perspectives that have been undervalued in the academy In the first of three sections contributors explore the ways in which Hindu ritual performed in Indian contexts intersects with historical contextual and social change They examine the changing significance and understanding of particular deities the identity and agency of ritual actors and the instrumentality of ritual in new media Essays in the second section examine ritual practices outside of India focusing on evolving ritual claims to authority in mixed cultures such as Malaysia the reshaping of gender dynamics of ritual at an American temple and the democratic reshaping of ritual forms in Canadian Hindu communities The final section considers the implications for ritual studies of the efficacy of bodily acts divorced from intention contemporary spiritual practice as opposed to religious bound ritual and the notion of dharma Based on a conference on Hindu ritual held in 2006 at the University of Pittsburgh Hindu Ritual at the Margins seeks to elucidate the ways ritual actors come to shape ritual practices or conceptions pertaining to ritual and how studying ritual in marginal contexts at points of dynamic tension requires scholars to reshape their understanding of ritual activity
