My Quest of the Arab Horse (Classic Reprint) Homer Davenport,2015-08-06 Excerpt from My Quest of the Arab Horse This book has not been written With any idea that it will add to literature Indeed my primary object in going to the Syrian desert was not to see things and then over describe them in a book I had no use for souvenir Spoons or Turkish rugs My purpose was but for one thing and that was to obtain Arab mares and stallions of absolute purity of blood that I could trace as coming from the great Anezeh tribe of Bedouins That was my fixed idea in undertaking the journey I had been deeply interested in the Arab horse for many years before I really knew any thing about them Then When I thought I had begun to acquire some knowledge of the breed I found that I was not learning much Information about them obtainable in this country was confusing alleged authorities contradicted each other in every argument the thing to do it seemed to me was to go myself to the home of the Arab horse and there learn of him from his master the Bedouin About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
