Minturn,2015-07-11 Excerpt from The American Spirit I have been asked why I left a comfortable home and a good business at the age of fifty six to accept a commission as second lieutenant when the war broke out while boys half my age were going as first lieutenants and captains and why after being honorably discharged from an officers training camp for over age I went to so much trouble to get back in again If papa had to go it would be different one of my married daughters remarked somewhat disgustedly The leading question in a popular army song is Why she done it I haven t stopped before to consider my answer but as I have in mind to put the whole story on paper before it fades from memory let me begin far enough back to get a good running jump at the solution Family tradition and ideals do much to influence those who happen to know about them in fact the influence of an ideal is the greatest human incentive Descendants of the Puritans who first set foot on Plymouth Rock The honor and chief burden yours that Doors of Freedom still unlock For several years before the memorable summer of 1914 I had interested myself as a diversion in working out the genealogy of our family On mother s side we were Puritans descended from John Howland and Elizabeth Tillie who came over in the Mayflower in 1620 I had helped to organize an Indiana Mayflower Society and as its historian read much about the trials and triumphs of that first New England colony whose great work has so influenced the highest ideals of the world They gave us Liberty of Speech and right to publish as we thought Implanting rev rence for a God in worship as our conscience taught About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections

The American Spirit Franklin K. Lane, 2018-01-17 Excerpt from The American Spirit Addresses in War Time Our pride is that America is playing a noble part in the life of the world Not a little selfish shrewd part nor even a strong and ambitious part but a high minded generous a noble part Our one fixed doctrine of international policy is founded in a fine chivalry and all the resources of this conquered continent are the common property of all peoples Indeed it is not going beyond the truth to say that When we look deeply into the American heart we Will surely and always find a living and growing sense of trusteeship underlying our rights of possession We see superficialities Which make for doubt sometimes We swing off into eddies and by currents and are led to believe that the main stream is a myth that after all this is a world for getting and getting any way one can for doing and doing what at the time is profit able But this is a humor of growth The mood does not last About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve
