Sidney Mazzi

The Art Of Hunting:

The Sacred Art of Hunting James A. Swan,1999 Many of the foremost social scientists of our times including Freud Jung and Fromm consider hunting instinctual in man a basic yet little understood human drive that has played a profound influence upon our culture consciousness and physical body Yet hunting is condemned by many as a cruel and inhumane pursuit in an era of urban expansion and animal rights activism This thought provoking book gathers together the rich heritage customs and histories of the hunt from worldwide cultures to present a penetrating picture of the hunter s soul

The Art of Hunting William Twiti,1977 The Art of Falconry, by Frederick II of Hohenstaufen Frederick II (Holy Roman Emperor),Casey Albert Wood,Florence Marjorie Fyfe,1943-06 De Arte Venandi cum Avibus was written shortly before the year 1250 by Frederick II Holy Roman Emperor King of Sicily and Jerusalem in whose court with its remarkably cosmopolitan and highly intellectual life may be found the real beginning of the Italian Renaissance In spite of its title it is far more than a dissertation on hunting There is a lengthy introduction dealing with the anatomy of birds an intensely interesting description of avian habits and the excursions of migratory birds Indeed this ancient book has long been recognized as the first zoological treatise written in the critical spirit of modern science The sumptuous volume now in hand is however the first translation into English of the complete text originally divided into a prologue and size books Together the translators and editors have at last made available this classic work and have adorned it with notes comments bibliographies and glossary They have produced a work of great value to zoologists especially the ornithologist and also to everyone interested in the history of science and in medieval art and letters The Art of Hunting William Twiti,Alice Dryden,1843 L'Art de venerie William Twiti,David Scott-Macnab,2009 This volume presents the first scholarly edition of a little known fifteenth century translation of William Twiti s Anglo Norman prose treatise on hunting L art de venerie the earliest manual on the sport to be composed in England The text in question extant in a single manuscript held in a private collection in Ashton under Lyne is far superior to the only other Middle English translation of Twiti s treatise that has hitherto been known to scholars the amplified but debased and at times incoherent version found in BL MS Cotton Vespasian B XII it is also a far more accurate rendition of Twiti s Anglo Norman original than the much altered redaction known as The Craft of Venery a text that has recently become confused with Twiti s treatise Former editors of Twiti s work such as Gunnar Tilander and Bror Danielsson were unaware of the existence of the Ashton translation and therefore founded their editions on the Cottonian text or The Craft of Venery both of which are problematic in a number of ways In this volume the Ashton translation is printed opposite a parallel Anglo French text edited from Gonville and Caius College MS 424 448 and is followed by freshly corrected editions of the amplified Cottonian text and The Craft of Venery All three texts are provided with their own comprehensive notes complemented by an integrated glossary that improves on many definitions currently in the Oxford English Dictionary and the Middle English Dictionary The Art of Hunting, Or, Three Hunting Mss Alice Dryden, 1908
