Boyatzis, Annie McKee, 2002 As business reinvents itself at broadband speed what makes leaders effective has inevitably been transformed Old assumptions and old modes no longer hold a new style of leadership that works has emerged amidst the chaos of change This new leader excels in the art of relationship the singular expertise which the changing business climate renders indispensable Excellence is being defined in interpersonal terms as companies have stripped out layers of managers as corporations merge across national boundaries and as customers and suppliers redefine the web of connection Bestselling author Daniel Goleman argues that emotionally intelligent leaders are now must haves for business today But many readers have been left with So now what do I do The New Leaders answers that question by laying out the map for transforming leadership in individuals in teams and organizations The Art of Leadership Zach Kelehear, 2005-11-15 When we view art understanding comes in part as we engage in reflective practice Here author Zach Kelehear encourages school leaders and teachers to reflect on their own leadership capacities and to develop an art for leading schools Using the language of art criticism and critique with real life examples and case studies he helps readers to identify an eye for leadership with specific discussion in matters of school leadership and instructional supervision Drawing on the arts based research approach Kelehear embraces the language of art critique the elements of art and the principles of design The Art of Leadership Presents original art work from the lithographs of Joseph Norman and provides an example of art criticism from each work Describes a real life case study that involves the element or principle Helps readers connect the art interpretation with the leadership application Readers will gain A deeper appreciation for the critique of art An enlarged view of the art of school leadership and instructional supervision A better understanding of their own leadership art This book should be of interest to students practitioners and artists in K 12 and higher education The Dance of Leadership: The Art of Leading in Business, Government, and Society
