The Art of Ancient Mesopotamia William Rowbotham, 1987 The Art of Ancient Mesopotamia Anton Moortgat, 1969 Colour in Sculpture Hannelore Hägele, 2013-09-11 This book introduces the reader to the art of sculpture across five millennia up to the present and from the Near East to the west In each of the eleven chapters a number of selected works are discussed to exemplify the circumstances and conditions for making pieces of sculpture objects peculiar to place time and context Within each cultural framework characteristics are observable that suggest various reasons for the use of colour in sculpture These encompass local preferences customs or cultural requirements and others point to an impulse to enhance the expression of the phenomenal Whether colour is really necessary or even essential to sculpted works of art is a question especially pertinent since the Renaissance Surface finishes of sculptural representations may allude to the sensory world of colour without even having pigment applied to them What makes polychromy so special is that it functions as an overlay of another dimension that sometimes carries further encoded meaning In nature the colour is integral to the given object What the present survey suggests is that the relationship between colour and sculpture is a matter of intentional expression even where the colour is intrinsic as in the sculptor's materials The Art of the Ancient Near East Seton Lloyd, 1961 Covers the art of Egypt Sumer Mesopotamia Anatolia Assyria Babylon and Persia Art of Mesopotamia Zainab Bahrani, 2017 This expert guide to the art of Mesopotamia spanning more than 8000 years is especially important as this ancient cultural legacy is threatened by contemporary conflict On Art in the Ancient Near East Irene Winter, 2010 This second volume of Collected Essays complement to volume one focuses upon the art and culture of the third millennium B C E in ancient Mesopotamia Stress is upon the ability of free standing sculpture and public monuments to both reflect cultural attitudes and to affect a viewing audience Using Sumerian and Akkadian texts as well as works the power of visual experience is pursued toward an understanding not only of the monuments but also of their times and our own
