The Penultimate Suitor:

Lug Your Careless Body Out of the Careful Dusk Joshua Marie Wilkinson, 2006-05 Drawing from the paintings of Susan Rothenberg Gwyneth Scally and Eric Fischl as well as from the photography of Allison Maletz Joshua Marie Wilkinson's Lug Your Careless Body out of the Careful Dusk is a book length poem written in small fragments Comprised of seven sections the poem is formed as much by the poet's travels through Turkey the Baltics and Eastern Europe as it is by the movies of Rainer Werner Fassbinder Krzysztof Kieslowski and Bill Morrison The painters Francis Bacon and Lucian Freud are here alongside whispers of Emily Dickinson and Wallace Stevens Lug Your Careless Body out of the Careful Dusk is a book of cinematic images and fragments of small stories overheard and quickly abandoned of hidden letters and phone booths and of ghosts who return with questions Born and raised in Seattle's Haller Lake neighborhood Joshua Marie Wilkinson is the author of one other book of poetry Suspension of a Secret in Abandoned Rooms and the chapbook A Ghost as King of the Rabbits He holds an MFA from the University of Arizona and an MA in film studies from University College Dublin Presently he lives in Denver Colorado where he is pursuing his doctorate in English and creative writing and completing his first film The Penultimate Suitor Mary Leader, 2001 In The Penultimate Suitor Mary Leader strips away comfortable layers of poetic self protection to arrive at a position of acute emotional self conflagration Each poem turns upon and returns to the infuriating and glorious correlations between love and art Learning to love learning to make art trying to make beauty trying to be a beauty all these efforts call for passionate explorations in the schools of art and love The Siege of the Seven Suitors Meredith Nicholson, 1910 The Longest Neoi Stephanie Choi, 2024-05-06 The Longest Neoi embraces and complicates what it means to err to wander or go astray a deviation from a code of behavior or truth a mistake flaw or defect In this collection from Stephanie Choi you'll find the poet's tongue writing herself learning to speak Trace of One Joanna Goodman, 2005-04 In Trace of One real geographies merge with spiritual ones just as details of the speaker's physical and emotional worlds intertwine with the transcendent realms of science religion and myth Joanna Goodman's poems share a sense of spatial and temporal displacement they are love poems to a place whether it be a field a room or a paradise they celebrate their subjects but they are also poems of grief and solitude The poems resonate with ethereal echoes paradoxically emitted by an increasingly demystified world in which mechanical explanations for the workings of the human mind and body bump up against the mystery and obliqueness of the soul Last Day of My Face James Shea, 2025 James Shea's collection deepens his exploration of the elegiac imagination sending estranged speakers into new fields of quiet crisis Rich with reversals short poems are wedged against skittery contemplations and an easeful tone coexists with a vein of darkness Akin to lucid dreaming this startling volume builds toward a final poem that gathers fragments of selves into a wondrous whole Ledger Susan Wheeler, 2005-04 The many meanings of economy are the ground for the mediation and lament of Ledger Susan Wheeler's fourth book In its Greek origins economy referred to the stewardship of a household and as it developed the word

also came to include aspects of government and of religious faith Ledger places an individual's crisis of spirituality and personal stewardship or management of her resources against a backdrop of a culture that has focused its economy on financial gain and has misspent its own tangible and intangible resources

Love Song to the Demon-Possessed Pigs of Gadara William Fargason, 2020-04-01 2020 Florida Book Award in Poetry Gold Medal In his debut collection William Fargason inspects the pain of memory alongside the pain of the physical body Fargason takes language to its limits to demonstrate how grief is given a voice His speaker confronts illness grapples with grief and heals after loss in its most crushing forms These poems attempt to make sense of trauma in a time of belligerent fathers and unacceptable answers Fargason necessarily confronts toxic masculinity while navigating spiritual and emotional vulnerability

System of Ghosts Lindsay Tighe, 2016-04 In System of Ghosts Lindsay Tighe details the way landscape speaks to isolation and personhood how virtual and lived networks alter experience She questions how built environments structure lives how we seek out information within these spaces and most fundamentally how we love Rooted in the personal the speaker of this collection moves through society and history with the aim of firmly placing herself within her own life and loss Facts become an essential bridge between spatial and historical boundaries She connects us to the disappearance of species abandoned structures and heartbreak abandoned spaces that tap into the searing grief woven into society's public places There is solace in research one system this collection uses to examine the isolation of contemporary life alongside personal historical and ecological loss While her poems are intimate and personal Tighe never turns away from the larger contexts within which we all live System of Ghosts is at its core an act of reaching out across time space history and across the room

In the Tree Where the Double Sex Sleeps Rob Schlegel, 2019-04-01 With calm abandon Rob Schlegel stands among the genderless trees to shake notions of masculinity and fatherhood Schlegel incorporates the visionary into everyday life inhabiting patterns of relation that do not rely on easy categories Working from the premise that poetry is indistinguishable from the life of the poet Schlegel considers how his relationship to the creative process is forever changed when he becomes something new to someone else The meaning I'm trying to protect is Schlegel writes the heart is neither boy nor girl In the Tree Where the Double Sex Sleeps is a tender search for the mother in the father the poet in the parent the forest in the human

La Far Eric Linsker, 2014-03 How far are we from the Lake District How far from the garden Eric Linsker's first book scrolls down the Anthropocene tracking our passage through a technophilic pastoral where work and play are both forms of making others suffer in order to exist In La Far the world is faraway near a hell conveniently elsewhere in which workers bundle Foxconn's rare earths into the frosty kits that return us our content but also the sea meeting land as it always has Both are singable conditions and lead irreversibly to odes equally comfortable with praise and lament The poems in La Far hope that by making the abstract concrete and the concrete abstract literalizing a nightingale beyond knowledge we might construct what Wordsworth called a Common Day a communized life partaken of by all

The Last Unkillable Thing Emily

Pittinos,2021-04-15 What will be possible when I m no longer sorry asks the speaker of THE LAST UNKILLABLE THING after the sudden death of a parent What do lost daughters burst into In this debut collection by Emily Pittinos the speaker is tasked with relearning the ways of loneliness family sex and wilderness as a person who feels thoroughly and abruptly without Shaped by both concision and unfolding sequences THE LAST UNKILLABLE THING is a journey across landscapes of mourning where in the periphery every shadow is a new dead thing The light of these poems takes on the tint of grief and through that light the speaker reexamines what remains her changed self her desire the midwestern flora the unyielding snow Interior and exterior ecologies blur until loss becomes a place of its own and the only inevitability Doesn t it hurt Pittinos writes to be human I m so human I could die

The Siege of the Seven Sutors Meredith Nicholson,2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original The Siege of the Seven Sutors by Meredith Nicholson

The Traumatic Colonel Michael J. Drexler,Ed White,2014-07-11 In American political fantasy the Founding Fathers loom large at once historical and mythical figures In The Traumatic Colonel Michael J Drexler and Ed White examine the Founders as imaginative fictions characters in the specifically literary sense whose significance emerged from narrative elements clustered around them From the revolutionary era through the 1790s the Founders took shape as a significant cultural system for thinking about politics race and sexuality Yet after 1800 amid the pressures of the Louisiana Purchase and the Haitian Revolution this system could no longer accommodate the deep anxieties about the United States as a slave nation Drexler and White assert that the most emblematic of the political tensions of the time is the figure of Aaron Burr whose rise and fall were detailed in the literature of his time his electoral tie with Thomas Jefferson in 1800 the accusations of seduction the notorious duel with Alexander Hamilton his machinations as the schemer of a breakaway empire and his spectacular treason trial The authors venture a psychoanalytically informed exploration of post revolutionary America to suggest that the figure of Burr was fundamentally a displaced fantasy for addressing the Haitian Revolution Drexler and White expose how the historical and literary fictions of the nation s founding served to repress the larger issue of the slave system and uncover the Burr myth as the crux of that repression Exploring early American novels such as the works of Charles Brockden Brown and Tabitha Gilman Tenney as well as the pamphlets polemics tracts and biographies of the early republican period the authors speculate that this flourishing of political writing illuminates the notorious gap in U S literary history between 1800 and 1820 Sardonic Smile Donald Lateiner,1995 No previous work has thoroughly analyzed nonverbal behavior in Homeric epic Gesture and posture conscious and unconscious manipulation of space and time and involuntary leakage such as twitching and shivering can intensify and underline or contradict and ironize the speech of characters and hexameter narrative Lateiner explores how the Homeric poems frequently and consistently employ gesture posture and vocalics to convey situation and meaning sometimes instead of speech or instrumental action sometimes in addition to those signals of meaning Sardonic Smile has been written for a broad audience including classicists cultural historians anthropologists semioticians and students of comparative literature A general introduction to gesture in life and literature translated Greek and a glossary of terms make the volume accessible to student and scholar alike Unbeknownst Julie Hanson,2011-03-15 Julie Hanson s award winning collection Unbeknownst gives us plainspoken poems of unstoppable candor They are astonished and sobered by the incoming data they are funny they are psychologically accurate and beautifully made Hanson s is a mind interested in human responsibility to ourselves and to each other and unhappy about the disappointments that are bound to transpire We ve been like gods our powers wasted These poems are lonely with spiritual longing and wise with remorse for all that cannot last The Kindergartners begins All their lives they ve waited for the yellow bus to come for them then moves directly to the present reality Now it s February and the mat is wet Settings and events are local and familiar never more exotic than a yoga session at the Y one of several instances where the body is central to the report and to the net result I slip in and fold behind the wheel into the driver s seat like a thin young thing My organs are surely glistening This car was made for me These poems are intimate revelations thinking as they go including the reader in the progress of their thoughts Literature and Politics in the 1620s P. Salzman,2014-07-31 Literature and Politics in the 1620s argues that literature during this decade was inextricably linked to politics whether oppositional or authoritarian A wide range of texts are analyzed from Shakespeare s First Folio to Middleton s A Game At Chess from romances and poetry to sermons tracts and newsbooks Rape Culture and Female Resistance in Late Medieval Literature Sarah Baechle,Carissa M. Harris,Elizaveta Strakhov,2022-06-07 Centering on the difficult and important subject of medieval rape culture this book brings Middle English and Scots texts into conversation with contemporary discourses on sexual assault and the MeToo movement The book explores the topic in the late medieval lyric genre known as the pastourelle and in related literary works including chivalric romance devotional lyric saints lives and the works of major authors such as Margery Kempe and William Dunbar By engaging issues that are important to feminist activism today the gray areas of sexual consent the enduring myth of false rape allegations and the emancipatory potential of writing about survival this volume demonstrates how the radical terms of the pastourelle might reshape our own thinking about consent agency and survivors speech and help uncover cultural scripts for talking about sexual violence today

In addition to embodying the possibilities of medievalist feminist criticism after MeToo Rape Culture and Female Resistance in Late Medieval Literature includes an edition of sixteen Middle English and Middle Scots pastourelles The poems are presented in a critical framework specifically tailored to the undergraduate classroom Along with the editors the contributors to this volume include Lucy M Allen Goss Suzanne M Edwards Mary C Flannery Katharine W Jager Scott David Miller Elizabeth Robertson Courtney E Rydel and Amy N Vines      The Fix Lisa Wells, 2018-04-15 Proceeding from Hélène Cixous's charge to kill the false woman who is preventing the live one from breathing The Fix forges that woman's reckoning with her violent past with her sexuality and with a future unmoored from the trappings of domestic life These poems of lyric beauty and unflinching candor negotiate the terrain of contradictory desire often to darkly comedic effect In encounters with strangers in dive bars and on highway shoulders and through ekphrastic engagement with visionaries like William Blake José Clemente Orozco and the Talking Heads this book seeks the real beneath the dissembling surface Here nothing is fixed but grace arrives by diving into the complicated past in order to find a way to live now Woman Seated with Thighs Apart Often I am permitted to return to this kitchen tipsy pinned to the fridge to the precise instant the kiss smashed in When the jaws of night are grinding and the double bed is half asleep the snore beside me syncs to the traffic light pulsing red ragged up in the linen curtain I leak such solicitous sighs to asphalt slicked with black ice high beams speed over my body whole while the drugstore weeps its remedy in strident neon throbs I doubt I'll make it out It's a cold country It's the sting of quarantine It's my own two hands working deep inside the sheets
