

The image shows the front facade of a large, multi-story building in a Gothic Revival style. The central feature is a large, ornate arched entrance with a dark wooden door. Above the entrance is a large, pointed archway containing a circular window with a five-pointed star design. The facade is made of light-colored stone or brick, with darker stone used for the arches and window frames. There are several windows on each floor, some with decorative tracery. The roof is dark and appears to be made of slate. The sky is a clear, bright blue.
