takes root under capitalism as a way of explaining the failures and disappointments that result from the relationship to the commodity The struggle against racism involves dislodging the fantasy structure and to change the capitalist relations that require it This is the project of this book

The Ethnic Process Levic Jessel, 2019-07-22 No detailed description available for The Ethnic Process

Muslim Studies George McCue, 2017-07-05 This is the first volume of Goldziher's Muslim Studies which ranks highly among the classics of the scholarly literature on Islam Indeed the two volumes originally published in German in 1889 1890 can justly be counted among those that laid the foundations of the modern study of Islam as a religion and a civilization The first study deals with the reaction of Islam to the ideals of Arab tribal society to the attitudes of early Islam to the various nationalities and more especially the Persians and culminates in the chapter on the Shu ubiya movement which represents the reaction of the newly converted peoples and again more especially the Persians to the idea of Arab superiority The second essay is the famous study on the development of the Hadith the Traditions ascribed to Muhammed in which the Hadith is shown to reflect the various trends of early Islam Goldziher's name is mainly associated with the critical study of the Hadith of which this essay is the chief monument The third essay is about the cult of saints which though contrary to the spirit and letter of the earliest Islam played such an important part in its subsequent development These essays with the author's marvelous richness of information profound historical sense and sympathetic insight into the motive forces of religion and civilization are today as fresh as at the time of their original publication and their reissue is indispensable for the growing number of students of Islam Hamid Dabashi contributes a major eighty five page study of Goldziher's life and scholarship situating both in the intellectual and political currents of his own time while evaluating his work in the context of the current debate over Orientalism Muslim Studies Ign  c Goldziher, Arabic in the Fray Yasir Suleiman, 2013-07-22 The pre modern period saw a background of inter ethnic strife among Arabs and non Arabs mainly Persians Starting from the symbolic and cognitive roles of language Yasir Suleiman shows how discussions about the inimitability and untranslatability of the Qur'an in this period were at some deep level concerned with issues of ethnic election In this respect theology and ethnicity emerge as partners in theorising language Staying within the symbolic role of language Suleiman goes on to investigate the role of paratexts and literary production in disseminating language ideologies and in cultural contestation He shows how language symbolism is relevant to ideological debates about hybrid and cross national literary production in the Arab milieu In fact language ideology appears to be everywhere and a whole chapter is devoted to discussions of the cognitive role of language in linking thought to reality Post-Orientalism Hamid Dabashi, 2017-07-28 Post Orientalism is a sustained record of Hamid Dabashi's reflections over many years on the question of authority and power Who gets to represent whom and by what authority Dabashi's work picks up where Edward Said's Orientalism left off Said traced the origin of the power of representation and the normative agency that it entails to the colonial hubris that carried a militant band of mercenary merchants military officers Christian missionaries and European Orientalists around the globe This hubris enabled them to write and represent the people they sought to rule Dabashi's book is not as much a critique of colonial representation as it is of the manners and modes of fighting back and resisting it He does not question the significance of Orientalism and its principal concern with the colonial acts of representation but he provides a different angle that argues for the primacy of the question of postcolonial agency Dabashi uses the United States as an example of a country that initiated militant acts of representation in Iraq and Afghanistan He attempts to unearth and examine the United States deeply rooted claim to normative and moral agency particularly in light of the world's post 9 11 political reality The Human Dilemma Barbara Dole Larsen, 2009-12 Who has never wondered why people behave the way they do They create glorious music art and literature They have uncovered the secrets of the universe and disease yet have not been able to figure out how to get along with each other without war The Human Dilemma sets out to find out why It describes how humans evolved how their wonderful brains work and what they are like when they are born The author explores the reasons individuals grow up with different personalities depending on the societies in which they mature from hunter gatherers in Africa to industrial Americans She then turns to relationships between the sexes the temptations of power and why religious differences lead to violence The Human Dilemma explains in simple readable language how human nature customs and beliefs interfere with mankind's ability to resolve the overwhelming problems facing the world today Violent conflicts between cultures have become more volatile over the years Many believe it is man's nature to fight yet ancient civilizations like Crete were peaceful and everyone was treated equally women as well as men The same is true of two hunting gathering tribes in Africa that have followed the same way of life for thousands of years Perhaps it is just as human to cooperate peacefully in solving problems as it is to fight over them and just as human to see our fellows as equal instead of superior or inferior Why then do men regard women as inferior in so many societies And why do so many nations plunge into battle especially since the invention of nuclear bombs makes it possible to wipe out our entire species The newest peril is global warming caused by the spewing of carbon into the atmosphere from burning fossil fuels which may eventually change our climate back to the days before mankind existed Some animals have already become extinct because they cannot adjust to warmer weather Humans may not survive such a drastic change Our magnificent brains are capable of inventing solutions to all the problems confronting us and entrepreneurs are eager to put these inventions into practice Why then don't we do it Is there some flaw in our nature that makes it easier to blame each other instead and find excuses for relieving our frustrations in warfare As the author studied the sciences for answers to her questions she became convinced that only by fully understanding our nature and the reasons why it is difficult for us to confront our problems can we hope to resolve them and continue to survive Her conclusions are found in The Human Dilemma An original and thought provoking book which will appeal to a very wide audience Richard Edelman Psychoanalyst In her wonderfully wide ranging exploration of human nature Barbara Larsen has distilled her research into a lucid and absolutely fascinating book Richard Edelman Psychoanalyst The writer's style is open and exploratory warmly self sharing and it is an enjoyable as well as a searching and provocative learning experience Saul L Brown Emeritus Chairman Department of Psychiatry Cedars Sinai Medical Center Los Angeles CA Larsen skillfully weaves together current theory and research from an impressive variety of sources Arthur A Dole Emeritus Professor of Education University of Pennsylvania

The Gulf Conflict and International Relations Ken

Matthews, 2003-12-16 This book provides a comprehensive analysis and review of the major events and the leading actors of the Gulf War Copies of key documents and essential factual information build up a picture of the realities of war in the Middle East but the material is set in a strong theoretical framework This allows the author to see the conflict within the context of the international system and to relate it to the changes of the post cold war world Matthews looks at the shifts in international order which dictated the nature of the international response to the war but also at the new conditions created by the war itself What scope is there for Arab socialism after the fall of European socialism Has the conflict made Israel stronger or weaker Can the UN be entrusted with the post of global peace keeper
