Hall, 1992 This volume is an account of the development and destruction of slavery in St Thomas St John and St Croix the Caribbean islands which today comprise the US Virgin Islands The book sees slavery as fundamental to the entire fabric of colonial society and pays particular attention to the social and political life of the whites and freedmen in interaction with the slaves Slavery in Early Mediaeval England David Anthony Edgell Pelteret, 2001 This important study seeks to assemble the evidence drawn from a variety of sources in Old English and Latin to convey a picture of slaves and slavery in England viewed against the background of English society as a whole At last a major topic in early medieval English history has found its author who deals with it comprehensively and systematically ECONOMIC HISTORY REVIEW A landmark teatment immensely enriches the debate about early medieval working classes SPECULUM Slaves were part of the fabric of English society throughout the Anglo Saxon era and the twelfth century but as the base of the social pyramid they have left no known written records there are however extensive references to them throughout the documents and writings of the period This important study seeks to assemble the evidence drawn from a variety of sources in Old English and Latin to convey a picture of slaves and slavery in England viewed against the background of English society as a whole An extensive appendix on the vernacular terminology of slavery reveals the concepts of enslavement to be embedded in the religious imagery of the period DAVID PELTERET is Senior Research Fellow Department of History King's College London Incarceration and Slavery in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, 2021-10-19 People in the Middle Ages and the early modern age more often suffered from imprisonment and enslavement than we might have assumed Incarceration and Slavery in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Age approaches these topics from a wide variety of perspectives and demonstrates collectively the great relevance of the issues involved Both incarceration and slavery were and continue to be most painful experiences and no one was guaranteed exemption from it High ranking nobles and royalties were often the victims of imprisonment and at times had to wait many years until their ransom was paid Similarly slavery existed throughout Christian Europe and in the Arab world However while imprisonment occasionally proved to be the catalyst for major writings and creativity slaves in the Ottoman empire and in Egypt succeeded in rising to the highest position in society Janissaries Mamluks and others The Cambridge World History of Slavery: Volume 2, AD 500-AD 1420 Craig Perry, David Eltis, Stanley L. Engerman, David Richardson, 2021-08-12 Medieval slavery has received little attention relative to slavery in ancient Greece and Rome and in the early modern Atlantic world This imbalance in the scholarship has led many to assume that slavery was of minor importance in the Middle Ages In fact the practice of slavery continued unabated across the globe throughout the medieval millennium This volume the final volume in The Cambridge World History of Slavery covers the period between the fall of Rome and the rise of the transatlantic plantation complexes by assembling twenty three original essays written by scholars acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields The volume demonstrates the continual and central presence of slavery in societies worldwide between 500 CE and 1420 CE The essays analyze key concepts in the history of slavery including gender trade empire state formation and diplomacy labor childhood social status and mobility cultural attitudes spectrums of dependency and coercion and life histories of enslaved people Castration and Culture in the Middle Ages Larissa Tracy, 2013 Essays exploring medieval castration as reflected in archaeology law historical record and literary motifs Castration and castrati have always been facets of western culture from myth and legend to law and theology from eunuchs guarding harems to the seventeenth and eighteenth century castrati singers Metaphoric castration pervades a number of medieval literary genres particularly the Old French fabliaux exchanges of power predicated upon the exchange or absence of sexual desire signified by genitalia but the plain literal act of castration and its implications are often overlooked This collection explores this often taboo subject and its implications for cultural mores and custom in Western Europe seeking to demystify and demythologize castration Its subjects include archaeological studies of eunuchs historical accounts of castration in trials of combat the mutilation of political rivals in medieval Wales Anglo Saxon and Frisian legal and literary examples of castration as punishment castration

as comedy in the Old French fabliaux the prohibition against genital mutilation in hagiography and early modern anxieties about punitive castration enacted on the Elizabethan stage The introduction reflects on these topics in the context of arguably the most well known victim of castration in the middle ages Abelard LARISSA TRACY is Associate Professor of Medieval Literature at Longwood University Contributors Larissa Tracy Kathryn Reusch Shaun Tougher Jack Collins Rolf H Bremmer Jr Jay Paul Gates Charlene M Eska Mary A Valante Anthony Adams Mary E Leech Jed Chandler Ellen Lorraine Friedrich Robert L A Clark Karin Sellberg Lena W nggren Scandinavia in the Age of Vikings Jon Vidar Sigurdsson, 2022-03-15 In Scandinavia in the Age of Vikings Jon Vidar Sigurdsson returns to the Viking homeland Scandinavia highlighting such key aspects of Viking life as power and politics social and kinship networks gifts and feasting religious beliefs women's roles social classes and the Viking economy which included farming iron mining and metalworking and trade Drawing of the latest archeological research and on literary sources namely the sagas Sigurdsson depicts a complex and surprisingly peaceful society that belies the popular image of Norsemen as bloodthirsty barbarians Instead Vikings often acted out power struggles symbolically with local chieftains competing with each other through displays of wealth in the form of great feasts and gifts rather than arms At home conspicuous consumption was a Viking leader's most important virtue the brutality associated with them was largely wreaked abroad Sigurdsson's engaging history of the Vikings at home begins by highlighting political developments in the region detailing how Danish kings assumed ascendancy over the region and the ways in which Viking friendship reinforced regional peace Scandinavia in the Age of Vikings then discusses the importance of religion first pagan and beginning around 1000 A D Christianity the central role that women played in politics and war and how the enormous wealth brought back to Scandinavia affected the social fabric shedding new light on Viking society

Freedom, Imprisonment, and Slavery in the Pre-Modern World Albrecht Classen, 2021-04-19 Contrary to common assumptions medieval and early modern writers and poets often addressed the high value of freedom whether we think of such fable authors as Marie de France or Ulrich Bonerius Similarly medieval history knows of numerous struggles by various peoples to maintain their own freedom or political independence Nevertheless as this study illustrates throughout the pre modern period the loss of freedom could happen quite easily affecting high and low including kings and princes and there are many literary texts and historical documents that address the problems of imprisonment and even enslavement Georgius of Hungary Johann Schiltberger Hans Ulrich Krafft etc Simultaneously philosophers and theologians discussed intensively the fundamental question regarding free will e g Augustine and political freedom e g John of Salisbury Moreover quite a large number of major pre modern poets spent a long time in prison where they composed some of their major works Boethius Marco Polo Charles d Orlans Thomas Malory etc This book brings to light a vast range of relevant sources that confirm the existence of this fundamental and impactful discourse on freedom imprisonment and enslavement Prof Albrecht Classen is the joint winner of The Literary Encyclopedia book prize for 2023 Literatures written in languages other than English for this
