Goldberg, 2017-10-02 At the end of World War II the Allies were unanimous in their determination to disarm the former aggressor Germany As the Cold War intensified however the decision whether to reverse that policy and to rearm West Germany as a bulwark against the Soviet threat led to disagreements both within the US government and among members of the nascent NATO alliance The US military took the practical view that a substantial number of German troops would be required to deter any potential Soviet assault The State Department on the other hand initially advocated an alternative strategy of strengthening European institutions but eventually came around to the military's position that an armed West Germany was preferable to a weak state on the dividing line between the Western democracies and the Soviet satellite states Sheldon A Goldberg traces the military diplomatic and political threads of postwar policy toward West Germany and provides insights into the inner workings of alliance building and the roles of bureaucrats and military officers as well as those of diplomats and statesmen He draws on previously unexamined primary sources to construct a cogent account of the political and diplomatic negotiations that led to West Germany's accession to NATO and the shaping of European order for the next forty years Air University Review, 1980 Regional Cooperation, Organizations and Problems Rudolf Bernhardt, 2014-05-12 Encyclopedia of Public International Law 6 Regional Cooperation Organizations and Problems focuses on regional organizations cooperation and problems including boundary disputes membership and functions of organizations The publication first elaborates on the American Canadian Boundary Disputes and Cooperation American Mexican Boundary Disputes and Cooperation Andean common market League of Arab States and the Association of South east Asian Nations Discussions focus on structure and organization activities evaluation membership functions and establishment objectives and principles The text then examines the Balkan Pact of 1953 1954 Belgium Luxembourg Economic Union Benelux Economic Union and boundary disputes between China and USSR The manuscript considers the boundary disputes in Latin America and Africa Council for Mutual Economic Assistance European Atomic Energy Community European Coal and Steel Community and the European Conference of Postal and Telecommunications Administrations The publication also takes a look at the Economic Community of West African States European Atomic Energy Community and the European Atomic Energy Society The book is a vital source of information for researchers interested in regional organizations cooperation and problems The European Defence Initiative Geoffrey Lee Williams, 1986-06-18 Blue Streak John Boyes, 2019-07-02 In the early 1950s the United States wished to concentrate its defence resources on the development of a 4 000 mile range intercontinental ballistic missile As a stop gap measure US defence chiefs hoped to assist Britain with the development of its own intermediate range missile Despite US concerns that British resources were limited the Air Ministry nonetheless proceeded with the missile called Blue Streak to fulfil the operational requirement which would give Britain an independent deterrent which should remain

invulnerable until the early 1970s Blue Streak Britain's Medium Range Ballistic Missile traces the path from the political decision to issue the contracts through the early development and testing both in the UK and in Australia The reasons for the project's cancellation are considered and Blue Streak's subsequent role as the first stage of the ELDO civilian satellite launcher is noted A requirement of the project was the need to base the missiles in underground launchers to protect them from attack This aspect of the project is fully covered using recently available information and specially drawn plans Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1980 NATO, 1979 Labour's Decline and the Social Democrats' Fall Geoffrey Lee Williams, 1989-06-01 This book traces the decline of the Labour Party's popularity and the development of the Social Democratic party The authors have also written Crisis in European Defence and The European Defence Initiative Europe's Bid for Equality The Entangling Alliance Ronald Powaski, 1994-05-30 In an earlier study Toward an Entangling Alliance American Isolationism Internationalism and Europe 1901-1950 Powaski described the events factors and personalities that contributed to the American decision to abandon a century and a half old isolationist tradition and join an entangling alliance with European nations This study is a continuation of the story of America's involvement in Europe's security affairs since 1950 In it Powaski explains why America expanded its military commitment to Europe including the stationing of U S combat forces both nuclear and conventional on the continent and why the U S military presence in Europe is now declining In addition Powaski describes the issues and personalities that have divided as well as united the United States and its European allies and why despite these disagreements America's involvement in the entangling alliance is likely to endure Socialist Commentary, 1978 Race and Residence in American Cities Wade Clark Roof, 1979
