Alliance of the Colored Peoples Joseph Calvitt Clarke,2011 A detailed examination of Ethiopian Japanese relations from their beginnings in the interwar period through the Italo Ethiopian War of 1935 6 drawing on Japanese Russian Italian French and English sources With the Japanese posing as the leader of the world s colored peoples before World War II many Ethiopians turned to Japan for inspiration By offering them commercial opportunities by seeking their military support and by reaching out to popular Japanese opinion Ethiopians tried to soften the stark reality of a stronger Italy encroaching on their country Europeans feared Japan s growing economic and political influence in the colonial world Jealously guarding its claimed rights in Ethiopia against all comers among Italy's reasons for going to war was the perceived need to blunt Japan's commercial and military advances into Northeast Africa Meanwhile throughout 1934 and the summer of 1935 Moscow worked hard and in ways contrary to its claimed ideological imperatives to make Collective Security work Ethiopia was a small price to pay Italy for cooperation against Nazi Germany in Austria and Imperial Japan in China Yellow Japanese and black Ethiopian collaboration before the war illuminates the pernicious and flexible use of race in international diplomacy In odious terms Italians used race to justify their actions as defending western and white civilization The Japanese used race to explain their tilt toward Ethiopia The Soviets used race to justify their support for Italy until late 1935 Ethiopia used race to attract help and colored peoples worldwide rallied to Ethiopia's call J Calvitt Clarke III is Professor Emeritus of History at Jacksonville University Florida

Understanding Creative Users of ICTs David Kurt Herold, Harmeet Sawhney, Leopoldina Fortunati, 2013-09-13 The disjuncture between the design intent of the developers of ICTs and the needs of the users has often led to surprising use of new technologies as users have refused to become mere agents of the designers Individual users have adopted their own uses of ICTs based on the complex webs of relations and meanings in which they function as social actors Instead of adjusting these webs to new ICTs they have fit the ICTs into their pre existing social webs often resulting in imaginative and creative uses of new technologies not envisaged by the original designers The contributions in this volume provide studies of such integrations of ICTs into the lives of human users and demonstrate that such uses should not be regarded as faulty or mistaken merely because they fail to meet the expectations of the original designers of the ICTs Instead human users should be given precedence over ICTs and the creative uses of universal technologies by individual users should be emphasised and studied so as to move towards a better understanding and appreciation of the integration of ICTs into human lives This book was originally published as special issue of The Information Society Appleton's Magazine ,1908 The Literary Digest ,1893 The Reform Advocate ,1904 Report to Congress of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission,2019 Dawn of a New Era Maurice Ashley,1974 Traces
