The Past In Question Modern Macedonia And The Uncertainties Of Nation:

The Past in Question Keith Brown, 2003 This book examines the relationship between national history identity and politics in twentieth century Macedonia It focuses on the reverberating power of events surrounding an armed uprising in August 1903 when a revolutionary organization challenged the forces of the Ottoman Empire by seizing control of the mountain town of Krusevo A century later Krusevo is part of the Republic of Macedonia and a site for yearly commemorations of 1903 In the course of the intervening hundred years various communities have vied to establish an authoritative account of what happened in 1903 and to weave those events into a longer and wider narrative of social cultural and national evolution Keith Brown examines how Krusevo s residents refugees and exiles have participated along with scholars journalists artists bureaucrats and politicians in a conversation about their vexed past By tracing different approaches to understanding commemorating and narrating the events of 1903 he shows how in this small mountain town the magic of nationalism by which destiny is written into particular historical events has neither failed nor wholly succeeded Stories of heroism self sacrifice and unity still rub against tales of treachery score settling and disaster as people come to terms with the legacies of imperialism socialism and nationalism The efforts of Krusevo s successive generations to transcend a past of intercommunal violence reveal how rival claims to knowledge and truth acquire vital significance during rapid social economic and political change

The Macedonian Question and the Macedonians Alexis Heraclides, 2020-12-31 This book is a comprehensive and dispassionate analysis of the intriguing Macedonian Question from 1878 until 1949 and of the Macedonians and of their neighbours from the 1890s until today with the two themes intertwining The Macedonian Question was an offshoot of the wider Eastern Question i e the fate of the European remnants of the Ottoman Empire once it dissolved The initial protagonists of the Macedonian Question were Greece Bulgaria and Serbia and a Slav speaking population inhabiting geographical Macedonia in search of its destiny the largest segment of which ended up creating a new nation comprising the Macedonians something unacceptable to its three neighbours Alexis Heraclides analyses the shifting sands of the Macedonian Question and of the gradual rise of Macedonian nationhood with special emphasis on the Greek Bulgarian and Serbian claims to Macedonia 1870s 1919 the birth and vicissitudes of the most famous Macedonian revolutionary organization the VM O RO and of other organizations 1893 1940 the appearance and gradual establishment of the Macedonian nation from the 1890s until 1945 Titos s crucial role in Macedonian nationhood cum federal status the Greek Macedonian name dispute 1991 2018 including the skeletons in the cupboard the deep seated reasons rendering the clash intractable for decades the final Greek Macedonian settlement the 2018 Prespa Agreement the Bulgarian Macedonian dispute 1950 today and its ephemeral settlement in 2017 the issue of the Macedonian language and the Macedonian national historical narrative The author also addresses questions around who the ancient Macedonians were and the fascination with Alexander the Great This monograph will be an essential resource for scholars working on Macedonian history Balkan politics and conflict resolution      The Macedonian Slavs in the Greek Civil War, 1944-1949 James Horncastle, 2019-06-03 In this study of Macedonian Slavs in the Greek Civil War the author examines how their participation in the conflict and the attempts by other groups to manipulate them gave rise to modern issues that continue to affect politics in the region today The Macedonian Question has confounded academics politicians and the people of the Balkans since the nineteenth century While the countries have resolved the territorial component of the Macedonian Question the critical and confusing question surrounding the ethnic and linguistic identity of the people of the region continues to be the source of international debate Part of the reason for this confusion is because the history of the Macedonian Question is shrouded in nationalist polemics The role of the Macedonian Slavs involvement in the Greek Civil War is particularly contentious and embedded in nationalist polemics which has impacted academic inquiry This book argues that the preponderance of Macedonian Slavs within the communist forces during the Greek Civil War influenced the actions of all the major actors involved and is a significant factor in shaping the modern Macedonian national identity      The State of Sovereignty Douglas Howland, Luise S. White, 2009 The State of Sovereignty examines how it came to pass that the nation state became the prevailing form of governance in the world today Spanning the 19th and 20th centuries and addressing colonization and decolonization around the globe these essays argue that sovereignty is a set of historically contingent practices and not something that accrues naturally to states The contributors explore the different ways in which sovereign political forms have been defined and have defined themselves placing recent debates about nations and national identity within a broader history of sovereignty territory and legality      Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23 With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world      Good Neighbourliness in the European Legal Context Dimitry Kochenov, Elena Bashkeska, 2015-07-28 Good Neighbourliness in the European Legal Context provides the first detailed assessment of the essence and application of the principle of good neighbourly relations in the European legal context illustrating its findings by a multi faceted array of studies dedicated to the functioning of good neighbourly relations in a number of key fields of EU law The main claim put forward in this book is that the principle of good neighbourly relations came to occupy a vital place in the European legal context underpinning the very essence of the integration exercise

Contested Ethnic Identity Chris Kostov, 2010 During the twentieth century Macedonia had a very turbulent history Essentially the region became the apple of discord among the Balkan states Ethnic identity formation among immigrants from Macedonia to Canada followed the political developments in the Balkans This book illustrates the late emergence of an ethnic Macedonian community in Toronto and the roots of the clash between the Macedonian Greek and Bulgarian ethnic communities The author tackles a number of important questions When did the Macedonian ethnic identity start in Canada What was the ethnic affiliation of the first Macedonian immigrants cultural organizations and churches in Toronto Why did they use the Bulgarian language Why do their first churches continue to be called Macedono Bulgarian churches Did all immigrants have one monolithic ethnic identity The author relies upon three different types of literature national identity development and theories Balkan history and ethnic studies of the Bulgarian Macedonian and Greek settlements of Toronto Oral interviews conducted in Toronto by the author and other researchers enhance this volume The book sheds light on a much contested subject which continues to fuel debate from Skopje Athens and Sofia to Toronto and Melbourne Publisher's description

Lakes and Empires in Macedonian History James Pettifer, Miranda Vickers, 2021-08-26 Lakes and Empires in Macedonian History Contesting the Waters tells the story of Psarades a lakeside village in Macedonian Greece on the shores of the Prespa lake This village which is in many ways a completely typical Greek settlement and yet remains unconventional in its way of life embodies the many contradictions of modern history and in exploring its roots James Pettifer and Miranda Vickers skilfully uncover the wider social cultural and political history of this lake region Drawing from oral testimonies and attentive to the construction of national histories this book considers how the development of international borders movement of people and role of national identities within imperial borderlands shaped Macedonia today What is more by centering the lakes and making use of an innovative environmental historical methodology Pettifer and Vickers offer the first environmental history of this multi ethnic borderland region shared by Greece North Macedonia and Albania The result is a nuanced and sophisticated transnational account of Macedonia from prehistory to the 21st century which will be essential reading for all Balkan scholars

The Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s Catherine Baker, 2015-07-30 Catherine Baker offers an up to date balanced and concise introductory account of the Yugoslav wars of the 1990s and their aftermath The volume incorporates the latest research showing how the state of the field has evolved and guides students through the existing literature topics and debates

Desert Borderland Matthew H. Ellis, 2018-03-20 Desert Borderland investigates the historical processes that transformed political identity in the easternmost reaches of the Sahara Desert in the half century before World War I Adopting a view from the margins illuminating the little known history of the Egyptian Libyan borderland the book challenges prevailing notions of how Egypt and Libya were constituted as modern territorial nation states Matthew H Ellis draws on a wide array of archival sources to reconstruct the multiple layers and meanings of territoriality in this desert borderland Throughout the decades a heightened awareness of the existence of distinctive Egyptian and Ottoman

Libyan territorial spheres began to develop despite any clear cut boundary markers or cartographic evidence National territoriality was not simply imposed on Egypt's western or Ottoman Libya's eastern domains by centralizing state power Rather it developed only through a complex and multilayered process of negotiation with local groups motivated by their own local conceptions of space sovereignty and political belonging By the early twentieth century distinctive Egyptian and Libyan territorial domains emerged what would ultimately become the modern nation states of Egypt and Libya

Transforming National Holidays Ljiljana Ćarić, Karen Gammelgaard, Kjetil Rå Hauge, 2012-12-19 How do people construct collective identity during profound societal transformations This volume examines the discursive construction of identity related to important national holidays in nine countries of Central Europe and the Balkans Bosnia Herzegovina Bulgaria Croatia the Czech Republic Macedonia Montenegro Poland Serbia and Slovakia The chapters focus on the decades during which these countries moved from communism towards democracy and a market economy This transition saw revivals of national values and a new significance of regional and transnational ties entangled with negotiations of national identity that have been particularly lively in discourse concerning national holidays The chapters apply discourse analysis in addition to approaches from history sociology political science and anthropology All of the analyses make use of empirical material in the Slavic languages including newspaper articles interviews and other media contributions sermons addresses and speeches by members of the political elite

The Balkans Mark Biondich, 2011-02-17 Examines the origins of political violence in the Balkans since the 19th century while treating the region as an integral part of modern European history reminding us that political violence and ethnic cleansing are hardly unique to this region

Nordic, Central, and Southeastern Europe 2019-2020, 2019-10-22 This is an annually updated presentation of each sovereign country in Nordic Central and Southeastern Europe past and present It is organized by individual chapters for each country and presents a complete and authoritative overview of each region's geography people history political system constitution parliament parties political leaders and elections The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Now in its 19th edition the content is thorough yet perfect for a one semester introductory course or general library reference Available in both print and e book formats and priced low to fit student and library budgets

Religion as a Conversation Starter Ina Merdjanova, Patrice Brodeur, 2011-11-03 Religion as a Conversation Starter is the first comprehensive analysis of the present state of interreligious dialogue for peacebuilding in Southeast Europe It is based on empirically grounded and policy oriented research carried out throughout the Balkans The study maps recent interreligious relations in this part of the world throwing light on both the achievements and challenges of interreligious dialogue for peacebuilding in particular and offering a set of up to date policy recommendations whilst contributing to a greater understanding of the local particularities and how they relate to broader trends transnationally

Interreligious dialogue has been a central tool in the continuous international efforts to promote peaceful living together in multicultural and multireligious societies This fascinating monograph explores the place of interreligious dialogue as a primary method in conflict resolution and peacebuilding and will be of interest to scholars of religious and peace studies as well as those who advocate and carry out organized interventions in religion related spheres The Holocaust and European Societies Frank Bajohr,Andrea Löw,2016-11-30 This book explores the Holocaust as a social process Although the mass murder of European Jews was essentially the result of political ideological decisions made by the Nazi state leadership the events of the Holocaust were also part of a social dynamic All European societies experienced developments that led to the social exclusion persecution and murder of the continent s Jews This volume therefore questions Raul Hilberg s category of the bystander In societies where the political order expects citizens to endorse the exclusion of particular groups in the population there cannot be any completely uninvolved bystanders Instead this book examines the multifarious forms of social action and behaviour connected with the Holocaust It focuses on institutions and persons helpers co perpetrators facilitators and spectators beneficiaries and profiteers as well as Jewish victims and Jewish organisations trying to cope with the dynamics of exclusion and persecution The Routledge History of East Central Europe Since 1700 Irina Livezeanu,Arpad von Klimó,2017-03-16 Covers territory from Russia in the east to Germany and Austria in the west exploring the origins and evolution of modernity in this region Provided by the publisher Transacting Transition Keith Brown,2006 In Transacting Transition scholars and practitioners with first hand knowledge of foreign assistance programs recount what happens when democracy goes local and principles like transparency gender equality interethnic tolerance and cooperation run up against particular realities political agendas self interest and memories of conflict Focused on the former Yugoslavia where the 1990s saw an unprecedented investment of time and energy by a host of international organizations in processes of reconstruction and democracy assistance the contributors offer description and analysis of diagnostic cases of international intervention to explore how the mission and vision of democracy promotion is enacted on the ground Their experiences reflect wider trends in the evolution of U S democracy assistance after the end of the Cold War which has increasingly focused on locally oriented development and civic action as a necessary component of democratic transition In these cases individuals from outside the region found themselves charged with advancing ambitious agendas of social and political change while dealing with the micropolitics of particular situations where for example village solidarity is fractured by old rivalries participation in decision making is habitually restricted by gender or ethnicity or where donors and implementers disagree on the best way forward The book includes an overall introduction and eight chapters focusing on case studies from Kosovo Serbia and Macedonia Each case is described by a participant and put in wider context by a short editorial introduction The book is intended to be broadly accessible to readers and students interested in understanding what is entailed in making grand visions of democratization work Other Contributors Jeff S Merritt Dennison Lane Paul J Nuti

Claire Sneed Sally Broughton Micova Clemson Turregano and Chip Gagnon      Everyday Life in the Balkans David W. Montgomery, 2018-11-26 Everyday Life in the Balkans gathers the work of leading scholars across disciplines to provide a broad overview of the countries of Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Bulgaria Croatia Greece Kosovo Macedonia Romania Serbia and Turkey This region has long been characterized as a place of instability and political turmoil from World War I through the Yugoslav Wars and even today as debate continues over issues such as the influx of refugees or the expansion of the European Union However the work gathered here moves beyond the images of war and post socialist stagnation which dominate Western media coverage of the region to instead focus on the lived experiences of the people in these countries Contributors consider a wide range of issues including family dynamics gay rights war memory religion cinema fashion and politics Using clear language and engaging examples Everyday Life in the Balkans provides the background context necessary for an enlightened conversation about the policies economics and culture of the region      The Balkans and Caucasus Ivan Biliarsky, Ovidiu Cristea, Anca Oroveanu, 2012-01-17 The overall character of the Black Sea region has been defined over time in various ways For specialists in economy and trade it has represented a region at the crossroads of the trade routes between Europe and Asia for political scientists and historians it has been a space of confrontation between the great terrestrial and naval powers for the scholars attentive to its cultural dimensions it has been a contact zone a space of interaction between different peoples religions and cultures These attempts at a definition all revolve around an essential and ambivalent feature of the Black Sea as a factor of connection a bridge and at the same time a border a dividing line between Europe and Asia between the Baltic and the Mediterranean region In this fluctuation between the two the predominance of one over the other bridge or border has depended on a number of factors first among them the distribution of power relations in the region This volume which originated in a symposium hosted by the New Europe College Institute for Advanced Study in Bucharest brings together contributions coming from scholars within the Black Sea region and outside it in an attempt to look at the Balkans and Caucasus from a comparative and multi disciplinary perspective highlighting their differences as well as their common features The overarching question this volume and the papers included in it address and leave open is to what extent we are dealing with a coherent zone whose past present and future can legitimately be considered as being traversed by meaningful interrelations suggesting a shared destiny      World and Its Peoples, 2010 Presents a thirteen volume reference guide to the geography history economy government culture and daily life of countries in Europe
