Gunsmoke Over the Atlantic Jack Coombe,2008-12-18 On April 12 1861 the Civil War began when shots were fired on an unfinished fort in Charleston Harbor From that thunderous opening salvo the naval battles to control the Atlantic coast that followed daring savage and often deadly were not only crucial in determining the outcome of the war and the fate of a nation but would change the face of naval warfare forever GUNSMOKE

OVER THE ATLANTIC Historian Jack D Coombe author of the critically acclaimed Thunder Along the Mississippi and Gunfire Around the Gulf combines brilliant research with a novelist's flair for re-creation to put us directly into the action of the Civil War on river on shore and at sea In this vivid account we experience the soul gnawing terror of a bombardment the claustrophobic confines of a still unproven submarine and the smoke choked chaos of a harbor in the grips of a full bore naval engagement between two desperate enemies Coombe focuses on the Civil War as it was fought along the Atlantic coast a fierce contest of blockaders and blockade runners ironclads wood hulled battleships land cannon submarines and the first underwater antiship weapons For the North the challenge was to implement a blockade over 3 500 miles of Confederate coastline from Virginia to Texas To do so they would have to modernize an ineffective and outdated U S Navy fallen into incompetence and disrepair For the South the challenge was to create a fledgling navy from whatever meager resources were at hand The Confederacy patched together a navy of river runners and converted battleships turned cornfields into shipyards and put the first ironclad battleship into action And it was the South that introduced the new concept of underwater weaponry sending spar torpedoes mines submarines and a few incredibly brave men willing to deploy them into battle against the North Gunsmoke over the Atlantic chronicles the key engagements from the Monitor and the Virginia dueling at Hampton Roads to the ill fated campaign against Fort Fisher Along the way we meet a remarkable cast of naval strategists and warriors on both sides of the battle witness the crucial often deadly role played by the weather and the sea itself and get a vivid view of such important events as the first amphibious landing in history at Cape Hatteras in 1861 An important work for students of the Civil War and of naval history this book fills in missing pieces of America's most tragic war and shows why when the guns finally fell silent a new era had begun Four years after the fall of Fort Sumter a once divided country had the beginnings of the most powerful navy in the world The BFI Companion to the Western British Film Institute,1988 Gunsmoke Mountain Paul Lederer,2014-05-27 Asked to rescue a missing girl a gunman finds trouble everywhere Celia lies in bed when the man comes through her window He whispers instructions and she follows him into the night Has she been kidnapped or did she go of her own accord To Celia's father there is no question that his daughter has been abducted and he offers 800 to anyone who will kill the man who took her His first choice is Dan Featherskill a mysterious drifter with no patience for the law but a deep respect for human life Dan has killed before but is no assassin and the offer of a bounty makes him sick But there are men in this town who see murder as an opportunity When the men sent out after Celia threaten the girl who Dan loves he follows their trail into the foreboding Shadow Mountain Trapped on the mountain by a deadly snowstorm he will have to kill to survive Hollywood Black Donald Bogle,Turner Classic Movies,2019-05-07 The films the stars the filmmakers all get their due in Hollywood Black a sweeping overview of blacks in film from the silent era through Black Panther with striking photos and an engrossing history by award winning author Donald Bogle The story opens in the silent film era when white actors in blackface often played black characters but also saw the rise of independent African American filmmakers including the remarkable Oscar Micheaux It follows the changes in the film industry with the arrival of sound motion pictures and the Great Depression when black performers such as Stepin Fetchit and Bill Bojangles Robinson began finding a place in Hollywood More often than not they were saddled with rigidly stereotyped roles but some gifted performers most notably Hattie McDaniel in Gone With the Wind 1939 were able to turn in significant performances In the coming decades more black talents would light up the screen Dorothy Dandridge became the first African American to earn a Best Actress Oscar nomination for Carmen Jones 1954 and Sidney Poitier broke ground in films like The Defiant Ones and 1963's Lilies of the Field Hollywood Black reveals the changes in images that came about with the evolving social and political atmosphere of the US from the Civil Rights era to the Black Power movement The story takes readers through Blaxploitation with movies like Shaft and Super Fly to the emergence of such stars as Cicely Tyson Richard Pryor Eddie Murphy and Whoopi Goldberg and of directors Spike Lee and John Singleton The history comes into the new millennium with filmmakers Barry Jenkins Moonlight Ava Du Vernay Selma and Ryan Coogler Black Panther megastars such as Denzel Washington Will Smith and Morgan Freeman as well as Halle Berry Angela Bassett Viola Davis and a glorious gallery of others Filled with evocative photographs and stories of stars and filmmakers on set and off Hollywood Black tells an underappreciated history as it's never before been told

Whispers and Shouts Denise Williams, 2019-04-03 Ever wondered what God is up to in your story Me too I write my stories to give you hope that there is more There is a greater story There is someone who sees us and knows our name And believe it or not he who knows us best loves us most and is inviting us into his dance As you read parts of my journey I hope you see God's threads of grace and redemption in your own And who knows maybe you will find yourself on the dance floor as well
