The Performance Of Power Theatrical Discourse And Politics:

The Performance of Power Sue-Ellen Case, Janelle G. Reinelt, 1991-05 Recently in the field of theatre studies there has been an increasing amount of debate and dissonance regarding the borders of its territory its methodologies subject matter and scholarly perspectives The nature of this debate could be termed political and in fact concerns the performance of power the struggle over power relations embedded in texts methodologies and the academy itself This striking new collection of nineteen divergent essays represents this performance of power and the way in which the recent convergence of new critical theories with historical studies has politicized the study of the theatre Neither play text performance nor scholarship and teaching can safely reside any longer in the free politically neutral self signifying realm of the aesthetic Politicizing theatrical discourse means that both the hermeneutics and the histories of theatre reveal the role of ideology and power dynamics New strategies and concepts and a vital new phase of awareness appear in these illuminating essays A variety of historical periods from the Renaissance through the Victorian and up to the most contemporary work of the Wooster group illustrate the ways in which contemporary strategies do not require contemporary texts and performances but can combine with historical methods and subjects to produce new theatrical discourse Performance: Media and technology Philip Auslander, 2003

This collection reflects not only the multidisciplinary nature of current thinking about performance but also the complex and contested nature of the concept itself Rowdy Carousals J. Chris Westgate, 2024-07-01 Rowdy Carousals makes important interventions in nineteenth century theatre history with regard to the Bowery Boy a raucous white urban character most famously exemplified by Mose from A Glance at New York in 1848 Theatrical representations of the Bowery Boy emphasized the privileges of whiteness against nonwhite workers including enslaved and free African Americans during the Antebellum Period an articulation of white superiority that continued through the early twentieth century with Jewish Italian and Chinese immigrants The book's examination of working class whiteness on stage in the theatre and in print culture invites theatre historians and critics to check the impulse to downplay or ignore questions about race and ethnicity in discussion of the Bowery Boy J Chris Westgate further explores links between the Bowery Boy's rowdyism in the nineteenth century and the resurgence of white supremacy in the early twenty first century Women Direct Shakespeare in America Nancy Taylor, 2005 This book offers a series of eight case studies of the connection between feminist performance theory and practice considering how women directors of Shakespeare in America have recently interpreted and staged female subjectivity and gender particularly as exhibited in sex relations The work focuses on eight women and choices they made in specific productions Jayme Koszyn's and Lisa Wolpe's Romeo and Juliet Tina Packer's and Ellen O'Brien's Measure for Measure Abigail Adam's and Melia Bensussen's Twelfth Night Barbara Gaines's and JoAnne Akalaitis's Cymbeline Nancy Taylor interviewed all of the directors and the first section of the book includes a brief biography of each institutional opportunities and limitations and the director's views about Shakespeare's depiction of women in general as well as future

Ellen Gainor,2003-09-02 Imperialism is a transnational and transhistorical phenomenon it occurs neither in limited areas nor at one specific moment In cultures from across the world theatrical performance has long been a site for both the representation and support of imperialism and resistance and rebellion against it Imperialism and Theatre is a groundbreaking collection which explores the questions of why and how the theatre was selected within imperial cultures for the representation of the concerns of both the colonizers and the colonized Gathering together fifteen noted scholars and theatre practitioners this collection spans global and historical boundaries and presents a uniquely comprehensive study of post colonial drama The essays engage in current theoretical issues while shifting the focus from the printed text to theatre as a cultural formation and locus of political force A compelling and extremely timely work Imperialism and Theatre reveals fascinating new dimensions to the post colonial debate Contributors Nora Alter Sudipto Chatterjee Mary Karen Dahl Alan Filewood Donald H Frischmann Rhonda Garelick Helen Gilbert Michael Hays Loren Kruger Josephine Lee Robert Eric Livingston Julie S Peters Michael Quinn Edward Said Elaine Savory Ben Jonson Richard Dutton,2014-07-21 Interest in Ben Jonson is higher today than at any time since his death This new collection offers detailed readings of all the major plays Volpone Epicene The Alchemist and Bartholomew Fair and the poems It also provides significant insights into the court masques and the later plays which have only recently been rediscovered as genuinely
