The Art Of Christian Caring:

The Art of Christian Caring Marcus David Bryant,1979 Companions in Hope Robert J. Wicks,Thomas E. Rodgeron,1998 Written as a partial antidote to the isolation and potential alienation of people living in a world that is moving too fast this book adapts insights gleaned from the pastoral counseling profession to help everyday people hone and heighten gifts that can help them reach out to others in a more Christian and transformational form of caring The authors offer concrete means to help readers enhance their talents in the areas of listening being supportive problem solving dealing with crises and knowing when and how to refer in order to equip them as they seek to offer care to others in daily encounters

Christians and the Art of Caring William V. Arnold,Margaret Anne Fohl,1988-01-01 William V Arnold and Margaret Anne Fohl describe Christian caring as a unique form of helping that finds special expression in the church Daily Christians have opportunities to extend care whether it is to a bereaved colleague or a sick friend In simple clear language the authors describe how important it is that everyday women and men share in the ministry of caring and illustrate that this ministry involves skills that can be learned The Caring Church Howard W. Stone, Howard Stone has given a very useful gift to parish ministers and their congregations in this very concise clearly written practical lucidly illustrated book His contribution grows out of the accumulation of practical experience as well as scholarship David K Switzer Journal of Pastoral Care

Training Members of First Christian Church, Harlingen, Texas in the Art of Christian Caring Gerald L. Peters,1982 Christian Care Giving: God's Healing Power Priscilla Jaouni,2021-06-28 Grief and pain is the root source of all that hurts us in life the ill that is our frailty as mortal beings This is disease and sickness in our lives spiritual social physical emotional Christ in us is the root of all that is good in us all that is God given and that enables us to live and grow through life in a healthy way to a healthy end The good that is our soul that we can nurture to maintain God s energizing power within ourselves to create the balance to be healthy God gave us his Son so we could learn this through His life and death In Christ we have the means for health and wellness throughout the seasons of our lives that transcends all understanding The Bible gives it all to us the Creation our corruption the rules and regulations for a healthy balanced life what happens to us when we are good what happens when we are bad The Old Testament tells us of God s character and expectations of us His requirements His disappointments His punishments His presence His Being in our lives His hopes He also gives us the how to do it Still in our human frailty we fail to find or fall short all the time of arriving at His Promised Land In large part because our earthly self denies ourselves the power God has given us to operate live and ultimately die according to His dictum because we cannot place faith in the intangible So God in His love and compassion for us and to remain our strict but kind Father in Heaven sent us His Son to show us how to be human in the sight of God In Christ He gave us the gift of how to achieve the health and wellness that God intends us to enjoy Caring for People from Birth to Death James E Hightower Jr,2013-04-15 Discover the manual that will help you teach ministry students and effectively methodological questions challenges faced in the care of individuals and care in public settings from Islamic Jewish Christian Buddhist and Hindu perspectives this anthology moves the discourse on care and healing into a more adequate theological anthropology than has often undergirded pastoral care and counselling in most Western texts This much needed work will doubtless be crucial for chaplains and other spiritual care providers seeking to offer genuinely interreligious and intercultural care in today s globalized world Emmanuel Y Lartey PhD Charles Howard Candler Professor of Pastoral Theology Spiritual Care Candler School of Theology Emory University GA USA Given the variety of religious expressions in the contemporary world providing interreligious care is a great challenge for caregivers This book contributes to reflection on care and healing from an interreligious perspective by helping us to think about the theme not only from a theoretical approach but also from methodological practical and culturally contextualized points of view that overflow with compassion It is not to be simply read but studied and used as a bedside book by those engaged in the practice of human care Dr Mary Rute Gomes Esperandio Professor and researcher on Spirituality Health in the Post Graduate Program in Bioethics and Post Graduate Program in Theology at the Pontif cia Universidade Cat lica do Paran Brazil Care for the Soul Mark R. McMinn, Timothy R. Phillips, 2001-04-10 Edited by Mark R McMinn and Timothy R Phillips this collection of essays is a multidisciplinary dialogue on the interface between psychology and theology that takes seriously the long rich tradition of soul care in the church The Professionalization of Pastoral Care T. Dale Johnson Jr., 2020-07-21 When the organization and structure of the church in America was altered in the early 1900s to meet modern demands the role of the pastorate became more specialized to adapt to the burdens of the new efficient structure In 1920 Gaines Dobbins utilized the business efficiency model at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary to formulate a distinct ecclesiology Discontent with traditional methods of instruction in theological education Dobbins sought to implement theories and methodologies from modern educationalists He adopted a psychologized educational methodology and utilized the psychology of religion as an empirical measure of the soul human nature and human behavior Use of the social sciences seemed to grant Dobbins as a practitioner academic respectability within the realm of theological education Both the professionalization that resulted from Dobbins s efficiency standards and a working theory of human nature derived from psychological models were synthesized into a specialized system of pastoral care Dobbins followed the new shape of pastoral theology in America adopting Clinical Pastoral Education CPE as the model for pastoral training As a result CPE became an integral part of the curriculum at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for over sixty years and spread to influence many other SBC entities What Is Spiritual Care? Pamela Cooper-White, Claudia Kohli Reichenbach, Emmanuel Y. Lartey, 2025-05-15 What is spiritual care Much has been assumed as an answer to this question within particular professional and religious silos The contributors to this volume offer fresh answers from perspectives of different caregiving professions medicine nursing public health psychology pastoral care and pastoral theology different religious traditions Islam Judaism Christianity and Buddhism and different cultural contexts Certain red threads become apparent the importance of deep listening openness to difference willingness to recognize the importance of spiritual care as practiced in different professions and religions respect for the inherent dignity of every person and support for each individual s unique spiritual journey At the same time the diversity of voices makes clear both by juxtaposition and argumentation that the hegemony of a mid twentieth century white American Protestant tradition of pastoral care is being reevaluated contested expanded and even decolonized as voices formerly from the margins are being brought to the center and the spiritual needs of persons from many different traditions and locations are increasingly being met on their own terms The cumulative impact of this work emphasizes that spiritual care is finally inseparable from larger efforts toward justice and peacemaking This is an invaluable resource for healthcare providers chaplains and pastoral professionals Nursing as Ministry Kristen L. Mauk, Mary Hobus, 2019-10-01 Designed to be a student friendly textbook for faith based schools this first edition text focuses on nursing as ministry not just spiritual care
