The Architecture of Paradise William A. McClung, 1983 The Architecture of Paradise William A. McClung, 1983-01-01

W.B. Yeats, Ezra Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise Sean Pryor, 2016-02-24 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor's ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor's discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaic poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature Women, Space and Utopia 1600-1800 Nicole Pohl, 2017-05-15 The first full length study of women's utopian spatial imagination in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries this book explores the sophisticated correlation between identity and social space The investigation is mainly driven by conceptual questions and thus seeks to link theoretical debates about space gender and utopianism to historiographic debates about the gendered social production of space As Pohl's primary aim is to demonstrate how women writers explore the complex gender politics of space specific attention is given to spaces that feature widely in contemporary utopian imagination Arcadia the palace the convent the harem and the country house The early modern writers Lady Mary Wroth and Margaret Cavendish seek to recreate Paradise in their versions of Eden and Jerusalem the one yearns for Arcadia the other for Solomon's Temple Margaret Cavendish and Mary Astell redefine the convent as an emancipatory space dismissing its symbolic meaning as a confining and surveilled architecture The utopia of the country house in the work of Delarivier Manley Sarah Scott and Mary Hamilton will reveal how women writers resignify the traditional metonym of the country estate The study will finish with an investigation of Oriental tales and travel writing by Ellis Cornelia Knight Lady Mary Montagu Elizabeth Craven and Lady Hester Stanhope who unveil the seraglio as a location for a Western specifically masculine discourse on Orientalism despotism and female sexuality and offers their own utopian judgment The Dante Encyclopedia , Architecture and Sacrament David Wang, 2020-03-25 David Wang's Architecture and Sacrament considers architectural theory from a Christian theological perspective specifically the analogy of being analogia entis The book tracks social and cultural reasons why the theological literature tends to be separate from contemporary architecture theory Wang argues that retrieval of the sacramental outlook embedded within the analogy of being which informed centuries of art and architecture in the West can shed light on current architectural issues such as big box stores the environmental crisis and the loss of sense of community The book critiques the materialist basis of current architectural discourse subsumed largely under the banner of critical theory This volume on how European ideas inform architectural theory complements Wang's previous book A Philosophy of Chinese Architecture Past Present Future and will appeal to architecture students and academics as well as those grappling with the philosophical moorings of all built environments

W.B. Yeats, Ezra Pound, and the Poetry of Paradise Dr Sean Pryor, 2013-05-28 Emphasizing the interplay of aesthetic forms and religious modes Sean Pryor's ambitious study takes up the endlessly reiterated longing for paradise that features throughout the works of W B Yeats and Ezra Pound Yeats and Pound define poetry in terms of paradise and paradise in terms of poetry Pryor suggests and these complex interconnections fundamentally shape the development of their art Even as he maps the shared influences and intellectual interests of Yeats and Pound and highlights those moments when their poetic theories converge Pryor's discussion of their poems profound formal and conceptual differences uncovers the distinctive ways each writer imagines the divine the good the beautiful or the satisfaction of desire Throughout his study Pryor argues that Yeats and Pound reconceive the quest for paradise as a quest for a new kind of poetry a journey that Pryor traces by analysing unpublished manuscript drafts and newly published drafts that have received little attention For Yeats and Pound the journey towards a paradisaic poetic becomes a never ending quest at once self defeating and self fulfilling a formulation that has implications not only for the work of these two poets but for the study of modernist literature

Victorian Visions of Suburban Utopia Nathaniel Robert Walker, 2020 A study of British and American Utopian writing of the 1800s in the context of developments in real architectural political and cultural life The book studies utopian visions published in the UK and the USA in the 1800s by writers such as Robert Owen James Silk Buckingham Edward Bellamy and William Morris

Renaissance Architecture Christy Anderson, 2013-02-28 The Renaissance was a diverse phenomenon marked by innovation and economic expansion the rise of powerful rulers religious reforms and social change Encompassing the entire continent Renaissance Architecture examines the rich variety of buildings that emerged during these seminal centuries of European history Although marked by the rise of powerful individuals both patrons and architects the Renaissance was equally a time of growing group identities and communities and architecture provided the public face to these new identities Religious reforms in northern Europe spurred on by Martin Luther rejected traditional church function and decoration and proposed new models Political ambitions required new buildings to satisfy court rituals Territory nature and art intersected to shape new landscapes and building types Classicism came to be the international language of an educated architect and an ambitious patron drawing on the legacy of ancient Rome Yet the richness of the medieval tradition continued to be used throughout Europe often alongside classical buildings Examining each of these areas by turn this book offers a broad cultural history of the period as well as a completely new approach to the history of Renaissance architecture

The work of well known architects such as Michelangelo and Andrea Palladio is examined alongside lesser known though no less innovative designers such as Juan Guas in Portugal and Benedikt Ried in Prague and Eastern Europe Drawing on the latest research it also covers more recent areas of interest such as the story of women as patrons and the emotional effect of Renaissance buildings as well as the impact of architectural publications and travel on the emerging new architectural culture across Europe As such it provides a compelling introduction to the subject for all those interested in the history of architecture society and culture in the Renaissance and European culture in general Geography and Enlightenment

David N. Livingstone, Charles W. J. Withers, 1999-12-15 Geography and Enlightenment explores both the Enlightenment as a geographical phenomenon and the place of geography in the Enlightenment From wide ranging disciplinary and topical perspectives contributors consider the many ways in which the world of the long eighteenth century was brought to view and shaped through map and text exploration and argument within and across spatial and intellectual borders The first set of chapters charts the intellectual and geographical contexts in which Enlightenment ideas began to form including both the sites in which knowledge was created and discussed and the different means used to investigate the globe Detailed explorations of maps created during this period show how these new ways of representing the world and its peoples influenced conceptions of the nature and progress of human societies while studies of the travels of people and ideas reveal the influence of far flung places on Enlightenment science and scientific credibility The final set of chapters emphasizes the role of particular local contexts in Enlightenment thought Contributors are Michael T Bravo Paul Carter Denis Cosgrove Stephen Daniels Matthew Edney Anne Marie Claire Godlewska Peter Gould Michael Heffernan David N Livingstone Dorinda Outram Chris Philo Roy Porter Nicolaas Rupke Susanne Seymour Charles Watkins and Charles W J Withers Dante and the Book of the Cosmos

John G. Demaray, 1987 This is a print on demand publication A History of Heaven Jeffrey Burton Russell, 1999-01-03 Well known for his historical accounts of Satan and hell Jeffrey Burton Russell explores the brighter side of eternity heaven He not only examines concepts found among Jews Greeks and Romans but asks how time passes in eternity The Return of Nature Preston Cohen, Erika Naginski, 2014-07-09 The Return of Nature asks you to critique your conception of nature and your approach to architectural sustainability and green design What do the terms mean Are they de facto design requirements Or are they unintended design replacements The book is divided into five parts giving you multiple viewpoints on the role of the relations between architecture nature technology and culture A detailed case study of a built project concludes each part to help you translate theory into practice This holistic approach will allow you to formulate your own theory and to adjust your practice based on your findings Will you provoke change design architecture that responds to change or both Coedited by an architect and a historian the book features new essays by Robert Levit Catherine Ingraham Sylvia Lavin Barry Bergdoll K Michael Hays Diane Lewis Andrew Payne Mark Jarzombek Jean Francois Chevrier Elizabeth Diller Antoine Picon and Jorge Silvetti Five case studies document the work of MOS

Architects Michael Bell Architecture Steven Holl Architects George L Legendre and Preston Scott Cohen Architectural Involutions Mimi Yiu, 2015-11-15 Taking the reader on an inward journey from fa ades to closets from physical to psychic space Architectural Involutions offers an alternative genealogy of theater by revealing how innovations in architectural writing and practice transformed an early modern sense of interiority As the English house underwent a process of inward folding replacing a logic of central assembly with one of dissemination the subject who negotiated this new scenography became a flashpoint of conflict in both domestic and theatrical arenas The book launches from a matrix of related platforms a term that in early modern usage denoted scaffolds stages and draftsmen s sketches to situate Alberti Shakespeare Jonson and others within a landscape of spatial and visual change Engaging theory with archival findings Mimi Yiu reveals an emergent desire to perform subjectivity to unfold an interior face to an admiring public Those Outside George Aichele, Richard G. Walsh, 2005-11-08 Uses film and literature to engage the biblical texts and demonstrates the ways that the boundaries of canons are artificial and unhelpful Gardens and the Picturesque John Dixon Hunt, 1992 A collection of Hunt s essays many previously unpublished dealing with the ways in which men and women have given meaning to gardens and landscapes especially with the ways in which gardens have represented the world of nature picturesquely

Landscapes of Desire William Alexander McClung, 2002-05-31 An imaginative and provocative interpretation of the meaning of Los Angeles carefully thought out and beautifully written Robert Winter editor of Toward a Simpler Way of Life The Arts and Crafts Architects of California McClung s sharp eye and his ability to be both critic and analyst combine to make this a book of real timeliness It is unusual and it is smart William Deverell author of Railroad Crossing Californians and the Railroad 1850 1910 From Florence to the Heavenly City Claire E. Honess, 2017-07-05 Dante s political thought has long constituted a major area of interest for Dante studies yet the poet s political views have traditionally been considered a self contained area of study and viewed in isolation from the poet s other concerns Consequently the symbolic and poetic values which Dante attaches to political structures have been largely ignored or marginalised by Dante criticism This omission is addressed here by Claire Honess whose study of Dante s poetry of citizenship focuses on more fundamental issues such as the relationship between the individual and the community the question of what it means to be a citizen and above all the way in which notions of cities and citizenship enter the imagery and structure of the Commedia Theorising Literary Islands Ian Kinane, 2016-11-16 Theorising Literary Islands is a literary and cultural study of both how and why the trope of the island functions within contemporary popular Robinsonade narratives It traces the development of Western isomania or our obsession with islands from its origins in Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe right up to contemporary Robinsonade texts focusing predominantly on American and European representations of fictionalized Pacific Island topographies in contemporary literature film television and other media Theorising Literary Islands argues that the ubiquity of island landscapes within the popular imagination belies certain ideological and cultural anxieties and posits that the emergence of a Western popular culture tradition can largely be traced through the development of the Robinsonade genre and through early European and American fascination with the Pacific region The Signifying Power of Pearl Jane Beal, 2016-12-08 This book enhances our understanding of the exquisitely beautiful fourteenth century Middle English dream vision poem Pearl Situating the study in the contexts of medieval literary criticism and contemporary genre theory Beal argues that the poet intended Pearl to be read at four levels of meaning and in four corresponding genres literally an elegy spiritually an allegory morally a consolation and anagogically a revelation The book addresses cruxes and scholarly debates about the poem's genre and meaning including key questions that have been unresolved in Pearl studies for over a century What is the nature of the relationship between the Dreamer and the Maiden What is the significance of allusions to Ovidian love stories and the use of liturgical time in the poem How does avian symbolism like that of the central symbol of the pearl develop transform and add meaning throughout the dream vision What is the nature of God portrayed in the poem and how does the portrayal of the Maiden's intimate relationship to God her spiritual marriage to the Lamb connect to the poet's purpose in writing Noting that the poem is open to many interpretations Beal also considers folktale genre patterns in Pearl including those drawn from parable fable and fairy tale The conclusion considers Pearl in the light of modern psychological theories of grieving and trauma This book makes a compelling case for re-reading Pearl and recognizing the poem's signifying power Given the ongoing possibility of new interpretations it will appeal to those who specialize in Pearl as well as scholars of Middle English Medieval Literature Genre Theory and Literature and Religion
