Boas,1922 Includes chapters on Athapascan Tlingit Haida Tsimshian Kwakiutl Eskimo and Chukchee AB1739 The Librarian of Auschwitz Antonio Iturbe,2017-10-10 Based on the experience of real life Auschwitz prisoner Dita Kraus this is the incredible story of a girl who risked her life to keep the magic of books alive during the Holocaust Fourteen year old Dita is one of the many imprisoned by the Nazis at Auschwitz Taken along with her mother and father from the Terezin ghetto in Prague Dita is adjusting to the constant terror that is life in the camp When Jewish leader Freddy Hirsch asks Dita to take charge of the eight precious volumes the prisoners have managed to sneak past the guards she agrees And so Dita becomes the librarian of Auschwitz Out of one of the darkest chapters of human history comes this extraordinary story of courage and hope This title has Common Core connections Godwin Books Explorations and Field-work of the Smithsonian Institution in 1914 (with One Plate). Smithsonian Institution,1915 A Widow for One Year John Irving,2012-05-08 One night when she was four and sleeping in the bottom bunk of her bunk bed Ruth Cole woke to the sound of lovemaking it was coming from her parents bedroom This sentence opens John Irving's ninth novel A Widow for One Year a story of a family marked by tragedy Ruth Cole is a complex often self contradictory character a difficult woman By no means is she conventionally nice but she will never be forgotten Ruth's story is told in three parts each focusing on a critical time in her life When we first meet her on Long Island in the summer of 1958 Ruth is only four The second window into Ruth's life opens on the fall of 1990 when she is an unmarried woman whose personal life is not nearly as successful as her literary career She distrusts her judgment in men for good reason A Widow for One Year closes in the autumn of 1995 when Ruth Cole is a forty one year old widow and mother She's about to fall in love for the first time Richly comic as well as deeply disturbing A Widow for One Year is a multilayered love story of astonishing emotional force Both ribald and erotic it is also a brilliant novel about the passage of time and the relentlessness of grief Learning to Love and Loving to Learn Emmelienne

Schreiner,2018-03-12 Dr Schreiner's book Learning to Love and Loving to Learn is a breakthrough study dealing with relationships in the family the immediate family and the extended family She teaches the need for a strong spiritual value system as the basis for learning to love and loving to learn Dr Schreiner touches on such subjects as appropriate discipline positive encouragement helping children to reach their full potential and how to make learning an exciting adventure for all ages She deals with relevant problems of the twenty first century including such issues as addictions codependency and the trap of instant gratification She stresses the need for families to develop self control and to set realistic limits She teaches parents how to develop problem solving skills in their children so they can live more effectively in our troubled times The book opens the door for learning to be an exciting adventure as readers learn to love and to love learning Spiritual growth comes from gaining new information and insight and using that knowledge in your everyday life The author describes the spiritual principles that bring families closer as they learn about themselves and parents free themselves from effects of having been raised in an addictive incestuous or otherwise dysfunctional family Examples of how children and adults of all ages learn are included in every chapter The workbook included at the end of the book will help readers to identify the effects their parents words and methods of disciplining and showing love has had on their own self concept and automatic behaviors Automatic behaviors are emotional and sometimes physical responses to situations and events that arise because the event unconsciously reminds the reader of a similar childhood happening Sometimes automatic behaviors are positive and sometimes negative and unwanted The workbook will help readers to look at and edit the source of their automatic behaviors thereby enabling them to change their undesirable responses Germinal Émile Zola,1914 Morning and

Evening Meditations from the Word of God Michael J. Akers,2014-03-18 There are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them This book is different in two respects The first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all The second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging Most of these writings were based on author Michael J Akers s teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God Cry And Dedication Carlos Bulosan,1995-05-04

This previously unpublished novel by the author of America Is in the Heart dramatizes the resourcefulness cunning and pain of the Filipino peasants struggle against a heritage of colonization first by Spain and later by the United States Set during the political upheavals of the 1940s and 1950s seven underground rebels old and young male and female intellectual and peasant set off across the Philippine countryside fueled by their outrage over continued U S domination They combat both internal foes from their past memories and experiences and visible enemies who view their clandestine work as a destructive force of communism As they confront danger and face physical and emotional sacrifices along the way their sense of mission conveys a profound vision of democracy and self determination Bulosan s exceptional narrative at once an allegorical and a psychological critique of the West s racism and delusion of supremacy portrays an armed rebellion that can represent many Third World peoples Literary and political Bulosan s work embodies his personal dream of equality and freedom When asked what impelled him to write Bulosan replied To give literate voices to the voiceless to translate the desires and aspirations of the whole Filipino people in the Philippines and abroad in terms relevant to contemporary history Author note Born in 1911 in the Philippines to a peasant family Carlos Bulosan was one of the first wave of Filipino immigrants to come to the United States in the 1930s After several arduous years as a farmworker in California Bulosan became involved with radical intellectuals and started editing the workers magazine The New Tide While hospitalized for three years for tuberculosis and kidney problems Bulosan began writing poetry and short stories Despite having little formal education he saw his talent for writing as a means to give a voice to Filipino struggles both in the Philippines and in the United States He went on to publish three volumes of poetry a best selling collection of stories The Laughter of My Father and America Is in the Heart the much acclaimed chronicle based on his family s battle to overcome poverty violence and racism in the United States The Cry and the Dedication carries on Bulosan s passionate satirical style P E San Juan Jr is Fellow of the Center for the Humanities and Visiting Professor of English Wesleyan University and Director of the Philippines Cultural Studies Center He was recently chair of the Department of Comparative American Cultures Washington University and Professor of Ethnic Studies at Bowling Green State University Ohio He received the 1999 Centennial Award for Literature from the Philippines Cultural Center His most recent books are Beyond Postcolonial Theory From Exile to Diaspora After Postcolonialism and Racism and Cultural Studies Blue Shaman Hugh Malafry,2009-09 Caverns of Ormolac is volume two of the Blue Shaman Trilogy
