Stanton, 2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions Key Features Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods prehistory to 1250 1250 to 1920 and 1920 to the present One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia and a final volume to West Central and South Asia The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region Key Themes Arts Culture and Science People Society and Dynasties Religion and Law Family and Daily Life Conflicts and Wars Politics and Government Health and Education Economy Trade and Industry National Geography and History The international politics of the Middle East

Raymond Hinnebusch,2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This text aims to fill a gap in the field of Middle Eastern political studies by combining international relations theory with concrete case studies It begins with an overview of the rules and features of the Middle East regional system the arena in which the local states including Egypt Turkey Iran Israel and the Arab states of Syria Jordan and Iraq operate The book goes on to analyse foreign policy making in key states illustrating how systemic determinants constrain this policy making and how these constraints are dealt with in distinctive ways depending on the particular domestic features of the individual states Finally it goes on to look at the outcomes of state policies by examining several major conflicts including the Arab Israeli conflict and the Gulf War and the system of regional alignment The study assesses the impact of international penetration in the region including the historic reasons behind the formation of the regional state system It also analyses the continued role of external great powers such as the United States and the former Soviet Union and explains the process by which the region has become incorporated into the global capitalist market Civilians in a World at War, 1914-1918

Tammy M. Proctor,2010-08-30 This work explores the different ways civilians work and function in a war situation and broadens our understanding of the civilian to encompass munitions workers nurses laundresses refugees aid workers and children who lived and worked in occupied zones on home and battle fronts and in the spaces in between Global in scope spanning the Eastern Western Italian East African and Mediterranean fronts the author examines in detail the role of experts in the war the use of forced labor and the experiences of children in the combatant countries As in many wars civilians on both sides of WWI were affected and vast displacements of the populations shaped the contemporary world in countless ways redrawing boundaries and creating or reviving lines of ethnic conflict The International Politics of the Persian Gulf

Arshin Adib-Moghaddam,2006-09-27 Provocatively written persuasively researched and conclusively argued Adib Moghaddam presents the first comprehensive analysis of international relations in the Gulf from a multidisciplinary perspective Shattered Dreams of Revolution Bedross Der Matossian,2023-05-25 A study of the 1908 Young Turk

Revolution from the perspectives of Arabs Armenians and Jews The Ottoman revolution of 1908 is a study in contradictions a positive manifestation of modernity intended to reinstate constitutional rule yet ultimately a negative event that shook the fundamental structures of the empire opening up ethnic religious and political conflicts Shattered Dreams of Revolution considers this revolutionary event to tell the stories of three important groups Arabs Armenians and Jews The revolution raised these groups expectations for new opportunities of inclusion and citizenship But as post revolutionary festivities ended these euphoric feelings soon turned to pessimism and a dramatic rise in ethnic tensions The undoing of the revolutionary dreams could be found in the very foundations of the revolution itself Inherent ambiguities and contradictions in the revolution s goals and the reluctance of both the authors of the revolution and the empire s ethnic groups to come to a compromise regarding the new political framework of the empire ultimately proved untenable The revolutionaries had never been wholeheartedly committed to constitutionalism thus constitutionalism failed to create a new understanding of Ottoman citizenship grant equal rights to all citizens and bring them under one roof in a legislative assembly Today as the Middle East experiences another set of revolutions these early lessons of the Ottoman Empire of unfulfilled expectations and ensuing discontent still provide important insights into the contradictions of hope and disillusion seemingly inherent in revolution

Praise for Shattered Dreams of Revolution The sad fate of revolutions from moments of euphoria and hope through the descent into authoritarianism has seldom been told as persuasively as in this unique book Bedross Der Matossian offers the stories of three peoples Armenians Arabs and Jews who greeted the 1908 Young Turk revolution with joy and optimism only to find their expectations of liberation and modernity quickly turn into disillusion and brutal bloodletting Ronald Grigor Suny The University of Michigan Bedross Der Matossian explains with new historical evidence why and how the Young Turk revolution ultimately failed to attract Armenians Jews and Arabs to its cause He makes a genuine contribution to our understanding of ethno religious conflict and nationalism suggesting interesting parallels with the failings of today's Middle East revolutions Philip S Khoury Massachusetts Institute of Technology A masterly account of the Young Turk Revolution Few scholars have devised such a stimulating and a multivocal framework for understanding the post 1908 realities that shaped the last Ottoman decade Eyal Ginio The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

A Story of Ambivalent Modernization in Bangladesh and West Bengal Pranab Chatterjee, 2010 This book details the evolution of Bengali culture in both Bangladesh and West Bengal since antiquity and argues for its modernization Originally peripheral to Hindu civilization based in North India Bengali culture was subjected to various forms of Sanskritization Centuries of invasions 1204 1757 resulted most notably in the Islamization of Bengal Often there were conflicts between Sanskritization and Islamization Later colonization of Bengal by Britain 1757 led to a process of Anglicization which created a new middle class in Bengal that in turn created a form of elitism among the Bengali Hindu upper caste After British rule ended 1947 Bengali culture lost its elitist status in South Asia and has undergone severe marginalization Political instability and economic insufficiency as reflected by many quantitative and qualitative indicators are common and contribute to pervasive unemployment alienation vigilantism and instability in the entire region A Story of Ambivalent Modernization in Bangladesh and West Bengal is appropriate not only for Bengali intellectuals and scholars but for sociologists political scientists cultural anthropologists historians and others interested in a case study of how and why a given culture becomes derailed from its path toward modernization

Multiculturalism and Minority Rights in the Arab World Will Kymlicka, Eva Pförtl, 2014-03-20 Since the Arab Spring Arab states have become the new front line in the struggle for democratization and for open societies As the experience of other regions has shown one of the most significant challenges facing democratization relates to minority rights This book explores how minority claims are framed and debated in the region and in particular how political actors draw upon re interpret or resist both the new global discourses of minority rights and more local traditions and practices of co existence The contributors examine a range of pre colonial colonial and post colonial factors that shape contemporary minority politics in the Arab world and that encumber the reception of international norms of multiculturalism These factors include the contested legacies of Islamic doctrines of the dhimmi and the Ottoman millet system colonial era divide and rule strategies and post colonial Arab nation building While these legacies complicate struggles for minority rights they do not entail an Arab exceptionalism to global trends to multiculturalism This volume explores a number of openings for new more pluralistic conceptions of nationhood and citizenship and suggests that minority politics at its best can serve as a vehicle for a more general transformative politics supporting a broader culture of democracy and human rights and challenging older authoritarian clientalistic or patriarchal political tendencies The chapters include both broad theoretical and historical perspectives as well as more focused case studies including Western Sahara Morocco Algeria Israel Palestine Sudan United Arab Emirates and Iraq Handbook of Middle East Politics Shahram Akbarzadeh,2023-10-06 This Handbook uses a comprehensive study of political institutions social movements and external pressures to offer nuanced study of politics in the Middle East Foremost scholars on the Middle East examine key themes such as political change regional rivalry and authoritarianism making this collection very timely and relevant as an authoritative source Middle East Report ,1996

Return to Point Zero Murat Somer,2022-07-01 How did the Turkish Kurdish Conflict arise Why have Turks and Kurds failed for so long to solve it How can they solve it today How can social scientists better analyze this and other protracted conflicts and propose better prescriptions for sustainable peace Return to Point Zero develops a novel framework for analyzing the historical structural and contemporary causes of ethnic national conflicts highlighting an understudied dimension politics Murat Somer argues that intramajority group politics rather than majority minority differences better explains ethnic national conflicts Hence the political ideological divisions among Turks are the key to understanding the Turkish Kurdish Conflict though it was nationalism that produced the Kurdish Question during late Ottoman imperial modernization political elite decisions by the Turks created the Kurdish Conflict during the postimperial nation state building Today ideational rigidities reinforce the conflict Analyzing this conflict from premodern times to today Somer emphasizes two distinct periods the formative era of 1918 1926 and the post 2011 reformative period Somer argues that during the formative era political elites inadequately addressed three fundamental dilemmas of security identity and cooperation and includes a discussion of how the legacy of those political elite decisions impacted and framed peace attempts that have failed in the 1990s and 2010s Return to Point Zero develops new concepts to analyze conflicts and concrete conflict resolution proposals

The Nation and Its "new" Women Ellen Fleischmann,2003 Though they are almost completely absent from the historical record Palestinian women were extensively involved in the unfolding national struggle in their country during the British mandate period This history studies the development of the Palestine women s movement between 1920 and 1948

Governments and Politics of the Contemporary Middle East Tareq Y. Ismael, 1970 Palestinian Rituals of Identity Awad Halabi, 2023-01-17 Members of Palestine's Muslim community have long honored al Nabi Musa or the Prophet Moses Since the thirteenth century they have celebrated at a shrine near Jericho believed to be the location of Moses's tomb in the mid nineteenth century they organized a civic festival in Jerusalem to honor this prophet Considered one of the most important occasions for Muslim pilgrims in Palestine the Prophet Moses festival yearly attracted thousands of people who assembled to pray conduct mystical forms of worship and hold folk celebrations Palestinian Rituals of Identity takes an innovative approach to the study of Palestine's modern history by focusing on the Prophet Moses festival from the late Ottoman period through the era of British rule Halabi explores how the festival served as an arena of competing discourses with various social groups attempting to control its symbols Tackling questions about modernity colonialism gender relations and identity Halabi recounts how peasants Bedouins rural women and Sufis sought to influence the festival even as Ottoman authorities British colonists Muslim clerics and Palestinian national leaders did the same Drawing on extensive research in Arabic newspapers and Islamic and colonial archives Halabi reveals how the festival has encapsulated Palestinians responses to modernity colonialism and the nation's growing national identity Political Economy of Power Sharing in Developing Countries Akietuwopiribie Opuene Hart, 2025-08-07 Political Economy of Power Sharing in Developing Countries is an in depth examination of factors that trigger the clamor for power sharing zoning and rotation in mostly developing countries These provocations include geographical ethnic and religious identity factors that can influence the political process in varying degrees from country to country The impact goes a long way in determining the stability and instability of the political process in various countries The reasons for these differences and the impacts are a combination of the endogenous variables in the first instance which are the primary prompters Other elements which are the exogenous factors are secondary prompters When these converge they produce a peculiar impact in a given society based on the characteristic variables and the resulting outcome The new paradigm shifts in the agitation in developing countries is demonstrated by an elitist instrument of marginalization and self aggrandizement The masses are hoodwinked sensitized and manipulated through primal sentiment to support the elites in acquiring political power which in turn enables the acquisition of economic power The Arab World Halim Barakat, 1993-10-14 This wide ranging examination of Arab society and culture offers a unique opportunity to know the Arab world from an Arab point of view Halim Barakat an expatriate Syrian who is both scholar and novelist emphasizes the dynamic changes and diverse patterns that have characterized the Middle East since the mid nineteenth century The Arab world is not one shaped by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities It is a society in a state of becoming and change one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions Arguing from a perspective that is both radical and critical Barakat is committed to the improvement of human conditions in the Arab world

The Post-Colonial State and Civil War in Sudan Noah R.

Bassil,2015-08-25 The humanitarian crisis in Darfur a consequence of the civil war and ongoing violence has attracted significant international media attention Here Noah Bassil offers a re conception of the conflict in Darfur by examining the origins and progression of the conflict through the broader issue of state failure in post colonial Sudan By moving away from a localised view of the conflict Bassil is able to demonstrate the extent to which the breakdown of social relations in Darfur is interconnected with the wider breakdown of Sudanese and post colonial societies offering an examination of the nexus between international national and local forces Through its coherent framework for understanding the causes of the civil war that erupted in the Darfur region in 2003 this book provides a unique examination of the conflict and the wider post colonial situation making it an important contribution to the fields of History International Relations and Peace Studies
