The Perpetual Ending Kristen Den Hartog, 2011-01-14 From a writer acclaimed for her probing idiosyncratic intelligence and emotional generosity Calgary Herald comes a deeply imagined novel that takes us into the lives of devoted twin sisters and their world of opposites doppelg ngers and ghosts Jane and Eugenie Ingrams are mirror image twins and thus exact opposites Halves of a whole they are inseparable each understanding her world through the other But when Lucy their artistic mother moves her daughters from Deep River to Toronto leaving behind a bewildered husband she finds she can t entirely escape the remains of their troubled marriage Eugenie thrives in the jumble of urban life but Jane is sickened by its underside the mess of lost souls who live on the streets the garbage the noise and the violence When their father eventually seeks them out Jane is relieved for the chance to go back to Deep River Eugenie agrees to return for the sake of her beloved sister a soon to be tragic concession Years later Jane is a writer in Vancouver living with her lover Simon a gifted illustrator Although troubled by her past she finds solace and commercial success in the rich fabulist tales she and Simon create which are expertly woven throughout the book tales of people born with extraordinary qualities horns the gift of prophesy spiderweb hair or unquenchable thirst Wondrous inventive and brimming with charm The Perpetual Ending is an exploration of love and artistry that shows the world as a whole in all its grotesqueness and beauty And it uncovers the surprising ways we sometimes arrive at the heart of one story through the telling of others Novel-Poetry Emily Allen, Dino Franco Felluga, 2024-09-05 Novel Poetry examines the verse novel a hybrid genre that emerged in the middle decades of Britain s nineteenth century to make a larger claim about the nature of genre and formal structures for time action and identity that cross genres The volume uncovers trajectories of literary influence that structure our approach to literature and affect how we shape our lives lives which are often constrained by cause and effect and narrative driven ways of approaching time and possibility Novel Poetry tracks an alternative way of thinking about time and event that was inspired by the French Revolution popularized by Lord Byron and explored by experimental Victorian poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning Robert Browning Arthur Hugh Clough and George Meredith The volume turns to the work of philosophers Alain Badiou Jean Pierre Dupuy and Slavoj %Zi%zek to theorize this alternative mode which it aligns with the futur ant rieur The temporality of the future anterior disrupts both the novel s realist chronologies and the expressivist lyric s cult of the moment thus liberating possibilities for collective action Ranging widely across romantic lyric poetry Victorian novels and nineteenth century and contemporary literary theory Novel Poetry asks what alternative structures and temporalities does a focus on either realistic narrative or the lyric moment occlude Are there ways of thinking about lived experience and personal or collective agency that do not conform to traditional models ways that the verse novel might help us to explore What might be gained today from trying to think about ourselves and our world outside of established frameworks that are now so naturalized as to feel almost inescapable This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 licence

Closure in the Novel Marianna Torgovnick, 2017-03-14 Drawing on a wide range of nineteenth and twentieth century English French American and Russian novels Marianna Torgovnick demonstrates the variety and complexity of the process by which a work reaches an appropriate conclusion Originally published in 1981 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 love story... with a happy ending Flávio Gikovate, 2013-08-06 Technological advances and changes in society have led to the growth of individuality and the impoverishment of conventional love which nonetheless prevails in the collective imagination as an ideal This slow transformation according to Fl vio Gikovate is excellent news He believes that adults today have two options both of which are much better than the possessive conventional relationships of old to live alone establishing more superficial emotional and physical connections or to develop relationships based on what he calls love which respects individuality and can create ties capable of lasting a lifetime In this work Gikovate explains how to take the second path definitely more difficult but far more rewarding Water Wings Kristen Den Hartog, 2003 The seedy underbelly of small town life is exposed in Water Wings but there are flower growing out of the decay as two grown sisters unearth both ugly secrets and the strange resiliency of love Swarm of Five Francis DiPietro, 2006-08 Stories in Swarm of Five stand in complimentary contrast to one another united by an arc of succulent imagery and memorable characters From the wild chaotic wry and politically apocalyptic overtones of Beat Me Sweetly Heavy Jesus to the subtle complexities of retelling the life of an unknown hero in Legacy of a Teacher DiPietro strives to capture a diverse sampling from the borderlands of storytelling The pseudo autobiographical parody of Groveling Music The Soundtrack to My Remarried Life presents the most engaging glimpse yet into the mind of this longtime author and veteran of the final age of pulp magazines with DiPietro escaping to a park in Texas for six days while his new wife half his age goes to a resort spa to pamper herself at his expense Insecurities and bawdy reminiscences abound as DiPietro aging and rueful of his diminishing sexual prowess travels the lonely spaces of America in deep thought and strange mood Shorter works of The Dojo Demon and When Pickpockets Collide are experimental and wide ranging psychological fantasies which explore the oft dirty and unenviable depths of human machination Swarm of Five accomplishes the difficult task of offering engaging tales in a spectrum of tastes and textures

The English Modernist Novel as Political Theology Charles Andrews, 2024-01-11 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE novels by Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence Evelyn Waugh and Sylvia Townsend Warner as political theology works that imagine a resistance to the fusion of Christianity and patriotism which fuelled and supported the First World War this book shows how we can gain valuable insights from their works for anti militarist anti statist and anti nationalist efforts

today While none of the four novelists in this study were committed Christians during the 1920s Andrews explores how their fiction written in the wake of the First World War operates theologically when it challenges English civil religion the rituals of the nation that elevate the state to a form of divinity Bringing these novels into a dialogue with recent political theologies by theorists and theologians including Giorgio Agamben William Cavanaugh Simon Critchley Michel Foucault Stanley Hauerwas and I rgen Moltmann this book shows the myriad ways that we can learn from the authors theopolitical imaginations Andrews demonstrates the many ways that these novelists issue a challenge to the problems with civil religion and the sacralized nation state and in so doing offer alternative visions to coordinate our inner lives with our public and The English Novel In History 1840-1895 Elizabeth Ermarth, 2006-09-07 The construction of history collective actions as a social common denominator is a powerful achievement of the nineteenth century novel a form dedicated to experimenting with democratic social practice as it conflicts with economic and feudal visions of social order Through revisionary readings of familiar nineteenth century texts The English Novel in History 1840 1895 takes a multidisciplinary approach to literary history It highlights how narrative shifts from one construction of time to another and reformulates fundamental ideas of identity nature and society Elizabeth Ermarth discusses the range of novels alongside other cultural material including painting science religious political and economic theory. She explores the problems of how a society as defined in democratic terms can accommodate political gender and class differences without resorting to hierarchy and how narrowly conceived economic agendas compete with social cohesion Students advanced undergraduates postgraduates and specialists will find this text invaluable Studying English Robert Eaglestone, with Jonathan Beecher Field, 2015-11-06 Clearly focussed on the needs of students Robert Eaglestone and Jonathan Beecher Field have revised the best selling Doing English specifically for English literature courses in America Studying English presents the ideas and debates that shape literary studies in America today This overview of the discipline explains not only what students need to know but how and why English came to be the way it is This uniquely comprehensive guide to the subject gives students the background they need to understand and enjoy their studies more fully The book covers arguments about criticism and theory value the canon Shakespeare authorial intention figural language narrative writing identity politics and the skills that are learned from studying English for the world of work In a clear and engaging way Robert Eaglestone and Jonathan Beecher Field Orient you by exploring what it is to study English in America now Equip you by explaining the key ideas and trends in English in context Enable you to begin higher level study Literature and the Bible David Bevan, 2023-12-18 The Oxford Handbook of the Victorian Novel Lisa Rodensky, 2013-07-11 The Oxford Handbook of the Victorian Novel contributes substantially to a thriving scholarly field by offering new approaches to familiar topics as well as essays on topics often overlooked The Road Movie Book Steven Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2002-01-04 The Road Movie Book is the first comprehensive study of an enduring but ever changing Hollywood genre its place in American culture and its legacy to world cinema The road and the cinema both flourished in the twentieth century as technological advances brought motion pictures to a mass audience and the mass produced automobile opened up the road to the ordinary American When Jean Baudrillard equated modern American culture with space speed cinema technology he could just as easily have added that the road movie is its supreme emblem The contributors explore how the road movie has confronted and represented issues of nationhood sexuality gender class and race They map the generic terrain of the road movie trace its evolution on American television as well as on the big screen from the 1930s through the 1980s and finally consider road movies that go off the road departing from the US landscape or travelling on the margins of contemporary American culture Movies discussed include Road classics such as It Happened One Night The Grapes of Wrath The Wizard of Oz and the Bob Hope Bing Crosby Road to films 1960 s reworkings of the road movie in Easy Rider and Bonnie and Clyde Russ Meyer's road movies from Motorpsycho to Faster Pussycat Kill Kill Contemporary hits such as Paris Texas Rain Man Natural Born Killers and Thelma and Louise The road movie Australian style from Mad Max to the Adventures of Priscilla Queen of the Desert Biography and the Question of Literature in France Ann Jefferson, 2007-01-04 This book takes a fresh look at the relations between literature and biography by tracing the history of their connections through three hundred years of French literature The starting point for this history is the eighteenth century when the term biography first entered the French language and when the word literature began to acquire its modern sense of writing marked by an aesthetic character Arguing that the idea of literature is inherently open to revision and contestation Ann Jefferson examines the way in which biographically orientated texts have been engaged in questioning and revising definitions of literature At the same time she tracks the evolving forms of biographical writing in French culture and proposes a reappraisal of biography in terms not only of its forms but also of its functions Although Ann Jefferson's book has powerful theoretical implications for both biography and the literary it is first and foremost a history offering a comprehensive new account of the development of French literature through this dual focus on the question of literature and on the relations between literature and biography It offers original readings of major authors and texts in the light of these concerns beginning with Rousseau and ending with life writing contemporary authors such as Pierre Michon and Jacques Roubaud Other authors discussed include Mme de St el Victor Hugo Sainte Beuve Barbey d Aurevilly Baudelaire Nerval Mallarm Schwob Proust Gide Leiris Sartre Genet Barthes and Roger Laporte and Absence in the Victorian Novel J. Zigarovich, 2012-08-06 This book asks why Bront Dickens and Collins saw the narrative act as a series of textual murders and resurrections Drawing on theorists such as Derrida Blanchot and de Man Zigarovich maintains that narrating death was important to the understanding of absence separation and displacement in an industrial and destabilized culture Modernism Today Sjef Houppermans, Pete Liebregts, Jan Baetens, Otto Boele, 2013-10-25 This book manifests at least four recent shifts and tendencies within Modernist studies in general that point at the expansion of this increasingly interdisciplinary field First Modernist studies has seen a temporal expansion to the extent that scholars in the field have come to turn to both the pre and posterior history of Modernism Second the field has witnessed a spatial expansion in that increasingly so researchers have also come to scrutinize the Modernisms of regions at the fringes of Europe and beyond Thirdly a vertical expansion too has marked Modernist studies in recent decades not only by further expanding the canon of women writers and exploring the continuum between high and lowbrow but also by looking at the artistic and mediatized hierarchies and cross fertilizations operative in the period A fourth conceptual expansion of the field shows that whereas concepts such as middlebrow arri re garde and to some extent even avant garde were once exotic notions of at best marginal importance in European Modernist studies they now form part and parcel of the field complicating and expanding it Truth's Ragged Edge Philip F. Gura, 2013-04-09 A history of the early American novel focusing on its origins conceptually in and relationship with American religion Provided by publisher The United Stories of America Rolf Lundén, 2022-06-08 This book discusses the American short story composite or short story cycle a neglected form of writing consisting of autonomous stories interlocking into a whole The critical work done on this genre has so far focused on the closural strategies of the composites on how unity is accomplished in these texts This study takes into consideration to a greater degree than earlier criticism the short story composite as an open work emphasizing the tension between the independent stories and the unified work between the discontinuity and fragmentation on the one hand and the totalizing strategies on the other The discussion of the genre is illustrated with references to numerous American short story A Novel in a Year Louise Doughty, 2008-09-04 Can you write a novel in a year If you simply sit back and composites think about the enormity of writing a book it will seem like a vast and unconquerable task impossibly daunting The way to make it less daunting is to break it down into its constituent parts to do it bit by bit Over the chapters herein different aspects of technique are divided up into bite size chunks the better to aid digestion. The book will look at different aspects of writing with set exercises to help the reader along in their confidence and technique It is designed to be read a chapter a week with the aim of the fledgling writer having a body of material at the year's end which should form a solid start to their novel Deeply practical with sound advice at every stage A NOVEL IN A YEAR is essential reading for any would be novelist

Beyond the Happy Ending Kathryn Robson, 2025-02-04 Happiness and the question of how to define measure and facilitate it has become a key theme in political economic and social discourses in recent decades in France and elsewhere yet research on happiness in French culture and film has been limited Given that happiness is clearly gendered this book looks critically at the ways in which contemporary French women s writing and film give voice to and critique conceptions of happiness Analysing French and francophone women s writing including Nina Bouraoui H l ne Cixous Annie Ernaux Camille Laurens Le la Slimani Delphine de Vigan and film including Claire Denis C line Sciamma and Agn s Varda I focus on five main areas images of happiness in consumer and Internet culture happiness and intimacy in the family and the home queering happiness migrated happiness and happiness and ageing Whilst the happiness turn is problematic the desire for happiness

however fraught matters and I show how representations of happiness in contemporary French women s writing and film offer alternative conceptions of happiness that enable us to rethink happiness in more critical diverse and inclusive terms  $\underline{\text{Select Novels}}$ , 1865
