

The book cover features a high-contrast, black and white photograph of two figures against a bright red background. On the left, a person is seen from the side, wearing a dark cap and holding a long-barreled rifle. On the right, another person is shown in profile, holding a handgun. The overall aesthetic is gritty and suspenseful, typical of a crime or thriller novel.

new light on the economic environmental and cultural dimensions of colour in dress The range of dyes expanded considerably in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries drawing on Asian and Mediterranean knowledge new collections of recipes and the greater diversity of plants available through New World trade Working creatively with organic plant animal and mineral materials to make colours involved considerable knowledge pleasure and skill The creation of colour through dyes thus reveals a whole range of global agricultural and craft technologies that can inspire future material worlds and transforms our understanding of Europe s cultural heritage
