Afterlife and Resurrection Beliefs in the Apocrypha and Apocalyptic Literature Jan Age Sigvartsen,2019-09-19 Jan A Sigvartsen seeks to examine the immense interest in life after death and speculation about the fates awaiting both the righteous and the wicked that proliferated in the Second Temple period In this volume Sigvartsen explores the Apocrypha and the apocalyptic writings in the Pseudepigrapha He identifies the numerous afterlife and resurrection beliefs and presents an analysis that enables readers to easily understand and compare the wide ranging beliefs regarding the afterlife that these texts hold A careful reading of these resurrection passages including passages appearing in Sirach Maccabees the Sibylline Oracles and the Ezra texts reveals that most of the distinct views on life after death regardless of their complexity show little evidence of systematic development relational to one another and are often supported by several key passages or shared motifs from texts that later became a part of the TaNaKh Sigvartsen also highlights the factors that may have influenced the development of so many different resurrection beliefs including anthropology the nature of the soul the scope of the resurrection the number and function of judgments and the final destination of the righteous and the wicked Sigvartsen s study provides a deeper understanding of how the TaNaKh was read by different communities during this important period and the role it played in the development of the resurrection belief a central article of faith in both Christianity and Rabbinic Judaism The Complete Parallel Bible Oxford University Press,1993 This outstanding Bible presents four of the most highly respected modern language Bible translations arranged side by side on the page for easy comparison the first and only parallel text Bible to include the Apocryphal books in the NAB and NJB as well as the NRSV and REB translations Bonded leather flexible binding ribbon marker 2 piece box

 TREMPER LONGMAN III, PETER ENNS, 2020-05-21

The Old Testament books of wisdom and poetry carry themselves differently from those of the Pentateuch the histories or the prophets The divine voice does not peal from Sinai there are no narratives carried along by prophetic interpretation nor are oracles declaimed by a prophet Here Scripture often speaks in the words of human response to God and God s world The hymns laments and thanksgivings of Israel the dirge of Lamentations the questionings of Qohelet the love poetry of the Song of Songs the bold drama of Job and the proverbial wisdom of Israel all offer their textures to this great body of biblical literature Then too there are the finely crafted stories of Ruth and Esther that narrate the silent providence of God in the course of Israelite and Jewish lives This third Old Testament volume in IVP s celebrated Black Dictionary series offers nearly 150 articles covering all the important aspects of Job Proverbs Ecclesiastes Psalms Song of Songs Lamentations Ruth and Esther Over 90 contributors many of them experts in this literature have contributed to the Dictionary of the Old Testament Wisdom Poetry and Writings This volume maintains the quality of scholarship that students scholars and pastors have come to expect from this series Coverage of each biblical book includes an introduction to the book itself as well as separate articles on their ancient Near Eastern background and their history of interpretation Additional articles amply explore the literary dimensions of Hebrew poetry and prose including acrostic ellipsis inclusio intertextuality parallelism and rhyme And there are well rounded treatments of Israelite wisdom and wisdom literature including wisdom poems sources and theology In addition a wide range of interpretive approaches is canvassed in articles on hermeneutics feminist interpretation form criticism historical criticism rhetorical criticism and social scientific approaches The Dictionary of the Old Testament Wisdom Poetry and Writings is sure to command shelf space within arm s reach of any student teacher or preacher working in this portion of biblical literature
