Chicago,2003 This special issue of Museum Studies explores the broad history and practice of art education at the Art Institute charting the museum s past present and future vision of what museum education can be and do Drawing from a rich trove of archival oral and photographic resources authors offer a lively account of museum education as an evolving profession an outlet for aesthetic and political programs and a crucial element of the Art Institute s public mission from the moment of its founding in 1879 The project sponsored by the Woman s Board of The Art Institute of Chicago to commemorate its fiftieth anniversary also explores that group s signal commitment to education and volunteerism at the museum which has ranged from creating suburban community associations to sponsoring a corps of volunteer docents from establishing a pioneering children s museum to planning celebrations that open the Art Institute s doors to the widest possible public A
