Phillips reveals the macabre visions of these films' directors in Dark Directions Romero Craven Carpenter and the Modern Horror Film Phillips begins by analyzing the works of George Romero focusing on how the body is used cinematically to reflect the duality between society and chaos concluding that the unconstrained bodies of the Living Dead films act as a critical intervention into social norms Phillips then explores the shadowy worlds of director Wes Craven In his study of the films The Serpent and the Rainbow Deadly Friend Swamp Thing Red Eye and Shocker Phillips reveals Craven's vision of technology as inherently dangerous in its ability to cross the gossamer thresholds of the gothic Finally the volume traverses the desolate frontiers of iconic director John Carpenter Through an exploration of such works as Halloween The Fog and In the Mouth of Madness Phillips delves into the director s representations of boundaries and the haunting consequences for those who cross them The first volume ever to address these three artists together Dark Directions is a spine tingling and thought provoking study of the horror genre In analyzing the individual works of Romero Craven and Carpenter Phillips illuminates some of the darkest minds in horror cinema

Sex Radical Cinema Carol Siegel, 2015-11-18 In this provocative study of cinematic and televisual representations of sex radicalism Carol Siegel explores how representations of sexually explicit content on film have shaped American cultural visions of sex and sexual politics in the 21st century Siegel distinguishes between a liberal approach to visual representations which has over emphasized normative equal opportunity while undervaluing our distinctive erotic selves and a radical approach to visual representation which portrays forbidden sexualities and desires She illustrates how visual media participates in and even drives political policies related to pedophilia prostitution interracial relationships and war By examining such popular film and television shows as Mystic River The Wire Fifty Shades of Grey Batman Returns and the HBO hits Sex and the City and Girls Siegel takes the discussion of radical sex in the movies out of the margins of political discussions and puts it in the center where she argues it has belonged all along
