Anna Zechenter, 1995 Framing the Polish Home Bożena Shallcross, 2002-12-31 As the subject of ideological aesthetic and existential manipulations the Polish home and its representation is an ever changing phenomenon that absorbs new tendencies and at the same time retains its centrality to Polish literature whether written in Poland or abroad Framing the Polish Home is a pioneering work that explores the idea of home as fundamental to the question of cultural and national identity within Poland's recent history and its tradition In this inaugural volume of the Polish and Polish American Studies Series the Polish home emerges in its rich verbal and visual representations and multiple material embodiments as the discussion moves from the loss of the home during wartime to the Sovietized politics of housing and from the exilic strategies of having a home to the idyllic evocation of the abodes of the past Although as Bożena Shallcross notes in her introduction few concepts seem to have such universal appeal as the notion of the home this area of study is still seriously underdeveloped In essays from sixteen scholars Framing the Polish Home takes a significant step to correct that oversight covering a broad range of issues pertinent to the discourse on the home and demonstrating the complexity of the home in Polish literature and culture Mapping Warsaw Ewa Wampuszyc, 2018-10-15 Inspired by the spatial turn in the humanities and social sciences Mapping Warsaw is an interdisciplinary study that combines urban studies cinema studies cultural studies history literature and photography It examines Warsaw's post World War II reconstruction through images and language Juxtaposing close readings of photo books socialist era newsreels called the Polska Kronika Filmowa the comedies of Leonard Buczkowski and Jan Fethke the writing and films of Tadeusz Konwicki and a case study on the Palace of Culture and Science a gift from none other than Stalin this study investigates the rhetorical and visual rather than physical reconstruction of Warsaw in various medias and genres Ewa Wampuszyc roots her analysis in the historical context of the postwar decade and shows how and why Poland's capital became an essential part of a propaganda program inspired by communist ideology and the needs of a newly established socialist People's Republic Mapping Warsaw demonstrates how physical space manifests itself in culture and how culture history and politics leave an indelible mark on places It points out ways in which we take for granted our perception of space and the meanings we assign to it Europe Since 1945 Bernard A.
