man or woman poetic discourse generally takes the form of an interior monologue frequently intermingled with direct and indirect address to the beloved Though the dominant quality of this lyric is personal introspection Michael Giordano finds D lie to be consistent with traditions of Christian meditation He argues that the amatory lyric served as a vehicle for contests of value and paradigm change not only because it was conditioned both by sacred and profane sources but also because it occurred at a time of religious upheaval and scientific revolution The Art of Terrestrial Diagrams in Early China Michelle H. Wang,2023-11-21 This is the first English language monograph on the early history of cartography in China Its chief players are three maps found in tombs that date from the fourth to the second century BCE and together constitute the entire known corpus of ancient Chinese maps ditu A millennium separates them from the next available map from 1136 CE Most scholars study them through the lens of modern empirical definitions of maps and their use This book offers an alternative view by drawing on methods not just from cartography but from art history archaeology and religion It argues that as tomb objects the maps were designed to be simultaneously functional for the living and the dead that each map was drawn to serve navigational purposes of guiding the living from one town to another as well as to diagram ritual order thereby taming the unknown territory of the dead In contrast with traditional scholarship The Art of Terrestrial Diagrams in Early China proposes that ditu can speak through their forms Departing from dominant theories of representation that forge a narrow path from form to meaning the book braids together two main strands of argumentation to explore the multifaceted and multifunctional diagrammatic tradition of rendering space in early China Theological Dictionary of the New Testament Geoffrey William Bromiley,1964 Substantial articles on 2000 Greek words that are theologically significant in the New Testament Traces usage in classical Greek literature the Septuagint intertestamental texts and the New Testament

St. Ignatius Loyola and the Art of Discernment Jim Manney,2015-04-15 What should I do We ask the question when we pray We ask it when we run out of answers to our problems We ask it when we face big decisions We ask it when we get out of bed in the morning How should I live this day as well as I can We can find answers through learning the art of discernment the wisdom that enables us to see and interpret the leading of the Holy Spirit as it is manifested in the inner lives of our hearts The great master of this art was St Ignatius Loyola author of The Spiritual Exercises who believed that the ability to discern the spirits is one of the most important skills a Christian could have Ignatius believed that the answer to the question What Should I Do is found in the shifting sea of feelings insights leadings and intuitions of our affective lives What Do You Really Want shows us how to understand these emotions and use what we learn to make the choices that best serve God and bring his love to the people in our lives It shows the truth of one of Ignatius s greatest insights that when we find what we really want we find what God wants too because the deepest desires of our hearts were placed there by God The Art of Healing: Painting for the Sick and the Sinner in a Medieval Town ,2003
