

CALLED TO BE...

A LOCAL LAY-PASTOR

Local lay-pastors work closely and collaboratively with ordained ministers and lay leaders.

Each role is created locally and is unique. All local lay-pastors share in pastoral care and leadership for a local Methodist church or circuit. They help members to discern how God is calling them into ministry and mission by supporting, encouraging and enabling the witness of the local church.

“Come with me, come wander, come welcome the world where strangers might smile or where stones may be hurled;
come leave what you cling to, lay down what you clutch and find, with hands empty, that hearts can hold much.”

Ministry in the Countryside: Revised Expanded Edition Andrew Bowden, 2003-05-15

Some years ago Faith in the Countryside the report of the Archbishop's Commission on Rural Areas Acora was launched at Lambeth Palace It was widely accepted as a good document and a worthy companion to Faith in the City But while it seemed to put the rural Church on the agenda it failed to come up with acceptable ministerial solutions Andrew Bowden's book offers a model for future rural ministry which is practical positive and a much needed follow up to the Commission's report He recognises that although rural dioceses have taken new initiatives rural clergy and congregations need an overall vision and a practical strategy This excellent handbook is as significant as the report itself for the future of rural ministry It is now reissued with an expanded text to take recent developments fully into account
