One and Two Kings Volkmar Fritz, 2003 This volume provides a readable introduction to the narrative books of 1 and 2 Kings appropriate for the student pastor and scholar. Fritz combines historical literary and archaeological approaches in an engaging synthesis. River of Fire and Other Stories Chŏnghui O, 2012-07-03 O Chonghui crafts historically rooted yet timeless tales imagining core human experiences from a female point of view. Since her debut in 1968 she has formed a powerful challenge to the patriarchal literary establishment in Korea and her work has invited rich comparisons with the achievements of Joyce Carol Oates, Alice Munro and Virginia Woolf. These nine stories range from O Chonghui's first published work in 1968 to one of her last publications in 1994. Her early stories are compact often chilling accounts of family dysfunction reflecting the decline of traditional agrarian economics and the rise of urban industrial living. Later stories are more expansive weaving eloquent occasionally wistful reflections on lost love and tradition together with provocative explorations of sexuality and gender. O Chonghui makes use of flashbacks, interior monologues and stream of consciousness in her narratives developing themes of abandonment and loneliness in a carefully cultivated dispassionate tone. O Chonghui's narrators stand in for the average individual struggling to cope with emotional rootlessness and a yearning for permanence in family and society. Arguably the first female Korean fiction writer to follow Woolf's dictum to do away with the egoless self-sacrificing angel in the house, O Chonghui is a crucial figure in the history of modern Korean literature, one of the most astute observers of Korean society and the place of tradition within it.
