Knowledge Production in the Arab World Sari Hanafi, Rigas Arvanitis, 2015-12-22 Over recent decades we have witnessed the globalization of research However this has yet to translate into a worldwide scientific network across which competencies and resources can flow freely Arab countries have strived to join this globalized world and become a knowledge economy yet little time has been invested in the region's fragmented scientific institutions institutions that should provide opportunities for individuals to step out on the global stage Knowledge Production in the Arab World investigates research practices in the Arab world using multiple case studies from the region with particular focus on Lebanon and Jordan It depicts the Janus like face of Arab research poised between the negative and the positive and faced with two potentially opposing strands local relevance alongside its internationalization The book critically assesses the role and dynamics of research and poses questions that are crucial to further our understanding of the very particular case of knowledge production in the Arab region The book explores research's relevance and whom it serves as well as the methodological flaws behind academic rankings and the meaning and application of key concepts such as knowledge society economy Providing a detailed and comprehensive examination of knowledge production in the Arab world this book is of interest to students scholars and policy makers working on the issues of research practices and status of science in contemporary developing countries

Language Education Policy: The Arab Minority in Israel M. Amara, Abd Al-Rahman Mar'i, 2005-12-11 In this book we will explore in more detail some aspects of the Arab Jewish divide which raise fundamental questions regarding the place of the Arabs and Arab language education in the Jewish State More specifically the aim of this book is to describe and analyze language education in the Arab society in Israel from the establishment of the state in 1948 until today For this purpose internal processes which are embedded within the Arab population itself were examined such as the socio economic condition of the population the diglossic situation in the Arabic language and the wide use of Hebrew among Arabic speakers Furthermore the book also deals with external processes such as the policy of control and inspection of the Ministry of Education over the Arab education system in general and on language education in particular the dominance of Hebrew and the definition and perception of Israel as a Jewish State The influence of both internal and external processes on language education and learning achievements will also be extensively discussed

Nazi Germany and the Arab World Francis R. Nicosia, 2015 This book investigates the intent and policy of Nazi Germany in the Arab world from 1933 to 1944 It analyzes Germany's support for continued European domination of the Arab states of North Africa and the Middle East and Germany's rejection of truly sovereign Arab states in those regions

Nazi Propaganda for the Arab World Jeffrey Herf, 2009-11-30 Jeffrey Herf a leading scholar in the field offers the most extensive examination to date of Nazi propaganda activities targeting Arabs and Muslims in the Middle East during World War II and the Holocaust He draws extensively on previously unused and little known archival resources including the shocking transcriptions of the Axis Broadcasts in Arabic radio programs which convey a strongly anti Semitic message Herf explores the intellectual political and cultural context in which German and European radical anti Semitism was found to resonate with similar views rooted in a selective appropriation of the traditions of Islam Pro Nazi Arab exiles in wartime Berlin including Haj el Hussein and Rashid el Kilani collaborated with the Nazis in constructing their Middle East propaganda campaign By integrating the political and military history of the war in the Middle East with the intellectual and cultural dimensions of the propagandistic diffusion of Nazi ideology Herf offers the most thorough examination to date of this important chapter in the history of World War II Importantly he also shows how the anti Semitism promoted by the Nazi propaganda effort contributed to the anti Semitism exhibited by adherents of radical forms of Islam in the Middle East today

Nasir, 1979 Britain and the Arab Middle East Robert H. Lieshout, 2016-07-25 The profound effects of the British Empire s actions in the Arab World during the First World War can be seen echoing through the history of the 20th century The uprising sparked by the Husayn McMahon correspondence and led by Lawrence of Arabia the Sykes Picot agreement which undermined that rebellion and memoranda such as the Balfour Declaration all have shaped the Middle East into forms which would have been unrecognizable to the diplomats of the 19th century Undertaken during the First World War these actions were not part of a coordinated British strategy but in fact directed by several overlapping and competing departments some imperfectly referred to as the Arab Bureau The British and the Middle East is unique in its comprehensive treatment of how and why the British generals and diplomats acted as they did By taking as his starting point the voluminous contradictory and revealing records of the policy makers in the British government Robert H Lieshout shows convincingly that many concerned with foreign policy making were quite oblivious to the history and complexities of the Islamic World Covering the full sweep of British involvement in Arabia Lieshout makes a lasting contribution to our understanding of the period in which the British Empire changed the world and shows how shallow and confused the understanding of those that shaped the future of the Middle East really was Who's Who in the Arab World 2007-2008 Publitec
